An<sup>o</sup> Regni Caroli

Secundi Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ,
prova & Hiberniæ, 17<sup>o</sup>.

At the Parliament begun at Dublin, on the eighth day of May, Anno Domini 1661.

in the 13th year of the Reign of our Most Gracious Sovereign Lord

C H A R L E S the Second by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland King, Defender of the faith, &c.

And there continued by several Prorogations, unto the 26 day of October, Anno Domini 1665. and in the 17 year of His Majesties Reign

Whereas in the carrying on of that service which was appointed by a former Act in titled, An Act for the better execution of His Majesties gracious Declaration for the settlement of His Kingdom of Ireland, and satisfaction of the several interests of Adventurers, Souldiers, and other His Subjects there, several doubts and difficulties have arisen partly from the uncertain and ambiguous penning of divers
 Clauses

Clauses in the said Act, and partly from other accidents, which could not then be foreseen, to the great obstruction and hinderance of the Publique ends and aims intended by that Act to be promoted, and the very great disappointment of several persons & interests, which were thereby intended to be secured, Insomuch, that the full and final settlement of this Your Majesties Kingdom can hardly be attained by any further proceedings upon the said Act, as is already manifest by the experience which hath been had in the execution thereof: To the end therefore that Your Majesties most gracious and just intentions by that Act declared, may still be pursued, as far as remains possible, the Revenues of the Church settled and increased, Your Majesties dutiful and loyal Subjects quieted and secured in their just possessions, and the minds of all men so composed, that there may be a general and universal care and industry by building, planting, and all other ways of improvement, to repair & amend the ruines and desolations of this Your Majesties Kingdom: May it please Your Most Excellent Majestie, that it may be Enacted, & be it Enacted by Your Most Excellent Majestie, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Honours, Mannors, Castles, Houses, Places, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Right, Title, Service, Chiefry, Use, Trust, Condition, Fee, Rent-charge, Chattels real, Mortgage, right of Redemption of any Mortgages, Recognizances, Judgements, Forfeitures, Extent, right of Action, right of Entry, Statute, or any other Estate of what nature or kinde soever, in all and every the Counties, Baronies, Cities, Towns Corporate, and walled Towns within this Kingdom, which at any time from and after the Three and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, were seized or sequestred into the hands, or to the use of his late Majestie King Charles the first, or of Your Most Gracious Majestie, that now is, or otherwise disposed of, distributed, set out, or set apart, by reason of, or upon account of the late horrid Rebellion or War, which began or broke out in this Kingdom, upon the three and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or which were allotted, assigned, given, granted, ordered, distributed, disposed, demised, set out, or set apart to or for any person or persons use or uses, for Adventures, Arrears, Repayments, or otherwise, or whereof his late Majestie, or Your Majestie that now is, or any Adventurer, Souldier, Repayable person or others respectively, had and received

received the rents, issues and profits by reason, or upon account of the said Rebellion or War; or whereof the Adventurers, Officers or Souldiers now, or formerly of the English Army in this Kingdom, or transplanted, or transplantable persons, or any of them, or their or any of their Heirs, Heirs or Assigns, or any other person or persons whatsoever, upon account of the said Rebellion or War in this Kingdom, were in Seizin, possession or occupation by themselves, their Tenants, Agents or Assigns on the Seventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine; or which were assigned, given, granted, laid out, set apart or reserved for or towards the satisfaction of any the said Adventurers, Souldiers, or other persons, for or in consideration of any money or provisions advanced, lent or furnished; or for arrears of pay, or in compensation of any service, or reputed services, or other account whatsoever; or reserved, or mentioned to be reserved, for or in order to a reprisal, or reprisals, for such Incumbrances as then were, now are, or shall be adjudged due to any person or persons out of the said Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or for any other use, intent or purpose whatsoever, or whereof any Custodiam, Lease for year, or years, or other Disposition or Grant whatsoever hath been made; or unto which Your Royal Father, or Your Majesty are any ways intituled by reason of, or upon account of the said Rebellion or War, or which are wrongfully detained or concealed by any person or persons whatsoever: As also, all Chantries, and all Mannors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Pensions, Portions, and other Hereditaments, or other things whatsoever, belonging to any Ecclesiastical person or persons in his or their Politick capacity, and that have formerly by them, or any of them been let in Fee-farm, the right whereof, or title thereunto, or interest therein, was in any person or persons, his or their Heirs or Assigns, who by the Qualifications in the said Act expressed, have not been adjudged innocent persons: As also all Leases that have been made by any Ecclesiastical persons of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments belonging to them in their Politick capacity, to any person or persons, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, who by the Qualifications in the said Act expressed, have not been adjudged innocent persons: As also all Impropriations or appropriate Tithes belonging to any person or persons, his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, who by the Qualifications in the said Act expressed, have not been adjudged innocent: And also

also all and singular the Bestuages, Dannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whatsoever, whereof John fitz Gerald, alias fitz Gerard of Innishmoore, commonly called the Knight of Kerry, Captain John Magill of the County of Down, Geoffry Fanning of Ballingary, or any of them, or any of their Antecessors, whole Heirs they are, or any other person or persons in trust for them, or any of them, or to their or any of their uses were seized or possessed upon the Two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one: Notwithstanding that the same were not seized, sequestered, or set apart upon the account of the said late Rebellion or War, are and shall be, and are hereby declared, deemed and adjudged, as from the said Three and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, forfeited, and to have been forfeited to Your Majesties Royal Father of ever blessed memory, and Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors; and they are hereby from the said Three and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, deemed, declared, and adjudged to have been, and to be in the real and actual possession and Seizin of Your Majesties said Royal Father, and your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, without any Office or Inquisition thereof found, or to be found, freed and absolutely discharged of and from all Estates tail, and of and from all Feoffments, and other Conveyances made before the Three and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, by any person or persons being Tenants in tail, where the intail was not legally docked or barred by Fine or Recovery, before the Three and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, and of and from all Titles and Estates derived by, from, or under such Conveyances; and also of and from all and singular Remainders, Reversions, Rights, Titles, Interests, Services, Chiefries, Uses, Trusts, Conditions, Fees, Rent-charges, and Chattels real, Mortgages, Rights of Redemption of Mortgages, Recognizances, Judgements, Extents, Rights of Action, Rights of Entry, Statutes, and all other Estates, challenges and demands of what nature or kinde soever, to the intent that the same may be settled, confirmed and disposed of, to and for such use and uses, as in and by the said former Act were limited and declared, and are not by this present Act changed or altered, and to and for such other use and uses as in and by this present Act are declared or appointed, and not otherwise; Saving to Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors cessors all and singular such Estate, Right, Title and Interest of, in, and unto any Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments within this Kingdom, which Your Majesty hath or ought to have in right of Your Crown in Ireland, other than by virtue of the aforesaid Act, or this present Act; and otherwise than by one or more Inquisition or Inquisitions of Lands in the Province of Connaught, or Counties of Limerick and Clare, and the County of Tipperary, found and returned in the time of the Earl of Straffords Government in this Kingdom; which said Inquisition and Inquisitions is and are hereby declared to have been from the time of the taking thereof absolutely null and void, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had never been had nor taken, & other than such Right and Title as in and by a certain Act of Parliament passed in England, intituled, An Act of free and general Pardon, Indemnity and Oblivion, are mentioned, or intended to be barred or extinguished, Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not be deemed, construed, or taken to forfeit unto, or vest in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors any Honours, Mannors, Castles, Houses, Places, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or Chattel real whatsoever in all, every or any of the Counties, Baronies, Cities, Towns Corporate & walled Towns in this Kingdom on the Three and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, belonging in Possession, Reversion or Remainder unto the University of Dublin, or to any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Prebend, Dean and Chapter, or other Ecclesiastical person or persons in his or in their Politick capacity, or to any other Colledge, Hospital, Church Collegiate or Parochial, or to the Church Wardens and Parishioners of any Parish Church for the use of the said Church; or to any Guild, Corporation or Fraternity Ecclesiastical or Lay; or to any Parson, Rector, or Vicar of any Parish Church, or to any other person or persons particularly named in the proviso contained in the vesting Clause of the said former Act, and whose Estate was thereby expressly saved and excepted from being vested in your Majesty. Provided likewise, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not vest, nor be understood or construed to vest in your Majesty, your Heirs or Successors, or otherwise be prejudicial unto, or take away any Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Service, Chiefry, Use, Trust, Condition, Fee, Rent-charge, Chattels real, Mortgage, Right of Redemption of Mortgage, Recognizance, Judgement,

Judgement, Forfeiture, Extent, Right of Action, Right of Entry, Statute, or any other Estate of what nature or kinde soever from any Protestant or Protestants, their Protestant Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, whereof upon the Two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, they were respectively seized or possessed, or otherwise interested or intituled, or wherein they had any other Estate, Use, Possession, Trust, Reversion or Remainder, other than such Estate and Interest, whereof they, or any of them stood seized or possessed for the use of, or in trust for any Irish Papist or Roman Catholick, who by the Qualifications in the said Act hath not been adjudged innocent, or any other forfeiting person or persons; nor to any Judgement or Decree which hath been obtained by any Protestant or Protestants in the late Court, or pretended Court for Adjudication of Claims, or in the Court of Exchequer, or any the four Courts sitting at Dublin, before the Two and twentieth of August, One thousand six hundred sixty three; or for which any Judgement or Decree hath been confirmed, had or made by the Commissioners heretofore appointed by his Majestie for the execution of his late gracious Declaration and Instructions, or the aforesaid Act; Nor to the vesting any the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or Chattels real, Right, Title, Service, Chiefry, Use, Trust, Condition, Fee, Rent Charge, Chattel real, Mortgage, Right of Redemption of Mortgage, Recognizance, Judgement, Forfeiture, Extent, Right of Action, Right of Entry, Statute, or any other Estate of what nature or kinde soever of any Papist, who by the Commissioners appointed for the execution of the aforesaid Act hath been adjudged innocent, or the Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns of any such Papist, who hath been so adjudged innocent. And it is hereby declared, That no person or persons, who by the Qualifications in the said former Act hath not been adjudged innocent, shall at any time hereafter be reputed innocent, so as to claim any Lands or Tenements hereby vested, or be admitted to have any benefit or allowance of any future Adjudications of innocence, or any benefit of Articles whatsoever, but that they and every of them, and all and every person and persons claiming by, from or under them, or any of them, shall be, and are hereby barred and excluded of, and from all & singular claims and demands not particularly allowed and provided for in, and by this present Act. And whereas some question or doubt hath arisen, whether the Lands of any Officers or Souldiers

Souldiers were to be confirmed to them by the said Act, unless they had been formerly and were of the Army, at the time of the making your Majesties Declaration of the thirtieth of November one thousand six hundred and sixty: Be it declared, Enacted, and Explained by the authority aforesaid, that the word [ And ] used in that part of the said Act, which relates to them, shall be taken disjunctively, as if it had been [ or ] so that no such Officer, or Souldier, his Heirs, or Assigns, shall be excluded the benefit of the said Act, or this present Act, if he had been formerly of the Army, and in Possession as aforesaid, the seventeenth day of May, one thousand six hundred sixty nine, though he were not of the Army the thirtieth of November one thousand six hundred and sixty, or at any time since. And to the end that the persons, estates, and interests of his Majesties Protestant Subjects, of whom his Majestie ever had, and still hath greatest care and consideration in the Settlement of this his Kingdom, may be first provided for: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that all and every the Adventurers, and Souldiers, their and every of their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, who upon the seventeenth day of May, One thousand six hundred sixty nine, were seized or possessed of any Messuages, Mannors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for or towards the satisfaction of any Adventures or arrears, which by the rules of this or the said former Act are allowed to be satisfied, And all and every other the Adventurers commonly called Deficient Adventurers, whether they be deficient in whole or in part, (that is to say) such Adventurers who never had any Lands let out to them in satisfaction of their Adventures, or were never fully satisfied for the same, And the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns of such Adventurers respectively shall have, hold, and enjoy, and be settled, and confirmed, in so much of the forfeited Lands, which by this Act are vested in his Majestie, as will amount to two full third parts of what they, or those under whom they claim, had, or in cases of vicariance ought to have had upon the Seventeenth of May, One thousand six hundred sixty nine, in manner following, That is to say, The Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall diligently examine, and compute, or cause to be computed, what quantity of Land any such Adventurer or Souldier, or the Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns of such Adventurer or Souldier respectively had, or were seized or possessed of on the Seventeenth of May, One thousand six hundred sixty nine, or of right ought to have had

and been seized and possessed of upon the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, in case he were a deficient Adventurer, or the Heir, Executor, Administrator, or Assignee of any deficient Adventurer, And shall set out and allot, or cause to be set out and allotted unto every such Adventurer and Souldier, his and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns so much forfeited land as in quantity of Irish profitable Acres ( to be computed by Irish measure, according to the Down Surbey or Down admeasurement and not otherwise, where the Down Surbey hath been taken, and where the Down Surbey hath not been taken, by the Surbey taken in the Earl of Straffords time, or by some other Surbey to be taken according to Irish measure, wherein the unprofitable Land is to be cast in together with the profitable, according to the method of the said Down Surbey ) will amount unto full two third parts ( the whole in three parts being divided ) of what such person or persons to whom such allotment shall be made as aforesaid, or those under whom they claim, did hold and enjoy, or in cases of deficiency of right ought to have held and enjoyed upon the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, which said two third parts so as aforesaid to be allotted, shall be held and enjoyed by the persons to whom such allotment shall be made, according to the tenor of their severall and respective Letters Patents herein after directed to be granted, and in full satisfaction of any right, claim, or demand which by virtue of the said former Act, can or may accrue for or in respect of any Adventures or arrears, any retrenchment of a third part by this Act, or other matter or thing in the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And in case any Adventurer or Souldier, Commissioned Officer, who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, Protestant Purchaser in Connaght or Clare, before the first of September, One thousand six hundred sixty and three, his or their Heirs, Executors or Assigns shall be found to be in possession of any messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which by virtue of any clause herein after following, ought to be restored and delivered up to any person or persons herein after named, the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall in the first place, and before any such Restitution made, cause so much other forfeited or vested Land, to be set out as in quantitie of Acres will amount to full two third parts of the Land so as aforesaid to be restored, and that the persons so to be removed be duly Possessed of

of and settled in his said two third parts according to the rules of this Act; And the Commissioners for execution of this Act are hereby required and enjoined to take care that the Estates and Interests of His Majesties Protestant Subjects in Ireland, be settled with all convenient Speed, and that such parts of this Act, as have a tendencie thereunto be put in execution in the first place, and before any other parts of this or the former Act which relate to other matters. And to the end there may be as little change and alteration of Possessions as can consist with the ends and aimes of this present Act, And that every persons improvements may be preserved unto him, as much as is possible, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Adventurer or Souldier, or the Heir, Executor, assignee or assignes of any Adventurer or Souldier shall be found to have in his or their possession more Lands undecreed away than his or their full two third parts will amount to, according to the aforesaid rules of distribution and allotment, that in every such case it shall and may be lawful for him or them to continue possession, of so much as the Commissioners shall adjudge, his or their two full third parts to amount unto, and to cut of the overplus at his or their own election, in such manner as that the overplus relinquished or surrendered by him or them may be contiguous and as neer as may be within the same denomination, in which retrenchment the unprofitable Lands as well as profitable are to be reckoned and parted with together in like manner and proportion as the same were set out together according to the said Surveys, and in default of due retrenchment, and cutting of the overplus in such manner as the Commissioners shall approve, and within such time as the Commissioners shall direct, the Commissioners shall cause the overplus to be set out, and ascertain the residue, whereof possession is to be retained in such manner as they shall think fit, observing therein rules of contiguity and convenientie as much as may be, and reserving to him or them his or their house and the improvement about it, and the like rule is to be observed in the retrenchment to be made of the overplus of such Lands which have been set out in satisfaction of any Adventurers upon the Ordinances commonly called the doubling Ordinances, and in the retrenchment which is to be made from the Protestant purchasers in Connaghi and Clare, and where any Adventurer or Souldier, or the Heir, Executor, Administrator, assignee or assignes of any Adventurer or Souldier shall be found to be possessed of less Land than his or their full two third parts will amount unto according to the rules of this Act, that then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for him or them to continue and retain the possession of what he or they have, and that the residue of what is wanting to make up his or their full two third parts as aforesaid, be forthwith set out and made up out of some other forfeited Land to be allotted set out and ascertained by the Commissioners as aforesaid, and as neer as may be with convenience to the Lands in his or their present possession, any thing in the former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that all and every the Adventurers and Souldiers, their heirs, Executors, assignee or assignes, who upon the Seaventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine were or ought to have been possessed of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments set out for satisfaction of any Adventurers or arrears not since decreed away by such decrees as are herein confirmed, shall and may retain the Lands in his or their possession, or so much thereof as by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall be adjudged to amount to his or their full two third parts, any mistake or Misnomer of the County or Barony wherein the Lands set out for Adventures or arrears and so possessed lie, to the contrary notwithstanding. And it is likewise declared that the Adventurers and Souldiers, their heirs, Executors and assigns who have voluntarily relinquished or been removed from the Estate of James Duke of Ormond, and put into possession of any other Lands in the County of Catherlagh, not since decreed away from them, and all others who have relinquished any Lands whereof they were possessed the Seaventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, in obedience to his Majesty's Letters, and have since been removed to other Lands not decreed away from them, shall have like libertie of retaining the Lands whereof they are now possessed, or so much thereof as shall be adjudged to amount to his or their full two third parts, as he or they might have had if they had been so possessed upon the Seaventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, and what is wanting of two third parts shall be made up and supplied by the Commissioners out of some other forfeited Lands by them to be allotted. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid that all and every the deficient Adventurers, and the heirs, Executors, assignee or assignes of such deficient Adventurers who are to be satisfied for two full third parts of such such their deficiencies in quantity of acres to be set out and allotted as aforesaid, And all and every other the Adventurers, Souldiers, Protestant Purchasers in Connaught and Clare, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, to whom any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, are by the rules of this Act to be set out and allotted for the supply and making up of his and their full two third parts, shall be satisfied in the same Barony and County, or in the next Barony and County neered, in value to their respective deficiencies and allotments, if the same can conveniently be done. And in order hereunto, the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour and Governours, and Council for the time being, are hereby enjoyned to settle and declare the several degrees of values of the respective Counties and Baronies; which declaration shall be a rule and guide to the Commissioners in execution of any part of this Act, where the considerations of values shall be necessary or material; And where any Adventurer, his Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assignes shall be found to be deficient in part, and yet to have more Lands in one particular Barony or County, than his or their lot in that particular Barony or County would have amounted to, it shall and may be lawful to and for him or them, to retain and keep in his or their own possession so much of the overplus whereof he or they shall be possessed in one Barony or County, as shall be judged equal by the Commissioners, for and towards the satisfaction of his and their deficiency in any other Barony or County; so always that the whole which he or they shall so retain, exceed not the due proportion of full two third parts which he or they ought to have, according to the rules aforesaid. And where any Adventurer or Souldier, or the Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns of any Adventurer or Souldier, shall be found to have more Lands in his or their possession, than will satisfy the two third parts, which he or they ought to have by the rules of this Act, and yet shall have no deficiencies of their own to place upon such overplus, that there and in such cases, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Adventurer and Souldier, his and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to buy in, and purchase of any other Adventurer or Souldier, or the Heir, Executor, Administrator or Assignee of any Adventurer or Souldier, his or their right and title in and to the satisfaction of any deficiencies within the same Province, which are satisfiable by the rules of this Act, and to be satisfied for the right and title so bought and purchased as aforesaid, by retaining the other plus Land whereof he or they were seized, or so much thereof as shall not exceed the due proportion of two full third parts which ought to be applied to the satisfaction of such deficiencies.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Adventurers or Souldiers, Commissioned Officers, who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, Protestant Purchasors in Conaught, or Clare, before the first of September, One thousand six hundred fifty and three, his or their heirs, Executors, Assignees or Assignes, who are not by the rules of this Act to be removed, have been already removed or kept out from the possession of what they held, or ought to have held on the Seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine; yet neither by virtue of any Decrees made by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, nor by virtue of any Proviso or Clause in the said Act contained, or any other legal proceedings; in which words Legal Proceedings, Custodians, or any other Grant or Patent not confirmed, or otherwise provided for by this Act, and the proceedings thereupon are not intended to be comprehended, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for execution of this Act, to order and decree all and every such person and persons so removed or kept out as aforesaid, to be again restored and put into their possessions pro tempore, until the last and final Decree touching the settlement of such person and persons shall be made, and the respective Sheriffs and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice whom it may concern, and to whom any Precept or other Warrant in that behalf shall be directed, are hereby required and enjoined, to see the same executed accordingly, to the end that all and every person and persons so as aforesaid removed or kept out, may by such temporary restitution be enabled to retain so much of the Land whereof they shall be so possessed, together with their improvements, as their two full third parts, according to the aforesaid rules shall or may amount unto.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Adventurer and Adventurers who adventured their money upon certain Ordinances, or pretended Ordinances of Parliament made in the years, One thousand six hundred forty three, and, One thousand six hundred forty seven, commonly called the Doubling Ordinances, shall be esteemed, and are hereby declared Adventurers for no more than the principal money bona fide paid amounts to, and that they, their Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assignes, shall receive satisfaction for the moneys really and bona fide paid in and advanced upon the said Ordinances, or pretended Ordinances, in like proportion and manner as other Adventurers are to have by this Act, and no otherwise; that is to say, by an allotment of so much land as may be sufficient to satisfy full two third parts of the principal money so paid in and advanced as aforesaid, and no more, to the intent that he and they may be equally gainers or losers with other Adventurers; and in the setting out of this proportionable satisfaction, no regard is to be had of the quantity of Land, whereof the Adventurers upon the doubling Ordinances, their Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assignes were possessed the seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, but onely of the original money truly paid in as aforesaid; in the satisfaction whereof, one third part is likewise to be retentched, and onely two full third parts to be satisfied as aforesaid: Nevertheless, it shall and may be lawful for him or them to continue the possession of so much as the Commissioners shall adjudge to amount unto his or their full two third parts, in like manner as other Adventurers by this Act are enabled to do, in case so much shall be left in his or their possession, not decreed away by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall cause one or more books to be made, wherein the portion allotted to each Adventurer or Souldier, or the Heir, Executor, Assignee or Assignes of such Adventurer or Souldier, for and towards his and their two full third parts, and the several Augmentations of any Archbishopsrick or Bishopsrick, the allotment of Glebes, and the provisions made for the Colledge of Dublin, the maintenance of the Fort at Duncannon, and the Corporation of Bandonbridge, shall be particularly and fairly set down, and entred, and shall cause a Duplicate thereof to be made and returned into the Exchequer, there to remain of Record, and that upon a Certificate under the hands and seals of the Commissioners, or the major part of them, containing the lands allotted to any the persons or purposes aforesaid, or to any Adventurer or Souldier, or to the Heir, Executor, Assignee or Assignes of any Adventurer or Souldier, for his or their two third parts, and expressing the name or names of such

all persons, with convenient descriptions and denominations thereof, as to the number of Acres, the Barony, County and Province wherein the same do lie, and the rents referable, as also the Tenure and Services, and presented unto the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours of this Kingdom for the time being, he the said Lord Lieutenant, and other chief Governour or Governours of this Kingdom for the time being, shall be, and are hereby authorized and required, upon request of the person or persons so producing and presenting the Certificate aforesaid, to cause effectual Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland, to be passed in the usual manner of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to the persons concerned, by advice of His Majesties learned Council in the Law, or some of them, as the case shall require, without expecting any further Letters or Warrants from His Majesty; And for so doing, this present Act shall be to them and every of them their sufficient discharge.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Letters Patents granted by virtue of this Act, shall be, and are hereby confirmed unto the several persons therein named, according to the several and respective estates therein granted against the Kings Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and all other persons claiming by, from or under him or them, and shall stand and be discharged of and from all forfeitures, or pretended forfeitures, for non-payment of rent, or any sum of money now due, or not putting in of Claims, or not bringing in Field-books or Surveys, and of and from all further inquiries into false admeasurements, holding of lands profitable for unprofitable, or any other Qualifications whatsoever, and of and from all Wrahn profits, arrearages and incumbrances not herein after excepted, and shall stand and be good against all persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, and discharged of all Estates tail, and all other Estates of Freehold, or Inheritance, and all Reversions, Remainders, Rents and Interests whatsoever, not Decreed by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, or in the said former Act already allowed, whereby the Patentees can or may be incumbered and discharged of all demands, other than what are intended to be preferred by this Act, and shall be recorded in the same Letters Patents: Nevertheless it is hereby declared to be excepted, and is further Enacted, That no Letters Patents hereafter to be granted, shall any way extend to discharge or acquit any arrearages of

Quit-Rents reserved by the said former Act, and still behind and unpaid; nor to acquit that part and proportion of the Three hundred thousand pounds herein hereafter mentioned, and intended to be raised, and which by the rules of this Act will be payable by such Patentee, and leviable upon the Lands in the said Letters Patents contained, nor any Heals profits, which have been received of lands set out for English arrears, or in satisfaction of any adventures upon the doubling Ordinances, above what the original money did deserve, or in satisfaction of any other Titles or Interests not satisfiable by this or the said former Act; nor to discharge any sum or sums of money, which persons transplanted into Conaught, received upon sale of their estates in Conaught, and yet have since been restored to their former estates, or some part thereof, by virtue of some Clause in the said former Act contained, or some Decree or other Proceedings had upon the said Act, or shall be so restored by virtue of any Clause contained in these Presents, all which arrearages of Quit-Rents, Heals profits, or other sums of money as aforesaid, shall be, and are hereby made due and payable unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and shall be leviable and recoverable against every person and persons who shall be liable there-unto, his and their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and all and every their Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels whatsoever, Any Grant, Patent, Settlement or other Disposition made in pursuance of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And for the prevention of all unnecessary delays and unjust charges which can or may happen to the Subjects of this Realm before their full and final settlement, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where the Commissioners for execution of this Act, or the major part of them, shall give any Certificate under his and their hands and seals to any person or persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, in order to the passing of any Letters Patents according to this Act, and shall likewise return a Duplicate of such Certificate into His Majesties Court of Exchequer at Dublin, to be there inrolled, and the person or persons, Body Politick or Corporate, to whom such Certificate shall be given, shall immediately upon the obtaining of such Certificate; and from time to time during the space of six moneths next ensuing the date thereof, diligently and without intermission pursue and prosecute the having and obtaining of Letters Patents accordingly,

and in order thereunto shall pay or tender to such person or persons to whom they shall apply themselves for their assistance towards the passing of such Letters Patents, their several and respective fees to them due and payable, and shall not obtain such expedition and dispatch, that their several and respective Letters Patents may be full perfected and passed under the Great Seal of Ireland, within the space of six moneths next after the date of such Certificate, but shall be thereof delayed or hindered by the neglect of any Officers or Ministers as aforesaid, that there and in such case the several and respective persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, to whom or in whose behalf such Certificate shall be given or granted, shall hold and enjoy the several Rents, Pannages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in the several and respective Certificates mentioned and allotted according to such estate, and under such rents as are therein mentioned, as fully and amply to all intents and purposes, as if Letters Patents thereof had been granted and perfected, according to the directions of this Act, Any thing in this or the said former Act, and any other Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That where any Soldier or Souldiers, Adventurer or Adventurers, his or their Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assignees, have had any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments formerly set out to him or them, as well in satisfaction of arrears due for service done in England, as of arrears due for service done in Ireland, or in satisfaction of Adventures upon the doubling Ordinances, or in satisfaction of any other titles and interests not provided for by this Act, together with other Adventures, and such setting forth of lands hath been promiscuously and indefinitely as in the gross, without any particular application or distinction of the lands, showing which part of the said lands was intended as a satisfaction of the English Arrears, and which part as a satisfaction of the Irish Arrears, or which part was set out in satisfaction of Adventures upon the doubling Ordinances, or of other titles or interests not provided for by this Act, and which part for other Adventures, and the whole or part of the said lands so promiscuously set out as aforesaid, hath been Ceded or Deceivd away by virtue of some proceedings of the Commissioners appointed for execution of the said former Act, that then and in such case the land so ceded or deceivd as aforesaid, shall be accounted in Law to be such lands lands onely as were intended for the satisfaction of English Arrears or Adventures upon the doubling Ordinances, or of other titles and interests not provided for by this Act, so far as the same will extend, and all accompts and payments of the Dead profits of the Lands so evicted, are to cease for so much from the time of such Eviction or Decree as aforesaid: Nevertheless it is declared, That nothing herein contained, shall exclude such person or persons from having their full two third parts which are satisfiable by the rules of this Act: and from retaining so much whereof they remain possessed for and towards such satisfaction.

And to the end the Subjects of this Kingdom may be in some measure eased of those charges which are usual and ordinary in passing of Letters Patents, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful to and for so many of his Majesties Subjects as shall desire the same, to be joyned in one and the same Letters Patents, the due cautions before mentioned being therein observed, so as the Lands thereby granted in case of such being joyned, exceed not the quantity of fifteen thousand acres English measure in one Patent: Nevertheless it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, and Council there for the time being, in these and all other cases touching Patents to be granted by virtue of this Act, to regulate and moderate the fees of Officers as they shall think fit, according to circumstances.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Lands shall be allotted unto, or detained by any Adventurer or Soldier, or the Heir, Executor, Assignee or Assignes of any Adventurer or Soldier, for and towards his and their full two third parts, or for any part thereof, which lands so allotted or detained as aforesaid, shall be subject to any Estate, Remainder or other Incumbrance already decreed by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, or allowed by the rules of the said former or this Act, That then and in such case, the Commissioners for execution of this present Act, shall allot so much other forfeited land, as may fully satisfy for such Incumbrance, and cause the same to be entered in Books returned into the Exchequer: To the end, that upon Certificates made in manner aforesaid, Letters Patents may be thereof granted and passed as aforesaid: And therefore the Commissioners are with all speed to call up the value of such Incumbrances, as by reason of any former Decree shall charge any part of the said two third parts, that so a recompence may be provided as aforesaid: And in the estimate and valuation of such Incumbrances for which a recompence is to be provided, the Commissioners are to proceed by such rules and measures, as by the Instructions in the said former Act contained, were given for the valuation and estimate of such Incumbrances on the Lands of Adventurers and Souldiers as were therein appointed to be satisfied out of the forfeited lands in the County of Kildare, as neer as may be, and as far as may stand with equity and justice.

And it is further Declared and Enacted, That where any Securities for money have been allowed by the Decrees of the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, wherewith any land set out and allotted, or to be set out and allotted to any Adventurer or Souldier, his or their Heirs or Assignes shall or may be incumbered, that all interest thereupon due before the Nine and twentieth day of May, One thousand six hundred and sixty, shall be, and is hereby discharged: Nevertheless, the interest already received shall not be repaid, and from and after the Nine and twentieth day of May, One thousand six hundred and sixty, unto the times of the several and respective Decrees, no further or greater interest shall be satisfied or paid for any the moneys due upon the said security, than after the rate of forty shillings per cent. for one year: And from and after the time of the respective Decrees, full interest shall be satisfied and paid: and further, that lands shall be set out in full satisfaction of what shall remain due, after such abatement made as aforesaid, according to the rate of eight years purchase, to such person or persons as shall be prejudiced by such Incumbrances, by having his land liable thereunto, or by his purchasing and buying in of the same, and that no part of the land so allotted or detained as aforesaid may be subject to, or charged with any other Incumbrance not Decreed by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, or already allowed in the said former Act or this Act, Be it Enacted, That all & every such Incumbrances as against the Adventurer or Souldier so settled as aforesaid, other than such Incumbrances as are the proper act of the party so to be settled, or those under whom he claims be utterly void, & of none effect. And to the end that no person or persons who upon the seventh day of May, one thousand six hundred sixty and nine was in possession of any lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, as an Adventurer or Souldier, or as the Heir, Executor, or Assignee of such Ad-

venturer or Souldier, may hereafter be molested or impeached in the making out of his or their title in or to the lands so possessed or debarred of such satisfaction, and other the benefits and advantages which by this Act is given to them, who were so possessed as aforesaid, for want of producing such Deeds Conveyances, or such legal and formal Assignments as in Circumstances of Law might otherwise be required, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any person or persons, or those under whom he or they claim, were in possession of any Lands or Tenements upon the seventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, which were set out, or reputed to be held and enjoyed for and towards the satisfaction of any Adventures or Arrears, that there and in such cases no proof of the Deeds Conveyances or other Assignments shall be required, but the possession it self shall be, and so is hereby declared a sufficient evidence of the Title, unless the same Lands have been likewise claimed by some other Adventurer or Souldier, his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assignes respectively: In which case the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall upon such evidence as can be produced before them, determine the Title: And because there are several persons who pretend themselves able to discover much land, which is detained and concealed by the Adventurers and Souldiers, their Heirs or Assigns by false admeasurement, although it be probable that after so long a tract of time, such discoveries may not produce any great effect: Nevertheless, for the avoiding the scandal of such frauds, and to give just satisfaction to all persons and interests, who may pretend themselves to be prejudiced by such concealments, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governor and Governors of Ireland, and Council there for the time being, shall have power upon information to them made of any such concealments by false admeasurement as aforesaid, to cause a new survey to be made of the parcels and lots wherein such false admeasurement is pretended, observing therein these rules and cautions following;

First, That such information be given in within the space of three moneths next after the passing of this Act.

Secondly, That the Defendant or Defendants against whom such information is given, be first heard, before any new survey be ordered.

Thirdly, That the Informer or Informers do first put in security by Recognizance acknowledged before the Lord

Chief Justice of the Common Pleas for the time being, and with good and sufficient Sureties to be by him allowed, to bear the whole charges of the new Survey, and over and above to pay and satisfy unto the Defendant or Defendants his and their full Damages and Costs which they shall sustain by such prosecution, and shall offer to make Oath of before the said Lord Chief Justice, in case that upon the return of such Survey, it shall not appear that the Defendant or Defendants against whom such new Survey is ordered, were possess of more land by a full tenth part than he or they ought to have.

Fourthly, Where any new Survey is ordered, the same shall be taken by two Surveyors to be chosen for that purpose, one by the Informer, the other by the Defendants, and both Surveyors shall be sworn.

Fifthly, Where the Books of Distribution and the Down Survey agree in the satisfactions, which have been allotted to any Regiments, Troops, Societies or persons, or do not differ more than in one tenth, there no resurvey shall be ordered, notwithstanding such information.

Sixthly, What overplus together shall appear upon the new Survey, if the same exceed not one tenth part of what is due to the Defendant or Defendants, no Retrenchment shall be made.

Seventhly, If the overplus exceed a tenth, it shall be lawful to and for such Defendant or Defendants possessed of the overplus, to retrench the same where they think fit, so as such Retrenchments be contiguous, and of unprofitable land, together with the profitable, but is hereby discharged of all accounts for the Healin profits of the lands so retrenched.

Eighthly, If the information of false admeasurement be against a Soldier, or his heirs or Assigns, there the lot of the whole Regiment, Troop or Company shall be first surveyed, and if the same exceed not one tenth part of what such Regiment, Troop or Company ought to have, then no survey shall be taken of any individual lot or proportion.

Ninthly, Where the lot of the Regiment, Troop or Company shall exceed one tenth part of what they ought to have, there the individual parcel to be admeasured, if there be cause of Retrenchment, may retrench where he thinks fit, so as such retrenchment be contiguous.

Tenthly, Whereas some lots for satisfying the Army fell in a good and bad County or Barony, such as Kerry and and Limerick, & Dowhallow and Orrery, & whereas the Soldiers before they came to a particular Dividend of their general lot, did mutually consent, that when a lot should fall in a bad County or Barony, the persons to whom it there fell, should have more acres, & when it fell in a good County they should have less acres, or that the acres in the bad County should have a less rate or value set on them, And the acres in the good County a greater rate or value should be set on them, It is therefore declared that no overplus of acres in the bad County shall be considered as such an overplus as is liable to retrenchment, but with a due respect to such mutual agreements as were made in the general lot of the Regiment, Troop, Company or Society before the persons concerned in it came to a subdivision.

Eleventhly, No defendant or defendants whose lots are not to be found within the books of distribution, books of debentures, or books of Grocers Hall, shall be liable to any new surbey or readmeasurment, his evidences being lost.

Twelfthly and lastly, All proceedings in order to a new Surbey or readmeasurment which shall not be finished and perfected within nine months next after passing this Act shall cease and be void and the defendant to be discharged of all such inquiries for concealments upon such informations.

And for the further directions of the Commissioners for execution of this Act in their proceedings touching Incumbrances, It is hereby declared that where the estate in any messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments recovered by any Irish Claimant by virtue of any decree herein confirmed is not other nor greater than for the life of such Claimant only, there and in such case the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall give the person or persons against whom such decree hath been made or those who claim under them his and their election whether they will accept the reversion in fee of the Lands so incumbered with an estate for life expectant, upon the determination of the said estate, in lieu of their two third parts for the same, or will rather choose to have their full two third parts set out and allotted to them presently, out of some other forfeited Lands, And the Commissioners shall give them certificates in order to their passing of Letters Patents either of the reversion of the whole or of two third parts in possession, according as such election shall be made. And where the estate in any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments recovered by any Irish Claimant by virtue of any decree herein confirmed is such an estate in remainder or reversion reversion as will leape unto the person or persons against whom such decree hath been made an estate for the life of some other person onely; The Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall likewise give the person or persons against whom such decree hath been made or those who claim under them, his or their Election whether they will choose to continue the possession of the whole Land during the life of such person, and accept the estate for life in the whole Land in satisfaction of one of the third parts, which would otherwise be due by the rules of this Act, and demand no further allotment of any other forfeited Land than what shall be equal in quantity of acres to one third part onely, or whether they would rather desire to have their two full third parts to be set out and allotted presently out of some other forfeited Lands and to relinquish the possession of that estate which they hold for life, And the Commissioners are to proceed to give certificates in order to Letters Patents according to the consequence and event of such election,

the lands so granted as aforesaid, do not exceed the value of such Augmentations and allowances as by the said former Act were intended to be settled upon the respective Archbishops and Bishops to whom such Letters Patents were granted, then the lands so granted as aforesaid shall be held and enjoyed by the several and respective Archbishops, Bishops, and their Successors, according to the tenor of their respective Letters Patents; And that the said Letters Patents shall be of like force and effect as any other Letters Patents granted to Adventurers or Soldiers, by virtue of this Act are or ought to be: but if the lands so granted as aforesaid, shall exceed the value of such Augmentation, as by the said former Act was intended to be settled on the Archbishop or Bishop to whom the said lands were granted, then the Commissioners for execution of this Act shall cause such Retrenchment of the overplus to be made, as may leave unto the respective Archbishops and Bishops his and their due Augmentations and Allowances, with as much convenienty and contiguity as may be, and the Lands and Tenements so left unto the said Archbishops and Bishops, shall be held and enjoyed by them and their Successors respectively, as fully and amply as the same might have been enjoyed, in case the lands granted by the said Letters Patents had not exceeded the value intended by the said former Act, and the said Letters Patents, as to so much of the lands therein contained, which shall be retrench'd by the Commissioners as aforesaid, are hereby declared to be null and void, and the lands so retrench'd, shall remain and be bested in His Majesty to the uses of this present Act; And if the lands so granted as aforesaid, shall fall short of the value of such Augmentations as in and by the said former Act was intended to be settled, the Commissioners for execution of this Act shall cause the same to be supplied and made up by a further allotment out of such lands, and in such way and manner as by the said former Act was directed.

And it is further Enacted, That in lieu of such provision for glebes, as by the said former Act was intended, the said Commissioners shall likewise set out so many Acres of Land more, as may be sufficient to endow or supply all and every the Parochial Churches in this Kingdom with ten acres of Glebe at the least (except such Parochial Churches as are endowed with the like, or a greater quantity of Glebe already) and that the same be so allotted, as may be most contiguous and convenient to and for the several and respective Parish Churches hereby intended to be endowed, in which provision Parishes united, or to be united by virtue of an Act intituled, An Act for real union and division of Parishes, and concerning Free-Schools and Exchanges, are to be understood but as one Parish, and Parishes within great Cities and walled Towns are not at all intended to be comprehended, and the like care both for contiguity and convenience is to be had in the setting out of the Augmentations of the several Archbishopsricks and Bishopsricks not already provided for as aforesaid, as far as may be, without the too great prejudice of the present Possessor who is to be removed, and after the lands set out for the several Augmentations and Glebes as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall certify their proceedings to the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour and Council for the time being: And in case the proceedings of the Commissioners shall be there approved and allowed, then the lands set out for Augmentations and Glebes as aforesaid, shall be, and are hereby vested and settled respectively in the several and respective Archbishops and Bishops, and Incumbents of Parochial Churches, and their Successors for ever, and Letters Patents thereof are to be passed to them and their respective Successors, in like manner as is directed in the cases of Adventurers and Souldiers, and to be of like effect, subject nevertheless to the Quit Rents hereafter mentioned, and no other.

And to the end the Revenues of the Church may be more speedily settled, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lands held, or reputed to be held in Fee Farm of any Archbishop or Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, or other Ecclesiastical person in his or their Politick capacity, and by this Act vested in His Majesty, and the several Impropriations forfeited to, and by these Presents vested in His Majesty, shall be permitted to remain and continue in the possession of the several Archbishops, Bishops and other Incumbents, until the several and respective Augmentations, Endowments and Glebes set out and satisfied as aforesaid, and from and after the Augmentations satisfied, the residue of the lands held in Fee Farm as aforesaid, shall remain subject to the uses of the former Act, not changed by this Act, and to such other uses as in this Act are limited and appointed: And all and every the Impropriations or appropriate Tythes vested in His Majesty by these Presents, or otherwise escheated to His Majesty in Right of His Crown, and by the said said former Act vested and settled in the present and future incumbents and their Successors, shall likewise remain and be vested in the present and future Incumbents and their Successors, Subject nevertheless to such reservations, provisions, conditions, exceptions and other limitations, Authorities and dispositions as by the said former Act the same were made Subject unto, so alwayes that all and every the matters and things which by the former Act were limited and appointed to be done within the space of two years from and after the passing of the said Act, be likewise done within the space of two years from and after the passing of this present Act.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that all gifts, grants, feoffments, fines and other conveyances hereafter to be made by any Archbishop or Bishop of any Bannocks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments which by virtue of or in pursuance of this or the said former Act intituled, An Act for the better Execution of His Majesties gracious Declaration for the Settlement of his Kingdom of Ireland, and satisfaction of the several interests of Adventurers, Soldiers and other his Subjects there, have already been or hereafter shall be granted unto or settled upon any Archbishop or Bishop and his Successors as an augmentation of the revenue of such Archbishoprick or Bishoprick respectively, other than for the term of one and twenty years or three lives from such time as any such lease, grant or assurance shall begin, And whereupon the full moiety of the yearly value and improved rent, as the same are now worth to be let, shall be reserved and payable during the said term of one and twenty years, shall be utterly void and of none effect to all intents and purposes; This Act or any other Act, law, custome or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

And the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall likewise set out or cause to be set out so many more acres of profitable Land as may be of the yearly value of three hundred pounds per ann. or may be sufficient to answer and secure a yearly rent charge of three hundred pounds per ann. to be issuing out of the same, to the intent the same may be a perpetual revenue for the support and maintenance of the Provost of Trinity Colledge neer Dublin and his Successors, and be settled upon the said Provost of Dublin and his Successors in such way and in such manner as the Lord Lieutenant or other cheif Governour or Governours of Ireland and Council for the time being shall direct; And the Commissioners shall likewise set out or cause to be set out so many

ny more acres of profitable Lands, as may be of the yearly value of three hundred pounds, or may be sufficient to answer and secure a yearly rent-charge of three hundred pounds per ann. to be issuing out of the same, to the intent the same may be a perpetual revenue for and towards the support and maintenance of the Fort at Duncannon, and be settled for that purpose in such way and manner as the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governour or Governours and Council for the time being shall direct, and in the setting out of the said Lands the Commissioners shall not be obliged to proceed by any rules of contiguity, but onely to take care that the value intended be secured: And the Commissioners shall likewise set out or cause to be set out so many acres more of profitable Lands as may be of the yearly value of one hundred pound per ann. or may be sufficient to answer and secure a yearly rent-charge of one hundred pounds per ann. to be issuing out of the same to the intent the same may be a perpetual revenue for the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, and their Successors, and be granted to them by Letters Patents in such manner as other Letters Patents are herein after directed; Nevertheless if any Lands have been already set out for that purpose, the Commissioners are to cause the same to be valued and to retrench so much thereof as shall exceed the value of One hundred pounds per ann. And if the whole fall short of that value to cause the same to be supplied by further allotments as aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Protestant Commissioned Officers who were in Regiments, Troops or Companies raised in Ireland or transported out of England and served His Majesty or His Royal Father before the fifth day of June One thousand six hundred forty and nine, and are not excluded by the said former Act, and all others mentioned and intended by the said former Act to be satisfied equally and together with the said Commissioned Officers out of the same security, who received no Lands or money for their pay due unto them for their said service, their Heirs, Executors Assignees, or Assignes, and also John Bartlet, and the Heirs of Thomas Bartlet, their Heirs and Assignes shall hold and enjoy and be continued and confirmed in all and singular the Possessions, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments not already decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, and in the benefit arising from the redemption of Mortgages, Statutes and judgements, and in all other the benefits and advantages whatsoever arising or accruing unto them by by any Clause in the said former Act contained, other than the years rent, and the year and halfe rent therein mentioned, which rents are herein after otherwise satisfied and discharged.

And it is hereby Explained, Declared and Enacted, That these words, The benefits arising from the Redemption of Mortgages, Statutes staple, and Judgements, where the lands are not already disposed of to Adventurers or Souldiers, shall be understood and expounded, and so are hereby adjudged to be meant and intended of all benefits of that nature, which on the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, or at any time since were belonging to any Irish Papist or Roman Catholick not already declared innocent by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, although the lands were not actually sequestred (saving and reserving as herein after is saved and reserved) and that the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall cause all and every their securities for satisfaction of such arrears arising by the said former Act, or this present Act, to be equally divided and distributed amongst all and every the said Commissioned Officers, and other the persons aforesaid, and the Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assigns of such Commissioned Officers, and other the persons aforesaid, according to the proportion of their respective Arrears rated, or appointed to be rated by this Act; And therein care is principally to be taken, that such Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, and have yet had no satisfaction for their service in land or money, their Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assignes, may be satisfied in the first place after the rate of Twelve shillings six pence in the pound, if the same will so far extend; And if there shall be found any surplus, then the same shall be equally distributed amongst all the Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, and have any arrears due to them, as well those who have formerly had satisfaction in part, as those who have yet had no satisfaction, and amongst the respective Heirs, Executors and Assigns of such Officers; And that all and every the respective securities herein before mentioned, shall be forthwith put out of charge, without any fees to be therefore paid in order to the distribution aforesaid, and until such distribution made shall be managed for the benefit of the persons herein concerned by such persons as in the said former Act is directed; And in case any lands or houses within any of the securities aforesaid, said, shall by any particular Clause in this Act be disposed unto, or settled upon any person or persons not being a Commissioned Officer as aforesaid, nor having the same in satisfaction of arrears due for service before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, or by way of confirmation of some Clause in the former Act; The Commissioners for execution of this Act shall set apart so much other forfeited land, as may be sufficient to re-pay the said Commissioned Officers for such loss and damage as they shall sustain by such Clause, that so the said securities may remain and continue to and for the benefit of all persons therein concerned, as full and ample as the same would have been by virtue of this Act, if such particular Clauses or Dispositions had never been had nor made: And the Commissioners shall cause the distribution of lands and houses within the security of the said Officers to be fairly entered in Books, as is before directed in the Settlement of Adventurers and Soldiers, to the end that such persons who shall be settled in any of the respective securities, may be enabled to demand Letters Patents of the Houses, Lands and Tenements, Rights of Redemption, sums of money, and other the premises which shall be allotted to them for their proportion, which is hereby Enacted shall be granted accordingly, and shall be good and effectual in Law, according to the sense and purport of the same, but subject to the Quit Rents of Eighteen pence per annum to be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for every Twenty shillings which any House, Orchard or Garden-plot within the security aforesaid is worth to be let, according to the said former Act; and to such other Quit Rents as any of the land within the said security ought by virtue of the said former Act, or this present Act to be charged with; Having nevertheless to all and every the Archbishops, Bishops, and other the Ministers of the Church, such right, benefit and advantage of, in and to the forfeited houses in Cities, walled Towns and Corporations, as in and by the said former Act is given, the said Houses to be let out by the Commissioners for execution of this Act.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the House chosen by Edward Lord Bishop of Limerick, in the City of Limerick, and set out to him for seven years, according to the Act of Settlement, together with that small waste plot of ground, and two ruinous Tenements thereon, which the present Bishop thereof now rents of the Trustees at Twenty shillings per annum, lying on the backside of the the said dwelling house equal with the front thereof, adjointo the High-way adjoining to the wall of the said City, being from the said back-side in length threestore and separds, and in breadth twenty and nine pards, be annexed unto the See of Limerick for ever, and be a Mansion house for William the present Bishop thereof and his Successors.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the benefit and advantage of all forfeitures by false certificates, shall be in the first place applied to, and for the satisfaction of the persons aforesaid, who ought to be satisfied twelve shillings and six pence in the pound, until twelve shillings six pence in the pound be fully satisfied, in case the securities aforesaid shall not be sufficient for that purpose, and after twelve shillings and six pence in the pound fully satisfied to the persons aforesaid, then the whole benefit of the said forfeitures shall be, and remain, and shall be applied unto such uses, intents, and purposes as in and by the said former Act was appointed, so as the said false certificates be found out, and discovered within three months after the passing of this present Act.

And whereas by the said former Act such Officers or their Assignes who shall purchase any Houses, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within any Corporation are enjoyed to give security to satisfy such as by virtue of any Lease or contract for Lease have built or improved any house or Garden either in money or else by granting to such person or persons a Lease at a Rent proportionable to the said improvement so as the said proportion exceed not a fifth part of the value the same are worth to be sold, Messuages built from the ground onely excepted: Be it Enacted and explained by the Authority aforesaid, that no person or persons shall be admitted to have any satisfaction or security for his or their improvements who upon Leases or contracts for Leases made before his Majesties happy Restauration were bound to make such improvements, And have actually enjoyed the said Houses, Lands, and Tenements during the full time and term of years for which they did contract and agree as aforesaid, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding. And to the end that all and every the Houses in Corporations being part of the aforesaid securities may alwayes continue in the hands of English and Protestant Subjects as neer as may be, It is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that no Papist or Popish Recusant shall be admitted to purchase any of the Houses in Corporations from the Commissioners for Execution

Execution of this Act, nor any other person or persons but such who shall take the Oathes of Allegiance and Supremacy, which Oathes any of the said Commissioners or any Justice of Peace hath hereby power to Administer without the Licence and leave of the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governour or Governours in Ireland and Council there by Act of Council Act had and obtained: And further that no Commissioned Officer who served before the fifth of June One thousand six hundred forty and nine, nor the Heir, Executor, Assignee or Assignes of such Commissioned Officer, or other person to whom any of the Houses within the said security shall be allotted, or shall hereafter come, shall let, grant, alien, demise, lease or otherwise dispose any House or Houses within the security aforesaid to any Papist or Popish Recusant, or person refusing the Oathes of Allegiance and Supremacy as aforesaid, without Licence as aforesaid, under pain of forfeiture of double the value of every such House so conveyed or disposed as aforesaid, One moiety thereof the Kings Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, the other moiety to him or them that will sue for the same to be recovered by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or information in any of the four Courts of Record at Dublin, wherein no Escoin, Protection, nor wager of Law, to be admitted, nor any more than one imparlance, and the said Houses, and Lands in Corporations together with the sum of One hundred thousand pounds herein after mentioned are with all possible expedition to be distributed by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act according to the rules aforesaid, that to the daily ruine and decay of the said Houses may be prevented as soon as it is possible.

And whereas the Lord Lieutenant and Council of this your Majesties Kingdom, have at the humble suite of several of the said Officers conceived an order bearing date at the Council Board of Dublin the twelfth of January One thousand six hundred sixty three, wherein they have set down several rules and directions for the stating the arrears of the several Armies which were employed in the service of your Sacred Majesty, or your Royal Father of blessed memory in your wars in Ireland, before the fifth of June One thousand six hundred forty nine, which order by reason of the shortness of the time limited for stating the said arrears, and issuing debentures unto the said Officers, would not be punctually observed by your Majesties Commissioners appointed for Execution of the said Act, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said order bearing ing date as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby Enacted in as full and ample manner, as if the same were particularly set down and recited in this Act, and the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed for the execution of this Act, are hereby authorized and required, before they proceed to the giving out of any satisfaction for any arrears of pay due unto any of the said Officers, or their Assigns, to take care that all the accounts of the said Officers be made conformable unto the Rules and Directions of the said Order, notwithstanding the Debentures issued as aforesaid, and that all deductions by the said Order appointed to be made, be made accordingly, which being done, the said Commissioners are to proceed to the setting out of satisfaction to the said Officers or their Assigns, pursuant to the Rules of this Act and the said Order, and not otherwise; Saving to Charles late Earl of Mountrath, his Executors and Assigns the benefit of six thousand pounds due for service before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, which is hereby declared, shall be satisfied and paid out of the securities aforesaid, equally and in like proportion to and with any other persons who are to be satisfied their arrears, and have yet received no satisfaction for the same, Any thing in the said Order of the Twelfth of January, or herein before contained, to the contrary notwithstanding; Saving also unto Edward Lord Viscount Conway and Kilulta the satisfaction of such arrears as are due to him for his own service, or for his Fathers service in Ireland, before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, in such manner and form as the same ought to have been satisfied, if no such Order had been made by the Lord Lieutenant and Council upon the twelfth of January, One thousand six hundred forty three, Any thing in the said Order, or in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas your Majesty taking into your Princely consideration, of how great importance it is to the security, peace and good settlement of this your Kingdom of Ireland, that the Maritime Towns and other places of strength, should be put into such hands as are capable to carry on the plantation and settlement of those places, whereby the further ruine of the houses in those Towns will be prevented, and Commerce and Trade recovered, to the great increase of your Majesties Revenue, was graciously pleased by one or more Letters under your Royal signature, to direct and appoint that Wentworth Earl of Roscommon, and Roger Earl of Orrery, should have the privilege of pre-emption, and be first satisfied out of the forfeited houses of your Majesties City of Limerick, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Wentworth Earl of Roscommon, and Roger Earl of Orrery, their Heirs and Assigns, in the distribution and setting forth of the security appointed for the satisfaction of the arrears of the Commissioned Officers who served your Majesty, and your Royal Father in Ireland, before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, shall have the preference and primer satisfaction of Fifty thousand pounds of their own personal arrears, or other arrears purchased by them out of the forfeited Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the City, Suburbs and Liberties of Limerick, which are part of the said securities, at the rate of eight years purchase, as they are or should be found to be really and bona fide worth, and if any doubt or difficulty should arise concerning the value of the said Houses or Lands, so as the Trustees for the said Officers shall not be satisfied with the return already made of the value of the same, that in such case, upon the desire and request of the said Trustees, there shall be a new survey and valuation of the said Town and Liberties, by such persons as shall be appointed by your Majesties Commissioners for the execution of this Act, by and with the consent of the said Trustees, according to which return the said Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments are to be sold, and not otherwise; And in case the said Earls, their Heirs and Assigns, or any of them, shall offer unto your Majesties said Commissioners for the execution of this Act, any Debentures of Officers who served as aforesaid, before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, for or in part of payment for all, or so much of so much of the said houses and premises as shall be valued to be worth Fifty thousand pounds as aforesaid, the same shall be allowed, and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to accept and receive the same, for all, or in part of the said Fifty thousand pound, so as the said Debentures are capable of Prior satisfaction, and there has been such deductions and defalcations made as are directed by this Act, and the said former Act, and shall not be accepted to satisfy more in the pound than the whole security will hold out to satisfy the Debentures of the rest of the said Officers: And the said Commissioners are also required and authorized, to give such Certificate as is necessary for the passing of Patents thereof, according to the Rules in this Act.

And

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Protestants who before the first day of September One thousand six hundred sixty three, purchased lands in the Province of Connaght, or County of Clare, from any transplanted or transplantable person and the heirs, Executors, Assignees, or Assignes of such Protestant purchaser, shall hold, and enjoy, and be continued, and confirmed in such two third parts of all and singular the lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, so by them purchased as aforesaid, whereof they are now in possession, which by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall be allotted to them, and shall hold the same for and during such respective estates as were purchased, freed, and discharged from all penalties, and forfeitures, and all inquiries or qualifications whatsoever, and of and from all estates, titles and interests, claims or demands as fully, and amply as any Adventurer or Souldier ought to enjoy his or their full two third parts herein before expressed; And that the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, do proceed with all expedition possible to the setting out of the two thirds, and cause the same to be entred in Books in like manner as is before prescribed in the Settlement of Adventurers and Souldiers, to the end that the persons concerned in the said two thirds, and their Settlement thereupon may be enabled to demand Letters Patents thereof in like manner as any Adventurer or Souldier may demand for his part, which is hereby Enacted shall be granted accordingly, and be as effectual to the respective persons therein mentioned to all intents and purposes as any Letters Patents granted to any Adventurer or Souldier in pursuance of this Act, are or ought to be; Rebertheless it is hereby declared, That the persons to be settled as aforesaid, shall have the benefit of all their respective improvements as near as may be, And shall have like liberty and advantage in Retrenchment of that third part which they are to relinquish, and upon like terms and conditions as the Adventurers and Souldiers are to have in the Retrenchment of that part of their possessions which shall exceed their full two third parts, and whatever shall be so Retrenched from the said Protestant purchasers, or from any Adventurer or Souldier his or their heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assignes shall remain in His Majestie, his heirs, and Successors, to the uses herein before and after mentioned; And where any of the lands so purchased have been evicted by any Decrees herein after confirmed, or shall be given, or restored stored to any person or persons by any special clause, or proviso herein contained, The Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall set out, and allot unto the person prejudiced by such Decree, or clause, so much other forfeited land as may be equal in quantity of acres to two third parts of the lands so evicted, or restored as aforesaid: And it is likewise further declared and Enacted, That the persons to be settled in Connaght and Clare as aforesaid, and from whom a third part is to be Retrenewt and cut of as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby discharged of and from the years rent reserved and payd by Charles Earl of Mountrath, and others in a particular clause in the said former Act mentioned, and of and from all the arrearages thereof.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforesaid, That neither Adventurer, or Souldier Commissioned Officer, who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, Protestant purchaser in Connaght and Clare, transplanted person, Nor the Heirs, Executors, Assignee or Assignes, of them or any of them, nor any other person or persons, Body Politick or Corporate who by the said former Act of Settlement is or are any way intitled to repyzals for or in respect of some possession which they have quitted or of some Decees which have been made against them, or otherwise shall at any time hereafter be enabled to demand or have the same repyzals further than what will amount to his and their full two third parts as aforesaid, but shall be thereof for ever barred and excluded any thing in the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding (His Royal Highness James Duke of York, His Grace George Duke of Albemarle, and such others herein after mentioned according to the provision herein after made onely excepted)

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Adventurer or Souldier, nor the Heir, Executor, Assignee or Assignes, of any Adventurer or Souldier, who before any Decree of innocence made by the Commissioners for Execution of the said Act, did by himselfe or any other directly or indirectly compound or agree with any Irish claimant whose claim was then depending before the said Commissioners shall ever be admitted to receive or have his two third parts or any other satisfaction for that part of his estate which he so compounded or agreed for, but as to so much of his estate for which any agreement was made as aforesaid, shall be for ever barred, and concluded, to demand his two third parts, as if the person so agreeing had never neher been seized or possessed of the same, or intitled thereunto, so as such Composition or agreement be made to appear before the Commissioners for execution of this Act, within three moneths after their first sitting.

And for the better improvment and ascertaining of His Majesties Revenue, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all lands by this or the former Act vested in His Majestie, or restored by virtue of any Decrees herein after confirmed, or settled, or mentioned to be disposed, restored, confirmed or settled unto, or upon any person or persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, by virtue of any Clause in this or the said former Act contained, and not particularly by plain and expresse words excepted from Quit Rents in the same Clause, and the Lands by this Act appointed to be set out for Augmentation of Bishopricks, for endowment of Parochial Churches with Glebe, for the better support of the Provost, or of the Provost and Fellows of the Colledge of Dublin, for the maintenance of the Fort at Duncannon, and the benefit of the Corporation at Bandon-Bridge, and all the lands enjoyed by transplanted persons in the Province of Conaght, or the County of Clare, and all other the Lands seized, sequestered or set out by reason of or upon accompt of the late Rebellion or War (the lands of James Duke of Ormond, Elizabeth Lady Dutcheles of Ormond, the Earl of Burlington and Cork, the Earl of Roscommon, and other the Protestants of Ireland, heretofore sequestered, onely excepted) be subject and liable to such Quit Rents to be paid unto His Majestie, His Heirs and Successors, as in the former Act is directed and appointed: Saving onely that the lands in the Province of Ulster, which by the former Act were charged with one penny the Acre Quit-Rent, shall be, and are hereby charged from henceforth with two pence the acre Quit-Rent: Nevertheless, because it may so fall out, that in some Counties and Baronies of this Kingdom, the Quit Rents which by the Rules of this Act will be chargeable upon, and issuing out of the lands therein lying, may exceed, or at least amount to the full value of the land therewith charged, or very neer the full value, to the great discouragement of all Plantation and Improvment thereupon, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours, and Council for the time being, at any time during the space of three years, from and after the passing of this present Act, to make such abatement and moderation of Quit Rents, as they in their judgements shall think fit, and that such Order of Council as shall be made touching the abatement of Quit Rents, and enrolled in the Court of Exchequer, shall be as good and effectual, as if the same had been Enacted by these Presents. Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And for the better carrying on of this present Settlement, by raising such a sum of money as may be sufficient to buy of several Estates and Interests, which by virtue of the said former Act are now in being, and if they should be strictly challenged and demanded according to the tenor of the said Act, would in a great measure delay and hinder the execution of this present Act, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one years rent of all the lands in Ireland which were returned by the Civil Survey, to belong to any Irish Papist, Popish Recusant, or Roman Catholick, according to the values of the same lands were let at in the year, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, and of all other the lands wherein any Adventurer or Soldier, his Heirs, Executors or Assigns hath any benefit of Settlement, or Confirmation by virtue of this present Act (the lands settled by Erasmus Smith to any pious or charitable use onely excepted) be forthwith raised and paid unto the Receivers herein after constituted and appointed, by two even and equal payments, the first payment thereof to begin upon the first day of February, which shall be in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred fifty five, the second payment to be upon the first day of February, which shall be in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred fifty six, under the penalty following, that is to say, every person liable to the payment of any part of the said years Rents, and making default and failing to pay the same, by the space of twenty days after any the days and times wherein the same ought to be paid, shall be chargeable, and is here by charged with double the sum which ought to have been paid as aforesaid, to be levied by Process out of his Majesties Court of Exchequer, in like manner as any the Rents wherof the said Earl of Orrery and Lord Massereen were appointed Receivers by the said former Act, might have been levied and if need so require like course is to be taken for the ascertaining of the value of lands charged with the said years rent, and of returning the same into the Exchequer to remain and be a charge upon Record, as in and by the said former former Act, in case of the said other rent therein secured was appointed, And the said Receivers herein after appointed are to account for and pay unto Arthur Earle of Anglesey Vice-treasurer of Ireland, or to the Vice-treasurer of Ireland, for the time being, all and every the summes of money by them to be received, Hebertheleas it is hereby declared and Enacted that all and every the summes of money formerly paid to the Earl of Orrery, and Lord Vice-Count Massareen, in pursuance of the said former Act, shall be allowed to the person and persons so paying the same, his and their Heirs, Executors, and Assignes, in full discharge of so much of the rent payable by this Act as the monyes so as aforesaid payd, so as shall amount unto, and the two half years rents payable to the said Earl of Orrery, and Lord Vice-Count Massareen, by any Adventurer or Soldier, their Heirs, Executors, or Assignes, by virtue of the said former Act shall be and are hereby from henceforth discharged. And in case the monies to be raised as aforesaid shall fall short of the summe of three hundred thousand pounds, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governour and Council there for the time being to tax and assess upon all the lands in Ireland, so much more money, as together with what hath been before raised and allowed by virtue of this Act shall make up the full and just summe of three hundred thousand pounds sterling, and to cause the same to be assessed, distributed, raised, and levied by such wayes and means as they shall think fit, observing therein all the equality and indifferency that can be, And Arthur Earle of Anglesey Vice-treasurer of Ireland, or the Vice-treasurer for the time being, is hereby required and enjoined to pay or cause to be payd out of the monyes to be received as aforesaid unto the Kings Majesty the summe of fifty thousand pounds, and also unto and amongst such Commissioned Officers who served before the sixth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, and have not yet received any satisfaction in lands or money, and amongst the Heirs, Executors, and Assignes, of such Commissioned Officers, and other persons intitled to be satisfied within their security such summes of money as the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, having respect to the arrears already rated shall by any warrant under their hands and Seals, or the hands and Seals of the Major part of them, direct and appoint, until the whole sum of One hundred thousand pounds shall be fully satisfied and payd, and the warrant or warrants under the hands and Seals of

of the said Commissioners of the Major part of them, together with the acquittance or acquittances of the party or parties who shall receive any money thereupon shall be unto the said Vice-treasurer a sufficient discharge for so much as the said acquittances extend unto which said One hundred thousand pounds so as aforesaid appointed to be paid, is hereby declared to be in lieu and recompence of and in full satisfaction for the years rent payable out of the lands of those Soldiers who had lands set out for their arrears in the year, One thousand six hundred fifty three, and the year and halfe rent payable by those other Soldiers who had lands set out for their arrears in the years One thousand six hundred fifty five, One thousand six hundred fifty six, One thousand six hundred fifty seven, One thousand six hundred fifty eight, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, The payment of which said rents shall from henceforth cease and determine, and the persons and estates therewith charged or chargeable by the said former Act, shall be, and are hereby thereof for ever acquitted and discharged: And whereas several clauses in his Majesties Gracious Declaration of the thirtieth of November, in the twelfth year of his Raign, and in the former Act, do intitle his Grace James Duke of Ormond, and the Lady Dutchess his Wife to great quantities of forfeited lands in the Countie of Catherlagh, Galloway, Waterford, Dublin, Kildare, Meath, Cork, Kerry, Kilkenny and Tipperary, and other places, and if the same were extended to the utmost would greatly obstruct and hinder the Settlement now intended, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the full sum of fifty thousand pounds sterling be paid out of the monies aforesaid unto his said Grace James Duke of Ormond, now Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, his Executors, Administrators, or Assignes, which the said Vice-treasurer is hereby required and enjoined to pay or cause to be paid out of the monies aforesaid unto his said Grace, or unto such other person or persons as his Grace shall appoint, which is hereby declared to be in lieu and recompence of and in full satisfaction for all such forfeited and forfeitable estates, titles, interests, claims or demands in or to any Bannors, lands Tenements or Hereditaments mediately or immediately held, as of any of the Bannors of the said Duke or the Lady Dutchess of Ormond his Wife, or heretofore granted by his Grace, or any of his Ancestors, or by any of the Ancestors of the said Lady Dutchess in Fee Farm or Fee tail, and of all and singular the natures, judgements, Mortgages,

Mortgages, and other real securities for money given, made, acknowledged or entred into by any person or persons holding as aforesaid, to any other forfeiting person or person not declared innocent, to all which premises the said Duke and Dutchess respectively by his Majesties said Declaration, and by the said former Act are intitled, and of all mean rates, issues and profits thereof since incurred, and now due to his Grace, other than what is already received to his use, for which he is hereby acquitted, and of all and every the Reversions and Remainders which the said Duke or Dutchess now hath, or have expectant upon the said forfeited and forfeitable Estates tail, which Estates, Interests, and other the benefits and advantages herein before mentioned are intended, and so are hereby declared to be as against the said Duke or Dutchess, their Heirs and Assignes utterly barred and extinguished: Saving nevertheless to the said Duke and Dutchess, their Heirs and Assigns, and to such other person and persons as are concerned in the uses expressed in one Quadripartite Deed bearing date the twentieth day of December, One thousand six hundred fifty one, the full benefit and advantage of all such Tenures, chief-rents, and other services, as the said forfeited and forfeitable Lands and Tenements were held by, other than the benefits and advantages of Wardships and Tenures by Knights Service, in as full and ample manner as the said Duke and Dutchess did hold or enjoy, or might have held or enjoyed the same upon the Two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since; Saving also to the said Duke and Dutchess of Ormond, their Heirs and Assigns, the benefit of all forfeited and forfeitable Estates vested in his Majesty, and held of them, or either of them as aforesaid, their or either of their Ancestors, and which were never allotted to any Adventurer or Souldier, in which words it is hereby declared, That the Estates allotted or let out to any Souldier for service in England or elsewhere, other than in Ireland, are not to be understood or comprehended, nor the Estate of any Adventurer upon the doubling Ordinances, for more than such Adventurer is to have by the rules of the said former Act, for the sum by him disbursed, as other Adventurers, nor the estate of any Adventurer who claimeth for sea-service, nor the estate allotted to any person whatsoever, by the free gift of the late Usurpers, or of the then usurped Government, but that all such estates shall be, and remain unto the said Duke and Dutchess, their Heirs and Assigns, as they did or ought to have been at any time before the making of this Act; And also saving unto the said Duke and Dutchess, their Heirs and Assigns, the full benefit and advantage of all other matters and clauses in the said Declaration & former Act contained, not herein & hereby expressly changed and altered, and by the said Duke Dutchess waived & parted withall, which are hereby declared to remain, and be in full force, as they were before the making of this Act.

And whereas the most part of the Houses and Lands in the City of Kilkenny, and in the several Towns of Clonmel, Carrick, Callin, and Inistioge, Traly and Dingle, and in the Suburbs and Liberties of the said City and Towns, were held the Three and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, of the said Duke of Ormond, either in his own right, or in right of the said Duke or Dutchess his wife, by reason whereof the forfeited and forfeitable interest of any person or persons in the said houses and lands were not by the said Declaration and former Act to be settled in any Adventurers or Soldiers, or any other person whatsoever, other than the said James Duke of Ormond and his Heirs, of which Concession if the said James Duke of Ormond did take the advantage and full benefit as he might, the same would tend to a great diminution of the security designed for satisfaction of the Commissioned Officers serving in Ireland before the fifth day of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine; And be the said James Duke of Ormond might likewise as a Commissioned Officer charge the remain of the said security with his arrears, amounting to Threescore thousand pounds sterling, amounting to the tenth of December, One thousand six hundred and fifty, yet is content to accept of the said Houses and Lands in full discharge of his said arrears, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said James Duke of Ormond shall have, hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, in full satisfaction and discharge of the said arrears, all and singular the forfeited and forfeitable Houses and Lands lying and being in the said City, and in the said several Towns, and in the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, other than what hath been given out to Adventurers and Soldiers, and by them, their Heirs or Assigns were possessed upon the seventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, Any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Be the said James, Duke of Ormond and his Heirs, paying and satisfying to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors yearly yearly for ever out of the said Houses and Tenements in the said City and several Towns and in the Suburbs and liberties thereof, one Shilling six pence yearly out of every twenty Shillings yearly rent which shall be had or answered out of the said Houses or Tenements, And the said Vice-treasurer is hereby further required and enjoined to issue out and pay the whole residue of the said three hundred thousand pounds unto such person and persons as his Majesty already hath or hereafter shall appoint as a Reward of their Eminent services and sufferings for his Majesty or his Royal father; And for preventing of all doubts which may arise in the issuing and payment thereof, It is hereby declared that the same shall principally, and in the first place be applied to and for the payment and discharge of such summs of money as his Majesty did heretofore appoint to be paid out of the half years Rent payable by Adventurers and Souldiers by the said former Act, That is to say, to and for the payment and discharge of such summe or summs of money appointed by his Majesty to be paid to his Grace James Duke of Ormond, or so much thereof as is in arrear, and also for the payment and discharge of so much money, as the half years Rent payable by Adventurers and Souldiers in the Counties of East and Westmeath, Wexford, and Kilkenny, would have amounted to in case the same had not been discharged by this present Act which shall now be paid out of the residue of the said three hundred thousand pounds unto the Assignee of the half years Rents in the Counties aforesaid deducting only what hath been already received.

And be it further Enacted, declared and explained by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Honours, Mannors, Castles, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of the Regicides in the said former Act, named, and of all other seized or possessed in trust for them, or any of them or claiming by from or under them or any of them, which by the said former Act were or ought to be vested in his Royal Highness James Duke of York and Albany, Earl of Ulster &c. and his Heirs, and of all other persons excepted in the Act passed in the Parliament of England, intituled an Act of free and general pardon, Indemnity and Oblivion, or his Majesties late gracious Declaration, and Instructions in the said former Act mentioned whole estates are not otherwise disposed, other than the lands of such purchasers for valuable consideration from any of the said Regicides who have paid their purchase money to his Royal Highness or his Commissioners or to the Executors of such Regicides, gicides, who have since answered the same upon their accompts to his Royal Highness or his Commissioners, and other than the lands and Houses granted or intended to be granted unto James Duke of Ormond, and the Lady Dutchess his Wife, or either of them by this or the said former Act, and other than the lands granted unto Michael now Lord Archbishop of Dublin, heretofore Lord Bishop of Cork, and the lands granted unto Francis Lord Aungier, and other than the lands granted to Sir George Lane before, and confirmed in and by the said former Act, and other than the lands settled upon Hercules Huncks, by the said former Act, which shall remain to them their Heirs, and Assignes accordingly, and other than the lands which have been decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the late Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be and continue vested in his Royal Highness, and his Heirs as fully and amply with all the like benefit and advantage as by the said former Act is mentioned, discharged of all Rents, services and payments by this or the said former Act reserved, created or imposed, but subject to the same Rents, services and payments as other lands by this Act ought to be, in case his Royal Highness or his Heirs shall alien or demise the same otherwise than for lives or years, reserving the full Property of the improved Rents. And where any lands formerly set out in satisfaction of any Adventures or arrears or any other lands whatsoever due to the said Regicides, or any of them have been evaded or recovered from his Royal Highness his Heirs and Assignes by virtue of any such decrees as aforesaid, Be it further Enacted, That some other like quantity of profitable and forfeited lands according to the down Surbeequal in number of acres to those which have been so evaded and within the Counties of Dublin, Lowth, Kildare, and Cork, or some of them, if it may be or otherwise elsewhere be forthwith set out by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, and allotted to his Royal Highness and his Heirs to be held as aforesaid: And further that all deficiencies which have happened to all or any the persons whose estates by the said former Act, or this present Act are vested in his Royal Highness, and his Heirs, or which have happened to their or any of their estates be fully satisfied and supplied out of some other forfeited lands to be set out by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, and allotted to his Royal Highness and his Heirs, to be held as aforesaid, and that all moneys lent or disbursed by any of the said persons or by any others for them or any of them for

for Provisions, Arms or Ammunition for support of his Majesties Army in Ireland, in the beginning of the Rebellion there, be likewise satisfied out of the Lands and Houses for that purpose, according to his Majesties Declaration in the said Act of Settlement to be set out by the Commissioners for execution of this Act, and allotted to his Royal Highness, his Heirs and Assigns to be held as aforesaid, Any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Saving always unto Arthur Earl of Anglesey, such Right and Title of, in and to such part of the premises as he the said Earl of Anglesey hath, or ought to have by virtue of the said former Act, or this present Act, or by virtue of an Indenture of Lease under the hand and seal of his Royal Highness, made between his Royal Highness of the one part, and the said Earl of Anglesey on the other part, bearing date before the passing of this Act, Any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be any ways construed to take away, or be prejudicial unto any Estate, Right, Title or Interest of George Duke of Albemarle, his Heirs or Assigns, of, in or to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, accreting to him or them by virtue, or in pursuance of the said former Act, or one other Act, intituled, An Act for the securing several Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to George Duke of Albemarle. Any thing herein before or after expressed to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And it is further Enacted, That the Ferry at Wexford, with all the profits, and other the Rights and Priviledges thereunto belonging, or therewith used and enjoyed, shall be, and are hereby vested and settled in the said George Duke of Albemarle, and shall be held and enjoyed by the said George Duke of Albemarle, his Heirs and Assigns.

And whereas several Lands and Tenements, whereof the said George Duke of Albemarle was seized by virtue of one or both the Acts before mentioned, have been evicted or recovered from the said George Duke of Albemarle, by virtue of certain Decrees lately made by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, and some Incumbrances have likewise by Decree of the said Commissioners been allowed and charged upon the Lands of the said George Duke of Albemarle, for redemption whereof the said George Duke of Albemarle hath paid and satisfied the full sum of Eight hundred pounds, Be it further Enacted,

That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, do forthwith set out and allot to the said George Duke of Albemarle, and his Heirs or Assigns, out of the lands in the County of Wexford, now, or lately held in Custodiam of his Majesty by Sir Richard Clifton Knight, so much other land as may be equal in quantity of profitable acres, to what hath been so Decreed and Edicted as aforesaid, and in value to such Incumbrance as hath been recovered and satisfied as aforesaid; which lands so as aforesaid to be allotted, shall be held and enjoyed by the said George Duke of Albemarle, his Heirs and Assigns, as fully and amply as the lands so Edicted and Decreed as aforesaid, might have been held, in case no such Decree or Ediction had been, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Right honourable Thomas Earl of Southampton, Lord high Treasurer of England, Anthony Ashley Lord Ashley, Chancellor and Undertreasurer of his Majesties Court of Exchequer, Sir Orlando Bridgeman Knight and Baronet, Lord chief Justice of his Majesties Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, and Sir Henry Vernon Knight and Baronet, shall have, hold, and enjoy to them, their Heirs and Assigns, all that the Castle, Bannor and Abbey of Eniscorthy in the County of Wexford, and all the Bannors, Towns, Tills, Lands, Tenements, Territories and Hereditaments, late of Robert Wallop, late of Farley-Wallop in the County of Southampton called Kilbeg, Cloine, Tumsalow and Effernock, or by what other name or names soever they are known or called, with their and every of their appurtenances in the said County of Wexford, and all other Lordships, Bannors, Castles, Lands, Tenements, Rents and Arrearages of Rents reserved and payable upon any Lease or Leases for lives or years, or otherwise, and all Reversions, Remainders, Services and Hereditaments, late of the said Robert Wallop, with their and every of their appurtenances in the said County of Wexford, and also all that Priory, or Rectory and Church Impropriate of Selsker in the said County of Wexford, and all Houses, Edifices, Barns, Stables, Tythes, Oblations, Obventions, Profits, Commodities and Advantages whatsoever thereunto belonging or appertaining, and all other Tythes or tenth parts of Corn, Grain, Hay, Wool, Lamb, Fish, and other Tythes whatsoever, late of the said Robert Wallop, yearly arising, coming, re-

netwing or happening within the feberall Parishes and Towns, Hills, fields, hamletts, tytheings and tytheable places of St. Margaret, St. Ivern, Ihartenon, Kilmore, Killame, St. Peter, Carycke, Killoryn, Ballysonon, Ballnalden, Killish, Ardavan and Ard-Collme, Killmallick, St. Nicholas, Takillin, Skreene, Killisk, Ballmestaine, Solsker and St. Toolirek in the said County of Wexford, and also all other Lordships, Bannoys, Castles, Abbeyes, Towns, Hills, Territories, Bellsuages, Lands, Tenements, rents and arrearages of rents as aforesaid, reversiones, tythes and hereditaments whatsoever in Ireland, late the possessions of the said Robert Wallop, and also all other Bannoys, Bellsuages, Lands, Tenements, Meadows, feedings, pastures, woods, under-woods, tythes, rents, reversiones, and hereditaments together with all and singular Courts, Courts-leet, Courts-Baron, viewes of Frankpledge, and all that to Courts-Leete and viewes of Frankpledge appertaineth, Perquisites and profits of Courts, Chattels, Waifes, Estrapes, Rights, Jurisdicions, Franchises, Privileges, Commodities, Advantages, Emoluments, hereditaments whatsoever, to the aforesaid Lordships, Bannoys, Castles, Abbeyes, Lands, Tenements, hereditaments; and other the premises aforesaid, or any of them, or any part or parcel of them in the said County of Wexford, or elsewhere in this Kingdom of Ireland, belonging or appertaining, or accepted, used, reputed, taken or known as part, parcel or member of them, or any part or parcel of them with their and every of their appurtenances late of the said Robert Wallop, all which premises by his Majesties Letters Patents under his Great Seal of England, bearing date the six and twentieth day of September, in the thirteenth year of his now Majesties Reigne, were mentioned to be granted by his said Majestie unto the said Thomas Earl of Southampton, Lord Ashley, Sir Orlando Bridgeman, and Sir Henry Vernon, and their heirs, and all and singular conditions, covenants, forfeitures, entries, titles and rights in any Indenture or Indentures of Lease of the premises or any of them specified or contained or otherwise.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and singular the said Castles, Bannoys, hereditaments, and premises shall be and are hereby declared and adjudged to be vested and settled in the said Thomas Earl of Southampton, Anthony Ashley Lord Ashley, Sir Orlando Bridgeman, & Sir Henry Vernon, and their heirs, and that as fully fully and amply as if the said Letters Patents had been good and effectual in law according to the intent and purpose thereof, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary hereof in any withstanding.

And be it further Enacted, That Sir Maurice Eustace Knight late Lord Chancellor of Ireland, Arthur Earl of Essex, Roger Earl of Orrery, Charles late Earl of Mount-rath, Richard Lord Baron of Coloone, Michael late Lord Bishop of Cork, now Lord Chancellor of Ireland, and Lord Archbishop of Dublin, John Lord Viscount Massareen, Marke Lord Viscount Dungannon, Rober Boyle Esq; Sir Arthur Forbus, Major George Rawdon now Sir George Rawdon Baronet, and the relict and heirs of Sir Simon Harcourt, and the relict and Children of Colonel George Cooke, and the Orphans of Colonel Owen O Conelly, Sir George Lane, Sir James Waymes, Sir George Alsough, Sir Theophilus Jones, Sir Walter Plunkett, Sir George Preston, Sir John Bellew, Sir Martin Noel, Sir St. John Broderick, William Legg Esq; Edward Vernon, Esq; Robert Southwell Esq; Captain William Hamilton, Maurice Keating Esq; Erasmus Smith Esq; Susanna Bastwick and her Children, Sir William Pettie, and all others particularly provided for in the said former Act, and not particularly mentioned in this present Act, and other special provisions made for them, their heirs, executors and Assigns, do hold and enjoy to them their heirs and Assigns all and singular the lands, tenements and hereditaments in and by the said former Act settled, granted, disposed and confirmed, or mentioned, meant or intended to be settled, granted, disposed and confirmed to them, their heirs and Assigns, and not already decreed away by such decrees as are herein confirmed, and all other the benefits and advantages of this present Act, and the benefits and advantages in and by the said former Act mentioned in any particular clause or other proviso relating to them or any of them, their heirs or Assigns, the benefit of reprisals in the said former Act granted onely excepted, any retrenchment or alteration thereof made by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, or any other matter or thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. And it is further Enacted that Sir William Penn shall hold, and enjoy to him and his heirs, all and singular the lands, Tenements and hereditaments situate in the County of Cork, whereof he the said Sir William Penn by himself or his under tenants was upon the first day of March, One thousand six hundred sixty and four in possession, as tenant to his Majestie, and in case the same shall fall short of the full value of One thousand pound per annum over and above all Quit rents, charges and reprises, the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall cause so much other forfeited land to be lett out and allotted unto the said Sir William Penn, his Heirs and Assignes, as may make up the same to the full cleer yearly value of One thousand pounds per annum as aforesaid, and in case the lands held by the said Sir William Penn, his undertenants or Assignes upon the said first day of March, One thousand six hundred sixty and four, shall exceed the value of One thousand pound per annum over and above all Quit rents, charges and reprises as aforesaid, he the said Sir William Penn, his Heirs and Assignes shall reconvey unto his Majestie, his Heirs and Successors so much thereof as by the Commissioners for the execution of this Act, shall be declared, or by any Inquisition to be taken within two years after the Royal assent given to this Bill shall be found to be over and above the value of One thousand pounds per annum as aforesaid.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Earl of Clanrickard, Earl of Casthaven, Morrough Earl of Inchequin, the Earl of Clancarty, Lord Vice-Count Dillon, Simon Luttrell, Dudley Bagnall Esq; Henry Bagnall, Catherine Corbett, Theobald Purcell Esq; and such others who are particularly mentioned in the said former Act to be restored to their estates, and therein, and thereby, are actually restored without any Previous reprisall, and their and every of their Executors, and Assignes shall stand and continue restored to and vested in such their estates thereby intended, and shall have and enjoy the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and all other the benefits and advantages of the said former Act in such manner and form and for such estates and with such privileges, immunities and discharges respectively as in and by the said former Act are mentioned and expressed: Nevertheless it is hereby declared, that this restitution and confirmation is not to extend to any lands, Tenements or Hereditaments other than such as did truly and without fraud upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, belong to and were enjoyed by the said persons or some of them, their or some of their Ancestors or Heirs, or were in the possession and seizin of some others in trust for them or some of them, or be particularly expressed in the several and respective clauses of the said former Acts And to the end it may more cleerly appear how much land the persons aforesaid are truly intituled unto by virtue of this or the said former former Act, and how farr the persons who are or shall be dispossessed by them or any of them ought to be relieved by virtue of this Act, It is further Enacted that all and every the persons aforesaid who claim any benefit by the clauses aforesaid shall make out such their title as to the several parcels of land which they demand before the Commissioners for Execution of this Act within such time as shall be limited by the Commissioners and take out their Decrees for so much as shall be allowed upon their Claims, and in default thereof shall forfeit two years value of the lands in their or any of their possessions respectively or in the possession of their tenants or Trustees, one moiety to the Kings Majesty, the other to the Informer, to be recovered in like manner as other forfeitures are by this Act appointed to be recovered.

And it is further declared and Enacted, That Thomas Pigott Esq; and Matthew Lock Esq; shall have and enjoy to them and their heirs two full third parts of the lands in Westmeath, settled on them by the said former Act, with like libertie of Retrenchment, retaining possession and of demanding and having Letters Patents as other Adventurers and Souldiers ought to have, and as if the said lands in Westmeath had been in the possession of the said Thomas Pigott, and Matthew Lock, on the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, and had been allotted to them as original Adventurers, any thing herein before to the contrary notwithstanding.

And it is hereby declared and further Enacted, That if any of the said persons herein before mentioned to be restored and appointed to take out Decrees as aforesaid, or any others who by virtue of any Decrees heretofore made by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, have been restored shall at any time within two years next ensuing, be found by colour of some clause in the said former Act or Decree as aforesaid, to have entred upon and kept possession of more land than did rightfully belong unto them, and was in their possession on the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, unless the same land were particularly expressed and given in some clause in the said former Act contained, that then and in such case the person so offending shall forfeit double the value of the land so fraudulently possessed and detained, unless the said offender shall within three months next after the first sitting of the Commissioners for the Execution of this present Act, discover and declare the same to the said Commissioners, missioners, and openly relinquish and surrender the possession so unduely detained as aforesaid, of which forfeiture one third part shall be to our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other two thirds to him or them that will sue for the same to be recovered by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or information in any of the four Courts of Record at Dublin, wherein no esoyne Protection or wager of law shall be, or any more than one imparlance.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the clauses in the said former Act contained, and not herein altered, explained or repealed, and which will consist with the Execution of this Act, shall be and so are hereby declared to remain and be of such like force and effect as the same were before the passing of this Act, and that all other the clauses which will not consist with the effectual Execution of this Act, shall be and are hereby repealed, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And further that all and every the clauses in this or the said former Act contained, so far as the same remain in force, shall be construed, expounded and taken in all Courts and places whatsoever most liberally and beneficially for the protecting, settling and establishing the persons, estates and interests of Protestants who are principally intended by these presents to be settled and secured.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Decrees made by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act whereby any Protestant or Protestants have been declared innocent, shall be and are hereby absolutely confirmed, and also that all Decrees whereby any Papist or Papists have been declared innocent, and which shall be taken out within three months after the first sitting of the Commissioners for Execution of this present Act, shall be and are hereby absolutely confirmed according to the tenor, purport and effect of the same, any exception touching the time wherein the same Decrees were made, and any irregularity or pretended irregularity in not pursuing the Declaration, Instructions and the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding, such Decrees wherein any lands are comprehended or which any Protestant or Protestants was or were possessed before the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, and which were never seized or sequestered or set apart upon the account of the late Rebellion or warr, and such Decrees wherein more lands are Decreed to the Claimant than were claimed by him, as to those lands so Decreed beyond the claim onely excepted, which are hereby declared as for so much to be utterly void, so as the same be discovered within six moneths next after the first sitting of the Commissioners, subject nevertheless to such penalties, as in this and the said former Act are contained, touching false and fraudulent Claims, so as the same be discovered within two years next ensuing the passing of this present Act.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That no person or persons, who by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, have been adjudged and declared innocent, and to whom any Land, Tenements or Hereditaments have been adjudged and restored by the Decree of the said Commissioners, nor any other person or persons claiming under such Decree, shall be permitted to sue or prosecute the person or persons against whom such Decree was made, his or their Executors or Administrators, or any of their Tenants or Assigns, touching or concerning any Real profits of the Lands and Tenements so as aforesaid decreed, but that all Suits, Actions and Demands touching or concerning such Real profits, and all prosecutions therefore, whether in law or equity, shall be, and are hereby barred and excluded, and all and every person and persons liable to such actions, molestations and prosecutions, shall be thereof for ever acquitted and discharged, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And because many persons did put in their claims before the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act as innocent persons, thereby demanding some small parcel of land onely, or deriving his or their title to some small part from some Irish Papist, and thereupon no opposition being made, the said Commissioners declared the said Claimant, or the person under whom the Claimant derived, to be innocent quo ad hoc, since which time the said Claimants, and the said persons under whom they derive, alleaging themselves to be declared innocent, enter upon great estates in several Counties, as debested out of the Crown by such Judgement of Innocence, pretending the limitation of that Innocence by the Words of the Decree quo ad hoc to be repugnant and impossible, contrary to the intention and meaning of the said Commissioners by them publicly declared, whereas if the whole estates to which the said persons now pretend, had been then in question before the said Commissioners, the several Adventurers and Souldiers therein concerned, had been summoned to have taken notice thereof, and and might have made such opposition, and produced such proof of their notency as they thought fit. Be it therefore Enacted, That no Decree wherein any person or persons have been declared innocent quo ad hoc, shall give such person or persons any title by virtue of any such Decree, to enter upon, or enjoy any more or other lands than what were particularly mentioned in such Decrees; but that all other the lands of such person or persons declared innocent quo ad hoc, which were sequestered upon the account of the late Rebellion or War, shall remain and continue in His Majesty, to the uses of this and the said former Act, Any thing in either of the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prohibited also, and be it Enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall extend in any wise to ratify or confirm the Decree made by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, wherein and whereby Oliver Earl of Tyreconnel hath been declared to be notent, but that the said Decree, and every part thereof, shall be, and so is hereby declared to be null and void, as if the same had never been had or made, and that the said Oliver Earl of Tyreconnel, and all others who upon the Three and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since were or are seized to his use, or in trust for him, or in trust for Sir Thomas Fitz William, late Viscount Meryon, Father to the said Earl, or Christopher Fitz Williams, Uncle to the said Earl, or in trust for the Countess of Tyreconnel, Wife of the said Earl of Tyreconnel, or for her separate maintenance or claiming by, from or under him, the said Earl of Tyreconnel, shall be and continue in such like estate and condition, and no other nor better, than he or they ought to have been in case no such Decree had ever been made, subject nevertheless to such Quit Rents as by this Act are imposed, Any thing herein, or in the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted, That the said Oliver Earl of Tyreconnel shall hold and enjoy to him and his heirs the lands in Cappock in the County of Dublin, and Hanlaxton and Athronan in the County of Meath, mortgaged by the Lord Viscount Fitz William his Father, now forfeited to His Majesty, and that His Majesties Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing date the eight day of June, in the sixteenth year of His Majesties Reign, containing His Majesties gracious pardon to the said Earl of Tyreconnel, and a clause of Restitution of all the lands and Tenements of the said Earl, shall be, and is hereby confirmed and shall be held and enjoyed accordingly, subject to Quit Rents as aforesaid.

Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted and Explained, That no lands whereof the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the Colledge of the holy and undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, neer Dublin, were seized in fee in the year, One thousand six hundred forty one, and are now in their actual possession, nor any lands held by virtue of any Grant, Lease or Fee Farm from the said Provost, Fellows and Scholars, and forfeited to his Majestie, shall be disposed by virtue of this or the said former Act, but that they and every of them remain and be in the said Provost fellows and scholars, and their Successors for ever, Subject nevertheless to the payment of such Quit rents for the said forfeited lands, as Adventurers or Souldiers by virtue of this or the former Act ought to pay, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And because several persons have been decreed innocent, but nevertheless have not been restored to the lands which they claimed before the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, but have been left to the course of law for the recovery of their possessions by trying their titles grounded upon the validity of those evidences by which they pretended to claim, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every person or persons who were defendant or defendants in the suit or claim upon which such decree was made as aforesaid, and those claiming by from and under them, shall within three months next after the sitting of the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, declare and make his and their election by writing under his and their hands and Seals, or under the hands and Seals of his and their Attorneys or Agents thereunto lawfully authorized, whether they will immediately deliver up and relinquish the possession of the lands in controversy unto the Kings Majestie, and resort to their proportionable satisfaction out of other forfeited lands, which if they do elect, they are to be admitted accordingly, and shall be satisfied his and their full two third parts, and so much more as may be Equivalent to his and their buildings and improvements, and then shall part with the said lands, or whether they will rather abide the trial at law, which if they do elect and the Irish claimant should fail to prosecute his title, or a verdict or judgement shall be given against such Irish claimants, or the person or persons who shall shall derive under such Irish claimant, then shall such Adventurer or Souldier, or other person or persons his or their Heirs, Executors or Assignes who shall be concerned in that suit, for ever and finally hold the said land in question, and every part thereof to him and his Heirs; but in case verdict or judgement be given for the title of the Irish claimant, or no such election be made as aforesaid, the Adventurer or Souldier or other person, his or their Heirs, Executors or Assignes shall be excluded from demanding or having his two third parts or any other satisfaction, which otherwise he might have had in respect of such land so recovered as aforesaid: Nevertheless it is hereby declared that no other title shall be admitted to be alleaged or given in evidence by such Irish claimant or any claiming under them, but such title as was alleaged in the claim exhibited before the Commissioners for the Execution of the said former Act: Provided that if any secret agreement be made between the Irish Claimant and the partie concerned as aforesaid directly or indirectly, and the person so agreeing shall obtain any satisfaction for or in respect of the lands so agreed for, that then and in such case the party so offending shall forfeit double the value of the lands so obtained, one Moiety to the Kings Majestie, the other Moiety to the Informer, to be recovered in like manner as other forfeitures are herein appointed to be recovered.

And be it further Enacted that all and every person and persons who now have any grants or Patents of any lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any titles of honour or dignity, or of any annuity, pension, office or imployment within this Kingdom, not already enrolled, do cause the same to be enrolled in the Chancery of Ireland within the space of two years next after the Royal assent to this Bill actually given under pain of forfeiture of two years value of any lands, Tenements, annuities, pensions or offices whereof the Patents shall not be enrolled as aforesaid, one Moiety to the Kings Majestie, his Heirs and Successors, the other Moiety to him or them that shall & will sue for the same to be recovered by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or information in any Court of Record, wherein no essoyne, protection or wager of law, to be allowed, or any more than one imparlance, and that all & every person & persons having any Patents touching or concerning any title of honour or dignity not already enrolled or to be enrolled within the time aforesaid, shall forfeit and loose the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, one Moiety thereof to the Kings Majestie, jestie, his heires & Successors, the other moeyty to him or them that shall & will sue for the same to be recovered as aforesaid.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Letters Patents hereafter to be granted of any titles of honour, offices or lands whatsoever, shall contain in the same Letters Patents, a clause requiring and compelling the said Patentees to cause the said Letters Patents to be enrolled in the Chancery of Ireland within a time therein to be limited, and all Letters Patents wherein such clause shall be omitted, are declared to be utterly void and of no effect: Provided alwayes and be it Enacted that nothing in this or the said former Act contained, shall extend to prejudice or alter the right, title or interest which Elizabeth Countess of Guilford hath or ought to have in the Mannors, Castles, Towns, Villages, Messuages, lands, Tenements or hereditaments lying or being in the County of Cork, and now in the actual possession of her the said Countess or her Assignes, as the jointure or Dowry of her the said Countess the relict of the late Lord ViceCount Kynalmeaky, but that the same be possessed and enjoyed by her the said Countess and her Assignes in the same state and condition and no other, as she held and enjoyed the same before the first sitting of this present Parliament, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Charles Lord ViceCount Fitz Harding, Treasurer of His Majesties House-hold shall hold and enjoy to him and his heires all and singular the lands, Tenements and hereditaments lately granted or mentioned to be granted unto Charles late Lord ViceCount Fitz Harding, afterwards Earl of Falmouth, and his heires, in and by certain Letters Patents thereof passed under the Great Seal of Ireland: And it is hereby declared that the Adventurers and Souldiers and Protestant purchasers of lands in Conaght and Clare, their heires and Assignes who shall be thence removed, shall be satisfied his and their two third parts in like manner as any other Adventurer or Souldier ought to be satisfied by the rules of this Act: Provided alwayes that if His Majestie shall at any time within the space of two years next and immediately ensuing, pay or cause to be paid unto the said Charles Lord ViceCount Fitz Harding, his heires or Assignes, the summe of twenty thousand pounds at or in the middle Temple-hall in London upon notice thereof first given to the said Charles Lord ViceCount Fitz Harding, and his heires by the space of one week before such payment, then then all and singular the lands in the said Letters Patents mentioned, shall return to and remain in his Majesty, his heirs and Successors, to the uses of this Act, and that until the whole sum of twenty thousand pounds shall be paid and satisfied as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to, and for the said Charles Lord Vice-Count Fitz Harding and his heirs, to retain and keep possession of the premises, and the profits thereof to receive and convert to his and their own use without any account to be therefore made, any thing herein before to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Lewis Lord Vicecount Clanmalira being but tenant in tail of certain lands in Ireland, exhibited his claim before the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, but the same remained undetermined, and no other claim was exhibited by any other person, to any part of the lands of the said Lewis Lord Vicecount Clanmalira, either in possession or reversion or remainder, except only the claim of Sir Henry Bennet Knight, now Lord Arlington, his Majesties principal Secretary of State, to the reversion thereof in fee, being granted to him the said Sir Henry Bennet now Lord Arlington, by his Majesties Letters Patents bearing date the fifth day of November in the fourteenth year of his Majesties Reign, which claim was by the said Commissioners allowed, in so much that the estate and interest of such Adventurers and Soldiers who were formerly planted thereupon are become very doubtful, and that as at the best they were not to continue longer than during the said estate tail, so now it may be doubted in law whether they be of any continuance at all, and whether the said estate tail be not extinct in law by the forfeiture of the said Lord Clanmalira, whose claim of innocence hath not been allowed, and so by consequence the reversion granted to Sir Henry Bennet, now Lord Arlington as aforesaid, come to take effect in present possession, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sir Henry Bennet, now Lord Arlington, shall and may enter into and upon, and shall have, hold and enjoy to him and his heirs, all and singular the Messuages, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whereof Lewis Lord Vice-Count Clanmalira, or any other person in trust for him was seized, or possessed the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, in as full and ample manner as the said Sir Henry Bennet now Lord Arlington might have held or enjoyed the same by virtue of the said Letters Patents, in case the said estate tail had been spent or expired, or otherwise determined or extinguished, which said Letters Patents, and all and every the clauses therein contained, are hereby confirmed and declared to be good, valid and effectual in law to all intents and purposes and that all and every the Adventurers and Souldiers, their heirs, Executors, Assignes or Assignes who are to be removed in order to the quiet and peaceable possession of the said Sir Henry Bennet now Lord Arlington, shall be satisfied their full two third parts respectively in like order and manner, to and with other Adventurers and Souldiers, any clause matter or thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And Whereas Francis Lord Aungier, in and by the said former Act was intituled unto some part of the premises amounting to the value of two hundred pounds per annum, or thereabouts, which as is alleaged, lyeth so intermixt with the residue of the said estate, that the same cannot without great inconvenience, be continued in the possession of the said Francis Lord Aungier in such manner as now it is held, Be it therefore Enacted, That the said Sir Henry Bennet now Lord Arlington, his heirs or Assignes, shall before the first day of January next ensuing, convey and assure unto the said Francis Lord Aungier, his heirs and Assignes, so much of the premises as Arthur Earl of Anglesey and Roger Earl of Orrery, or the survivor of them, shall by any writing under his or their hands and Seals, before that time to be made, declare and appoint in lieu and recompence of the estate of the said Francis Lord Aungier, of and in the premises; and in default of such Declaration and appointment, or of the performance thereof, the said Francis Lord Aungier shall hold and enjoy to him and his heirs, the Welwages, Lands and Tenements, whereof he is now in possession, and to which he stands intituled by the said former Act, according to the tenor thereof, any thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be, and is hereby constituted and created an office, or place of Register to the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, who shall take care that due entries be made of all Retrenchments of any third part, or other proportion of lands to be cut off from any Adventurer or Souldier, their heirs and Assignes, and the valuations thereof, and of all Decrees, and certificates to be made by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, and of all other the proceedings in order to the service of this Act, which are

are fit and proper to be Registered, And that the said Office, or place shall be held by Sir John Percival Baronet, during his natural life, to be exercised by himself, or his sufficient Deputy, and that the said Sir John Percival by himself, or his Deputy shall be, and is hereby impowred, and required to have the care and custody of all claims, certificates, plots, surbeyes, (except such as relate to the Office, and imployment of the Surbeyor General) Debentures, Duplicates, Entries, and copies of them, Returns of Commissions, Vatuations, Examinations, Affidavits, Reports, Rolls and all other publique Books, Papers, writings and Records whatsoever, which any the Commissioners, or Sub-Commissioners for the service of this Act, shall use in such Office, or place wherein they sit, and which shall be dependant on the said service or relating thereunto; and all persons who have any of the like Books or Papers aforesaid, which have been used in or towards the Execution of the said former Act, shall forthwith deliver the same, or cause the same to be delivered to Sir John Percival: And to the end that no fraud or deceit may be used herein, nor any of the said writings, or Records be imbezelled, the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, for the time being, and the Council there, shall have power to send for any person or persons, whom they shall suspect to have any of the writings, or Records aforesaid, and to examin him, or them upon his or their Oathes touching the same, and to commit to prison such person or persons as shall refuse to be examined, or being examined shall refuse to deliver such Books, Papers, and Records relating to the service of the said former Act, as shall appear to be in his or their hands, or which they can come by: And further the said Sir John Percival by himself, or his Deputy, and by such under Clerks for which he will be responsible, shall from time to time attend such Commissioners, and transcribe, Copy, Prepare, Register, Enter, Draw up, and enrol, or cause to be transcribed, Copied, Prepared, Registered, Entred, Drawn up and enrolled all and every the Decrees, Judgements, Orders, Warrants, Summons, Injunctions, Reports, and certificates of any of the Commissioners, or Sub-Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, not already enrolled or entred, or of any the Commissioners, or Sub-Commissioners for the service of this Act for the time to come, and shall also Act, and do or cause to be Acted, and don all and every the matters, and things which doe or may any way concern the Office of Register, or other the premises les as fully and amply as any Register or Registers to the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, and his and their Clerks did or ought to have done, he and they taking therefore such Fees only and no other, as by the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governour and Governours of Ireland for the time being shall be held reasonable, which Fees he and they are hereby enabled to receive and recover accordingly: And it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Sir John Percival, shall yearly and every year during the Execution of this and the former Act account for and pay unto the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour and Governours of Ireland, one full third part of the clear annual Profits of the said Office, the necessary charges to be expended in and about the Execution thereof being first deducted, And the said Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, are hereby required to cause all the moneys so as aforesaid, received, to be issued out and paid from time to time to such person or persons as his Majesty already hath appointed or hereafter shall appoint: And it is further declared, That an acquittance or receipt signed with the sign manual of the said Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, shall be for so much as is therein contained, a sufficient discharge unto the said Sir John Percival, his heirs, Executors and Administrators, and every of them, And for the more just regulation of proceedings in this Office, the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, are hereby impowered and required to Administer an Oath to the said Sir John Percival, and all others who shall be employed in any ministerial Office or employment relating to the service of this Act in these words following: You shall swear that you shall well and truly execute the place of

according to the best of your skil and knowledge, and therein you shall spare no person for favour and affection, nor any person grieve for hatred or ill will, so help you God.

And whereas there is one clause contained in the said former Act in these words following, And for the better prevention of all future Rebellions, and to the end our good Subjects of Ireland may be likewise secured against all Insurrections or attempts for the time to come, and the said Kingdom be the better planted and improved, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours and Council of Ireland, for the time being, from time to time and at all times hereafter, during the space of seven years to be accompted from the first day of May, One thousand six hundred sixty six, to make and establish such rules, orders and directions for the better planting with Protestants, the Lands by this Act vested in His Majesty and not appointed to be restored to innocent persons. And for the better regulation of Cities, walled Towns and Corporations, and the electing of Magistrates and Officers there, and to inflict such penalties for the breach thereof, as they in their wisdom shall think fit, so as the penalties for breach of the rules of plantation do not extend further than to treble the Quit-rents due for the lands which shall be planted otherwise than those rules shall direct, the said penalties to continue, and be yearly paid to the King, His Heirs and Successors, till the said Rules of plantation be performed, and thenceforth the rent by this Act reserved to be onely payable, and so as the penalty for breach of the rules to be made touching Corporations, do not extend further than to the removal all or disfranchisement of such persons as shall be found guilty of the breach thereof, which Rules, Orders and directions so as aforesaid to be made, shall be as good and effectually in Law, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been established by authority of this present Parliament, and shall remain, continue and abide in force for such and so long time as in and by the said Rules, Orders and directions shall be limited and appointed.

And whereas some doubt doth arise whether the Lord Lieutenant, Chief Governour or Governours, and Council of Ireland for the time being, may make and establish Rules, Orders and directions for the better regulating of such Cities, walled Towns and Corporations as have been anciently incorporated, or onely for the better regulating such corporations as shall or may hereafter be created according to the Tenor & purport of His Majesties Gracious Declaration for the Settlement of His Kingdom of Ireland, and satisfaction of the severall interests of Adventurers, Souldiers and other his Majesties Subjects there; for the clearing whereof, Be it further Enacted, and it is hereby declared and Enacted by the Kings most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governour Governours and Council of Ireland for the time being, from time to time, and at all times to come, during the space of seven years to be accompted from the nine and twentieth tieth Day of September One thousand six hundred sixty sixe, to make and establish such Rules, Orders and Directions for the better regulating of all Cities, Walled Towns and Corporations both new and old, and such as shall be created within this Kingdom, and the electing of Magistrates and Officers there, and to inflict such penalties for the breach thereof, as they in their wisdom shall think fit, so as the penalties for breach of the Rules, Orders and Directions to be made touching such Corporations, do not extend further than to the removeall and disfranchisement of such persons as shall be found guilty of the breach thereof, and such Rules, Orders and directions so to be made as aforesaid shall be as good and effectual in law to all intents and purposes as if the same had been specially and particularly established by Authority of this present Parliament, and shall remain, continue and abide in force for such and so long time as in the said Rules, Orders and Directions shall be limited and appointed, any thing in the said Act or otherwise to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

And whereas the Officers and Souldiers who served in Ireland, since the fifth of June One thousand six hundred forty nine, and the Connaght purchasers for the better furtherance and management of their common interest, have by their humble addresses represented the necessity of raising of monies and supplicated leave for so doing, as was formerly granted to the Adventurers and their Assigns in the like case, and least some of the said Officers and Souldiers or some of their respective Assigns may prove to be refractory in paying and allowing their just proportions of money for the said ends and for defraying of the publique charge there about, it being nevertheless very expedient that a service of such a publique and common advantage should be equally boyn by all persons concerned therein, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the said Officers and Souldiers, and Connaght purchasers, their Heirs and Assigns shall allow satisfie and pay such sum and sums of money, as Arthur Earl of Anglesey, Roger Earl of Orrery, the Lord Vice Count Conway, Lord Kingston, Sir John Skeffington Baronet, Sir Thomas Clarges Knight, Sir Thomas Stanley Knight, Sir Richard Kerle, Sir William Petty, Doctor Robert Gorges, Henry Nicoll, John Brett, and Miles Cocke Esq. or any three or more of them meeting at Dublin the first Thursday in Hillary Term One thousand six hundred sixty and sixe, or any other Term after at the four Courts in Dublin, between two and sixe of the Clock in the afternoon, shall think fit and assess, which said sum or sums so to be assessed and raised, shall not exceed two pence for every profitable Acre, which shall be by virtue of this Act confirmed unto them, their Heirs and Assignes now in their possessions, or at any time hereafter shall be confirmed upon them respectively, and shall be paid unto the Receivers herein after mentioned, and shall be disposed by them or any three or more of them, for and toward the end aforesaid, and not otherwise: Provided alwayes that of the three there be alwayes one of the Peers, and two of the Commoners before specified, and for default of payment of any sum or sums so assessed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the persons aforesaid, or any three or more of them, or such other person or persons as they shall direct and appoint, to levy by distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such person or persons so making default, double the sum that shall be upon him or them assessed, and in arrears, rendering the overplus to the partie distrained.

And whereas amongst several Bills certified, and transmitted under the Great Seal of Ireland, unto his Majesty in his High Court of Chancery in England, by a certificate bearing date at Dublin the thirteenth day of May, in the sixteenth year of his Majesties Reign, a Bill is transmitted intituled an Act for settling of Certain lands of Erasmus Smith Esq; for charitable uses, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the said Bill mentioned, and thereby intended to be disposed for charitable uses, and not already Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, shall be continued & applied unto, and preserved intirely for such pious and charitable uses, and that the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall not allot, or distribute the said lands, or any part thereof, or suffer the same to be allotted, or distributed to any Adventurer or Souldier in pursuance of this Act: And where any of the lands set out by the said Erasmus Smith, to pious or charitable uses, have been evicted, recovered, or charged by any Decrees, which are confirmed by this Act, the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall cause a like quantity of forfeited and profitable Acres within the County of Lowth, if so much can there be found, or otherwise elsewhere, to be set out and allotted to the same pious uses, as may be sufficient to recompence the loss which hath hapned by such Decrees as aforesaid, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding. And Whereas

several lands and Tenements in the County of Tipperary, heretofore in the possession of Erasmus Smith, upon the Seaventh day of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, and claimed by him as an Adventurer, according to the rules of His Majesties late Gracious Declaration and the said former Act, were after the said Declaration, and before the passing of the said Act granted by His Majesties Letters Patents unto Sir John Stephens and his Heirs as lands concealed, which grant nevertheless might at any time by the rules of the said former Act, have been revoked by His Majesty, if His Majesty had not been pleased since the passing of the said Act, to release his power of Revocation, by reason whereof great suits and controverties are likely to arise between the said Erasmus Smith, and the said Sir John Stephens, and such as do or may hereafter claim under them respectively, to the end therefore that speedy right, and justice may be done, and the said controverties appeased, and determined, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall examine the right and title of the said Erasmus Smith, and of the said Sir John Stephens, in and to the said lands and Tenements, and if they shall find that the said Erasmus Smith, or those under whom he claims, were on the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine seized or possessed of all, or any the said lands, as an Adventurer or Adventurers, or as the Heir or Assignee of any Adventurer, then they shall forthwith restore the possession to the said Erasmus Smith, to be held by him, and his Heirs and Assignes in like manner and proportion as other Adventurers ought to enjoy their several and respective proportions, according to this Act, in which case the said Erasmus Smith, is hereby enabled to sue for, and recover the Deasne profit thereof received, but if they shall find the said lands to have been held by the said Erasmus Smith without any such title as aforesaid, and that the same were concealed from his Majesty at the time of the passing of the said Letters Patents, then they shall adjudge the said lands, or so much thereof as they shall find to be so concealed, to Sir John Stephens and his Heirs to be held by him and his Heirs according to the tenor of his said Letters Patents, and such judgement and Decree as the said Commissioners shall make touching the premises shall be, and is hereby made concluding to the said Erasmus Smith, and the said Sir John Stephens, their Heirs and Assignes, any thing in the said Letters Patents or in the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And

And whereas William Mountgomery of Rosemound in the County of Down Esq. did purchase of several persons certain Debentures which were due for service done in Ireland since the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, and placed the same in and upon the purchase of a part of his own Estate called or known by the name of the Bannor of Florida in the County aforesaid, then set out or set a part by reason of or upon account of the said late Rebellion or warr, since which time the said William Mountgomery hath by the Commissioners for the Execution of the said former Act been declared & adjudged an innocent Protestant, and thereupon the said Bannor of Florida, together with the rest of the Estate of the said William Mountgomery hath been decreed unto him, by reason whereof the Debentures so purchased and placed thereupon as aforesaid do remain wholly unsatisfied, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act shall set out or cause to be set out unto the said William Mountgomery so much forfeited Land as may be sufficient to satisfy the said Debentures in like manner and form, and according to such Rates and proportions as any other like Debentures ought by the Rules of this Act to be satisfied as fully & amply as any other purchaser or Assignee of the said Debentures ought to have been satisfied in case the same had been placed on the said Bannor so evicted or decreed as aforesaid.

And whereas in and by a certain Clause in the said former Act, Colonel John Fitz Patrick of Castle-Town in the Queens County, is restored in blood, and also restored unto and vested in the real and actual possession and seizin to him and his heirs, of all and every the Castles, Bannors, Lands Tenements, and Hereditaments, reversiones, remainders and Leases, whereof the said Colonel John Fitz Patrick or his Father or any other in trust for them, or either of them, or to their use, were at any time before the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, Lawfully seized or possessed, upon which words Seized or possessed some doubt or question in law may arise how far the said clause may avail the said Colonel Fitz Patrick, by reason that a certain Office or Inquisition was found in the nineteenth year of King James, by which his Majesty is or may be intitled or pretended to be intitled to the whole Territory of Upper Ossery, within which place the Lands intended to be restored to the said Colonel John Fitz Patrick do lye, and so by consequence the seizin and possession thereof, which was in the said Colonel John Fitz Patrick's Grandfather at the time of the said Office of Inquisition found, may be from the said nineteenth year of King James, conceived to have been in the Kings Wajettie, and not in the said Colonel Fitz Patrick's Grandfather, or any other in trust for him, although he or some of them were then in the Actual possession and occupation thereof, and received the profits, Be it therefore Enacted and explained by the Authority aforesaid, that the said Colonel John Fitz Patrick shall hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs the full benefit of the clause and proviso in the said former Act contained, the said Office of Inquisition or any other matter or thing in the said former Act or this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And it is hereby declared and Enacted, that all and every the Adventurers and Souldiers, their Heirs and Assigns to whom any Lands or Tenements in the Queens County, were set out and allotted, and whereof they were possessed the seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, the Lands of the said John Fitz Patrick excepted, shall hold and enjoy such part of the said Lands and Tenements as will be due to them by the Rules of this Act, the said Office of Inquisition in the nineteenth year of King James to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided alwaies that all and singular the Clauses in the said former Act contained, wherein or whereby any Mannors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments are granted to or vested in Theobald Earl of Carlingford, or whereby any other benefit or advantage can or may accrue unto the said Earl of Carlingford, shall be and are hereby again confirmed, and shall be enjoyed by the said Earl of Carlingford, in as full and ample manner as in the said Act is contained, any retrenchment, change or other alteration thereof made by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, and any other clause, matter or thing in the said former Act, or this present Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided alwaies and it is hereby declared and Enacted, That Sir Richard Ingoldsby Knight of the Bath, and Sir Henry Ingoldsby Baronet, shall hold & enjoy to them and their Heirs all and singular the Lands within and contiguous to the Mileline in the County of Clare, which were set out to them or either of them, in satisfaction of fifteen hundred and fifteen pounds eleven shillings two pence, with their Houses and Gardens in Limerick, and also all and every their Lands of which they or either of them were possessed by themselves or their Tenants the seventh of May One thousand land six hundred fifty and nine, such part of the Premises onely excepted, as have been Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And Whereas Captain Henry Finch, late of Londonderry, Deceased, in pursuance of a Commission from Sir William Parsons, and Sir John Birlacy, sometimes Lords Justices of Ireland, did in the moneth of November, One thousand six hundred forty one, levy and Arm a Company of Foot consisting of One hundred Men, besides Officers in the County of the City of Londonderry, and maintained the said Company for three years at his own charges, and continued in the command of the said Company against the Rebels from the moneth of November, One thousand six hundred forty one, until the moneth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and eight, and was then disbanded without receiving any the least satisfaction, and yet nevertheless the arrears due to the said Henry Finch, for his service before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, have not been cast up, nor stated by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, partly by reason of some doubt conceived that the said Company was not upon the establishment of the Ulster Army, Whereas in truth the said Company was received into the said establishment, though the Order whereby the same should be made appear could not then be produced, and partly by reason of other accidents, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith and before any distribution made of the Houses, lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or Summs of money herein before appointed for the security and satisfaction of such Commissioned Officers as served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, cast up, and state the arrears which were due to the said Henry Finch Deceased, for the service aforesaid, and that after the arrears so stated, William Finch and Henry Finch, Sons and Administrators of the said Henry Finch Deceased, shall be satisfied and paid, and are hereby Enabled to demand, and receive satisfaction equally and proportionably, having respect to the arrears stated, and in like manner as any other Commissioned Officer who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, and whose arrears are stated and allowed by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, may or ought to be satisfied, sied, and as fully and amply as if the arrears which were due to the said Henry Finch Deceased, had been stated and allowed within the time limited by the said former Act, any thing in the said former Act, or this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Alice Countess Dowager of Barrimore, would have been lawfully intitled unto the payment of and satisfaction for the several & respective arrears which were due unto David late Earl of Barrimore her Husband, and to James Barry her son deceased, as Commissioned Officers, for service done in Ireland before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, if the same had been duly stated and allowed within the time limited by the said former Act; And whereas also Dennis Muschampe Esq; would have been lawfully intitled to the payment of and satisfaction for the Arrears which were due to Agmondisham Muschampe Esq; his deceased Father as Lieutenant of the Ordinance in Munster, and a Commissioned Officer for service done in Ireland before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, if the same had been duly stated and allowed within the time limited by the said former Act; And whereas also Sir Alexander Keith Knight would have been lawfully intitled to the payment of and satisfaction for the Arrears due to Lieutenant Colonel George Keith as a Commissioned Officer for service done in Ireland before the fifth of June One thousand six hundred forty nine, if the same had been stated and allowed within the time limited as aforesaid; And whereas also Captain John Annesley served in Ireland as a Commissioned Officer before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, and ought to be satisfied and paid the Arrears due to him for such service, if the same had been timely stated and allowed as aforesaid; And whereas also Margery Symmes the relict of Major John Symmes would have been lawfully intitled to the payment of and satisfaction for the Arrears which were due to the said Major John Symmes her deceased Husband as a Commissioned Officer for service done in Ireland before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, if the same had been duly stated and allowed within the time limited by the said former Act; And whereas also Colonel Robert Broughton and Widow Cooper, late wife of Josuah Cooper, Major in Sir Foulke Hunchs Regiment, would have been lawfully intitled to the payment of, and satisfaction for the Arrears which were due to them the said Robert Broughton and Josuah Cooper, for service done in Ireland, before the fifth of June, One

One thousand six hundred forty nine, that is to say, from the four and twentieth of May, One thousand six hundred forty two, until the six and twentieth of January, One thousand six hundred forty three, if the same had been duly stated so far, and allowed within the time limited by the said Act; And whereas Horatio Woodhouse, Brother and Administrator of Sir Michael Woodhouse, would have been lawfully intitled unto the payment of and satisfaction for the arrears which were due to him the said Sir Michael Woodhouse, for service done in Ireland, as a Commissioned Officer before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, if the same had been duly stated and allowed within the time limited by the said Act, which several arrears could not be stated or allowed within the time limited by the said former Act for stating arrears, by reason that the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, was freightened in time when they entered upon that worke, and by reason of some other accidents which did intervene, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith and before any distribution made of the Securities set apart for the satisfaction of the Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, cast up and state the respective arrears which were due to David late Earl of Barrymore, James Barry, Agmondisham Muschamp, and Lieutenant Colonel George Keith, and Captain John Annelly, Major John Symmes, Colonel Robert Broughton, and Josuah Cooper, and Sir Michael Woodhouse, for service as aforesaid, and after the arrears so stated, the said Alices Countesses of Barrymore, Denny Muschamp, & Sir Alexander Keith, Captain John Annelly, Margery Symmes, Colonel Robert Broughton, and Widow Cooper, and Horatio Woodhouse, respectively shall be satisfied and paid for all and every the respective arrears to which they are mentioned to be intitled as aforesaid, as fully, amply and in like proportion and manner as any other Commissioned Officer who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, ought to be, and as if the said respective arrears had been stated and allowed within the time limited by the said former Act, anything in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes and be it Enacted, That all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the Barony of Imokelly in the County of Cork, granted or mentioned to be granted by his Majesty in and by certain Letters

Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland, bearing date unto Sir Henry Tint Deceased, which have not been Decreed away by the Commissioners for the Execution of the said former Act, shall be held and enjoyed by the Lady Mabel Tint, relict of the said Sir Henry Tint, for and during her life, and after her Decease, by the Son and Heir of the said Sir Henry Tint, and his Heirs, during the estate granted by the said Letters Patents, and that where any of the lands in the said Letters Patents mentioned, have been devised or hereafter shall be devised by virtue of any Decrees made by the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours, and Council there for the time being, to make and Order such proportionable Defalcation of the Rent reserved in and by the said Letters Patents, as they in their judgement shall think fit, and such Order of Defalcation enrolled in His Majesties Court of Exchequer, shall be as good and effectual as if it had been Enacted by these presents, any thing in the said Letters Patents, or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided also and be it Enacted, That Francis Lye of Rathbride Esq; Son of John Lye Deceased, shall hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments situate in the County of Kildare, or elsewhere in the Kingdom of Ireland, granted or mentioned to be granted, in and by certain Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the fifteenth year of His Majesties Reign, and not since Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, in as full and ample manner as in and by the said Letters Patents is mentioned, any thing in this by the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And Whereas Nicholas Lord Vice-count Nettervill who claimed an estate Tail to him and the Heirs males of his body of and in certain lands in Ireland, was by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, adjudged notent, but the younger Brothers and Sisters of the said Lord Vice-count have by the judgement and Decree of the said Commissioners recovered their several and respective remainders expectant upon the Death of the said Lord Vice-count without issue Male, and also their several and respective portions, chargeable on the estate of the said Lord Vice-count, and by reason thereof were intitled to the present possession of the said estate in order to the satisfaction of their

their respective portions, and when the said portions should be satisfied, Edward Smith Esq; Sir Courtney Pool Baronet, and other the persons intituled to the said estate, so long as the said Lord Vice-count shall have issue male of his body, were still to continue their possession; Nevertheless His Majesty being desirous that all just interests should be provided for, and being willing to extend his mercy unto the said Nicholas Lord Vice-count Nettervill, as far as may stand with his Justice, is graciously pleased that it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, doe forthwith set out unto the said Edward Smith Esq; Sir Courtney Pool Baronet, and other the persons intituled to the lands of the said Lord Vice-count, their Heirs and Assigns, their severall and respective two third parts, which by the rules of this Act they ought to have, and after such two third parts set out, shall restore the said Lord Vice-count Nettervill unto the possession of all and singular the Mannors, Castles, Lands, Tenements, Reversions, Remainders, and all other Hereditaments, Right, Title and Interest whatsoever in the said Kingdom of Ireland, with his deceased Father and Grandfather, or either of them, or any other person or persons in trust for them, or either of them, or to their or either of their use or uses, or any other or others to whom he may or can derive as heir, or otherwise had, held or enjoyed, or of right ought to have held or enjoyed on the Two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, (Rectories and Parsonages, Impropriated and Appropriate Churches excepted) and that the said Lord Vice-count shall hold and enjoy all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so restored, according to such Estate, Right and Title as he ought to have had in the same, in case he had been adjudged innocent, and no other; and also shall be, and is hereby restored in blood to all intents and purposes; Any thing in this present Act, or the said former Act, or any other Act; Law, Statute, Ordinance, Order, Outlawry, Attainder, Record, Provision, Sequestration, Distribution, Alotment, Judgement, Conviction or Decree, or any other matter, clause or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And because the Estate, Right and Inheritance of, in and unto severall Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments is by severall clauses in this Act vested and settled in, or otherwise disposed of unto severall persons in the said severall and respective clauses particularly named and mentioned, whereby great prejudice may arise unto others, whose right right was not intended to be barred or extinguished, if a timely remedye be not provided. Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every such clauses it shall be understood, and so is hereby Declared, That all the right, title and interest, either in law or equity, which any person or persons, Body Politick or Corporate, their Heirs, Executors, Successors or Assignes, or any of them had on the Two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, other than His Majestie, His Heirs and Successors, and those who shall or may claim by, from or under His Majestie, His Heirs and Successors, or any of them, by virtue of this or the said former Act, and other than such person or persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, their Heirs, Executors, Successors and Assigns, whose right is particularly mentioned to be barred and excluded, shall be, and is hereby preserved unto them, their Heirs, Executors, Successors and Assignes respectively, as fully and amply, as if a particular saving of Rights had been annexed to and repeated in every such clause, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas in and by the said former Act, the fractions of od pounds, shillings and pence were to be struck off and deducted out of all sums of money, Debentures, Certificates or Decrees for Arrears, Adventures, Publick Debts, Repizes, or other allowed Interests, which according to the said Act were to be ascertained, rated or settled, and the fractions of od acres, roods and perches were also to be deducted out of the respective proportions of lands which should be granted or settled in satisfaction of any of the aforesaid interests, so as such deductions did not exceed the hundredth part of the money or lands out of which such Deductions were to be made, which Deductions were appointed to be satisfied as intirely as might be, in such convenient proportions and places as the Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland for the time being should appoint, and reserved to be disposed to such uses as His Majestie, His Heirs or Successors should appoint, His Majestie is graciously pleased that it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no fractions of od pounds, shillings or pence, or of od acres, roods or perches, or any satisfaction for the same, be at any time hereafter made or given unto His Majestie, His Heirs or Successors, or unto any other person or persons claiming the benefit thereof by virtue of any Patent, Grant, or other Assignment

ment from His Majestie, but that the same be for ever released and discharged, and that all and every the clauses in the said former Act touching and concerning the giving or reserving such fractions, and the satisfaction thereof unto His Majestie, His Heirs and Successors, shall be and are hereby repealed and made void, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had never been had nor made, Any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas the survey & admeasurment of certain lands in Ireland, was heretofore undertaken and finished by Sir William Petty Knight, upon an agreement made with the Souldiers to have for his pains one penny for every acre so surveyed and admeasured as aforesaid, whereof part hath been already paid, and some yett still remain in arrear, to the end therefore that satisfaction be made to Sir William Petty for what remains unpaid by the Souldiers, their Heirs or Assigns, and for his better encouragement to finish the several Mapps and Descriptions of this Kingdom, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland for the time being, with any six or more of His Majesties Privy Council, shall have power to examine how much of the said penny the acre hath been already paid, and for what lands, and how much thereof remains behind and unpaid, and to give Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants, for the levying and receiving one penny per acre out of all the lands in the admeasurment whereof he was employed, that have been or shall be appointed to be set out for satisfaction of arrears, out of which such arriage was agreed or ought in justice to be paid, and hath not been already paid, and to give such further encouragement to the said Sir William, for the finishing of the said Mapps, as they shall think fit, And that it shall and may be lawful to and for Sir William Petty, his Executors, Administrators or Assigns, from time to time as often as any such Order or warrant shall be made to enter into all and every the lands in such Order or warrant mentioned, and to levy the respective summs therein appointed to be paid, not exceeding one penny the acre, by distress, and sale of such distress as shall there be found belonging to the occupiers of the said lands, returning the overplus, and whatsoever the Tenants or occupiers of the lands shall pay, or shall otherwise be levied upon them as aforesaid, not exceeding one penny the acre, shall and may be deducted out of the rents by them respectively payable, able, and for so much they and every of them shall be, and are hereby discharged against their several and respective Landlords,

And because the Settlement now intended, and endeavoured to be perfected, would be very much obstructed if the Heirs or Assignes of Wentworth late Earl of Kildare, should hold and enjoy the full benefit of a certain clause in the said former Act contained, whereby the Preemption of all forfeited estates and interests held of or from Wentworth Earl of Kildare, or George Earl of Kildare, or either of them, and of all other lands lying intermixt with the said Earl of Kildares estate, is given to the said Wentworth late Earl of Kildare, his Heirs and Assignes, and further the arrears due to George Earl of Kildare for service before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, were appointed to be satisfied in the County of Kildare, and else where lying most convenient to the said Earl of Kildares estate, as the said Wentworth late Earl of Kildare, should make choice of, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said clause as concerns the preemption of forfeited estates and interests held of and intermixt with the Earl of Kildares grant as aforesaid, or appoints the satisfaction of personal arrears for service to be within the County of Kildare, or elsewhere at election as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby repealed, which arrears of the said George Earl of Kildare, now belonging to Sir James Shaen, Knight and Baronet, Administrator of the said George Earl of Kildare, are to be satisfied as in and by another clause herein after following and providing for the satisfaction of the interests of the said Sir James Shaen, is declared, and that in lieu and satisfaction of those privileges and advantages in and by the said clause given or intended to be given, the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall forthwith set out or cause to be set out unto John now Earl of Kildare and his Heirs, so much undisposed forfeited lands as shall be of the cleer yearly value of five hundred pounds per annum over and above all charges and reppizes, & therein shall take care that the same may be set out as neer unto the said Earls estate, and as contiguous to the Lordship of Kilka in the County of Kildare, as the same can conveniently be done, and after such allotment and setting forth, the same shall be granted by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland, unto John Earl of Kildare and the Heirs Males of his body, And for want of such issue to remain and be to Robert Fitz Gerald Esq; uncle of the said John Earl

Earl of Kildare and the Heirs Males of his body, and for default of such issue, to the right Heirs of Wentworth late Earl of Kildare for ever subject nevertheless to the payment, reimbursement and discharge in the first place of all such summs and summs of Money with interest for the same, as upon any contract or bargain heretofore made by the said Wentworth late Earl of Kildare, touching the benefit of the said former proviso or touching the benefit of any part thereof, have been paid unto the said late Earl or shall be paid hereafter to such Contractors, during the minority of the said John Earl of Kildare, and lyable also to such other charges and payments as shall be necessarily made and disbursed in and for the settling and securing the premises, And that the Letters Patents so as aforesaid to be granted shall be of like force and effect, as any other Letters Patents herein before appointed to be granted, are or ought to be.

Provided alwayes and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the estates of John Fitz Gerald, John Magill and Geoffrey Fanning, before by this Act vested in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, It shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governours of Ireland, to restore unto and settle upon them and their Heirs respectively, such part or parts of the said respective estates, as they shall think fit.

Provided also and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Sir John Stephens Knight, Governour of His Majesties Castle of Dublin, shall and may have, hold and enjoy to him, his Executors and Assignes, all and every the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the County of Cork, which at any time were reputed to belong to Sir Brice Coghnan, by colour of any grant or gift of the late Usurped powers, and which are or have been possessed by the said Sir John Stephens, by virtue of Letters Patents under the Great Seal or otherwise for and during such time and term of years, and under such rents onely as in the said Letters Patents are expressed, and no other, so as he the said Sir John Stephens, do place or cause to be placed upon so much of the premises as shall be found to be within the securities set apart for satisfaction of the Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, so much of the stated arrears due to such Officers which are satisfiable, and for which no satisfaction hath yet been given as the value of the premises may amount unto, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the Doneyes which by virtue of this or the said former Act shall or may growe due unto his Majestie for or in respect of the mealne profits of those lands which have been set out and received in satisfaction of any arrears, for service done in England, commonly called English arrears, or for or in respect of the mealne profits of those lands which have been set out to any person or persons in satisfaction of any Adventures upon the Ordinances, commonly called the doubling Ordinances, or for or in respect of any other mealne profits which by this Act are made due and payable unto his Majestie, as being received out of lands set out in satisfaction of interests not satisfiable by this or the said former Act, and also all and every the summs of Doney now due unto his Majestie, which any person or persons transplanted into Connaght, and since restored, or hereafter to be restored to his former estate, did or might have received upon the sale of the lands in Connaght, to which he or they were transplanted, shall be paid unto the Receivers herein after constituted and appointed, who shall account for and pay the same over unto Arthur Earl of Anglesey Vice-treasurer of Ireland, or to the Vice-treasurer of Ireland, for the time being, And that the said Arthur Earl of Anglesey, or the Vice-treasurer of Ireland, for the time being, shall there-out issue & pay these several summs following: That is to say, To Morough Earl of Inchequin, the full sum of Eight thousand pounds sterling, as a marke of his Majesties, favourable & gracious consideration of the losses and sufferings of the said Earl; To John Lord Berkeley the sum of four thousand pounds; To Charles Lord Vice-count Fitz Harding Treasurer of his Majesties House-hold the sum of two thousand pounds; To Henry Coventrey Esq; Groom of his Majesties Bedchamber the sum of two thousand pounds; To Colonel William Legg the like sum of two thousand pounds, in full satisfaction of all the right and interest which they the said Henry Coventrey or William Legg, can or may have of, in or to any fractions of ob atres, pounds, shillings or pence in or by the said former Act referred to his Majestie, and by this present Act released and discharged as aforesaid; To Colonel Edward Villiers, the sum of One thousand pounds; To Elizabeth Terrill Wife of Sir Timothy Terrill, the sum of three thousand pounds; To Colonel Marmaduke Darcy, the sum of three thousand pounds; To Sir Connel Farrell, the sum of two thousand pounds; To Colonel Daniell Trefwell, Captain of his Majesties Guard of Battle Acres, the sum of One thousand pounds: Sir William Armorer, the sum of five hundred pounds; Nicholas Bayly Esq; the sum of two thousand pounds; Thomas Lynch, the sum of One thousand pounds: And if any more moneys shall arise out of the premises than will be sufficient to discharge the respective summs herein before mentioned, the same shall remain in His Majesties Exchequer at Dublin, to be further applyed and disposed as His Majestie being informed thereof shall direct and appoint.

And whereas the Towns and lands of Shamaclone, Garrons-Brury, Garrane, Lisbanacone, Ballisfoukin, Ballimoran, Balliwillin in the Barony of Conello and County of Limerick, and also fifteen hundred acres in Garundenny in the Barony of Slewmarrye in the Queens County, were allotted to Charles Lloyd Esq; now Sir Charles Lloyd Baronet, as an Adventurer for lands in Ireland, the rents, issues and profits of which lands have notwithstanding by Samuel Avery and other Adventurers been wrongfully receivd, or in the hands of the Tenants of the said lands detained, Be it therefore Enacted, and it is Enacted by this present Parliament, That the said Sir Charles Lloyd, shall have, receive and recover all and singular the rents, issues and profits of the said lands, remaining in the hands of the respective Tenants thereof, or in the hands of their Executors or Administrators, which have grown due since the lands were allotted as aforesaid, any thing in this present Act, or any other Act of Parliament contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And it is here by further Enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith restore Sir Richard Bellings Knight, unto the present and actual possession of all and singular the Mannors, Castles, Lordships, Lands, Tenements, Reversions, Remainders and all other Hereditaments, interests, conditions, powers of Redemption, right and title whatsoever in the said Kingdome of Ireland, which Sir Henry Bellings Knight, Grandfather to the said Sir Richard Bellings, and Richard Bellings Father of the said Sir Richard Bellings, or either of them, or any other person or persons in trust for them, or either of them, or to their or either of their use or uses, had, held or enjoyed, or of right ought to have held or enjoyed on the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, and that from and after such Restitution as aforesaid, the same shall be granted by Letters Patents, and settled upon and confirmed unto the said Sir Richard Bellings, the Grandson, and his Heirs and Assignes for ever, This present or any other Act, Ordinances, Order, Statute, Attainder, Record, or any other matter, cause or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Com.

Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall appoint: And be it also Enacted in case the said Lands shall not be sufficient, That then the Commissioners, or such person or persons as are or shall be appointed for Execution of this Act, doe and shall forthwith cause to be set out, and delivered unto him the said Lord Kingston, his Heirs and Assignes, so much more other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the Counties of Cork, Limerick, and Tipperary, which by virtue of this Act shall or may be Retrenched from any Adventurers, Souldiers, their Heirs, Executors or Assignes, or of other forfeited lands within the said Counties, or within the Counties of Dublin, and Kildare, or some of them, as together with the lands in the said Letters Patents granted, or mentioned to be granted to him as aforesaid, and as shall be possessed and enjoyed by him, and not recovered or granted away from him by this or the said former Act, are of the said present cleer yearly rent of Seaven hundred pounds, and as ober and above the said yearly rent, are equal in value, worth and purchase unto two full third parts of all the lands recovered against him by virtue of any Decrees heerein confirmed, or that have been delivered up, or parted with to William Lord Vice-count Dungan, and others in observance of His Majesties Letters, To the end that like effectual Letters Patents may thereof also be granted unto the said John Lord Kingston and his Heirs, as are herein before appointed to be granted to other Adventurers and Souldiers of their respective allotments, any matter or thing whatsoever in this or the said former Act, or any other Act contained or otherwise to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding, Saving unto Charles Lord Vice-count Fitz Harding and his Heirs such right and title in and to any of the premises as he or they can or may claim by virtue of any Letters Patents thereof granted unto Charles late Lord Vice-count Fitz Harding, after Earl of Falmouth, by His Majestie, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Sir John Percivall Baronet, his Executors, Administrators and Assignes, shall and may hold, possess and enjoy the Town & Lands of Kinsaley, in the County of Dubiin, for the term of sixty one years from the first day of May, One thousand six hundred sixty and three, according to the tenor and full effect of an Indenture of Lease under the Great Seal of Ireland, to him thereof made, and under the rents, covenants and conditions thereby reserved, expressed expressed and limited, any thing in the last precedent clause or in this present or any other Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided also that nothing in this Act or the Letters Patents granted to the said Lord Kingston, shall enable him the said Lord Kingston, his Heirs or Assignes to hold or enjoy any manors, lands or Tenements lying or being within the Securities set apart for satisfaction of the Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, unless he the said Lord Kingston, his Heirs or Assignes shall cause so many Debentures for arrears due to the said Commissioned Officers as are satisfiable by the rules of this Act, and have not been satisfied in part to be placed thereupon as after the rate of eight pears purchase, may be sufficient to purchase the premises, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the messuages, Castles, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and other the Hereditaments whereof Sir Daniel D Bryen, now Daniel Lord Vice-count D Bryen, of Clare, or his Brother Tige D Bryan, Esq; or Connor D Bryan, Esq; Sonn and Heir apparent to the said Lord Vice-count, or Morough D Bryan, one other of the Sons of the said Vice-count D Bryan, or any other person or persons whatsoever to their or any of their use, or in trust for them, or any of them, were upon the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, lawfully seized of any estate of freehold or inheritance, or possess for any term of pears yet in being, as also one stone-house in the City of Limerick (impropriations and appropriated tithes excepted) shall be by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act set out and allotted unto and placed in the present and actual possession of Daniel D Bryan, Esq; Sonn and Heir apparent of the said Connor D Bryen, and the Heirs and Executors of the said Daniel D Bryen respectively, without and before any previous reprizal, any clause, matter or thing in the said former Act, or in this present Act, herein before or after contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And that the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall grant unto the said Daniel D Bryen, such certificates as may be necessary in Order to the passing of Letters Patents of the premises, and further that until such final Settlement and allotment as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said Daniel D Bryen to enter upon and retain and keep possession of the premises, and all and every the Adventurers and Souldiers, Protestant purchasers of Lands in Conaght or Clare, and Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, their heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assignes who shall be removed to make way for such restitution or be prejudiced thereby, shall after such restitution made be satisfied by the allotment of some other forfeited and undisposed lands as may be equal to their several and respective two full third parts of what they depart from or may be prejudiced in according to the rules of this Act, and all and every the persons transplanted into and upon any part of the premises, their heirs and Assignes shall have full satisfaction out of the forfeited lands undisposed of to the English Protestants, as the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, shall think fit, after the several interests of his Majesties Protestant Subjects in Ireland, have been fully settled and satisfied according to this Act.

Provided alwayes and it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall restore James Fleming of Staholmock Esq; unto all the Lordships, Castles, Houses, Lands, Tenements, Rents Reveruons, Remainders, Hereditaments, Right, Title, interest and estate whatsoever, whereof the said James Fleming, or any or others in trust for him, or to his use, were seized or possessed the three and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, And that after such Restitution, the said James Fleming shall hold and enjoy the same to him and his heirs, this Act or any other Act, Record, Outlawry, Attainder, or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall restore unto Captain Charles Farrell, all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the County of Longford, whereof he the said Charles Farrell, or his Father, or any other in trust for them, or either of them, were seized upon the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, and that after such Restitution made, the said Charles Farrell shall hold and enjoy the same to him and his heirs, Subject nevertheless to the quit-rents by this or the former Act imposed, and payable to all and singular the statutes, Mortgages, Debts, Charges, and all other the Acts and Incumbrances whatsoever of him the said Charles Farrell, or his Father, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall out of such forfeited lands, as shall remain undisposed after all the English interests herein provided for shall be satisfied, set out, and allot unto Frances Darcy widow, so much land as shall be of like yearly value, as the lands which she the said Frances Darcy formerly held, or ought to have held for her jointure, to be held and enjoyed by the said Frances Darcy during her life, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Summ of Four thousand five hundred pounds due for service done in Ireland, before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, unto Arthur Lord Vice-count Ranelagh, by Debentures already stated and allowed by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, shall be paid and satisfied out of the securities thereunto lyable by this present Act, unto Richard Earl of Burlington and Cork, Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, Arthur Earl of Anglesey, Roger Earl of Orrery, and Sir John Skeffington Barones, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and that they and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs of the Survivor, shall have, hold, receive and enjoy to his and their Heirs, all and singular the Mannors, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and all other the satisfaction whatsoever, or of what nature or kind soever which shall or may be hereafter appointed, allotted or otherwayes set out and Assigned for the satisfaction of the said Four thousand five hundred pounds; Nevertheless in trust to and for the onely use, benefit and advantage of Frances Jones and Elizabeth Jones Daughters of the said Arthur Lord Vice-count Ranelagh, their Executors and Assignes, and to and for no other use, intent or purpose whatsoever, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes and be it further Enacted, that all Leases, terms and estates which upon the three and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, did not exceed three lives, or one and thirtie years, and are forfeited to or vested in His Majesty, whereof or whereupon the next and immediate Reversion or Remainder, doth or shall appertain to any innocent Protestant, be and are hereby declared to be ceased, determined, null and void; any thing thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes and be it Enacted, That nothing in this present Act, nor in the former Act, shall be taken or any wayes construed to weaken or make void all or any of the right, title and claim which Lawrence Hide, of Henton-Dawbney, in the County of Southampton Esq; hath by virtue of any Statute Staple, Mortgage or otherwise unto the Towns and Town Lands of Ballihenukin, Knockanammy, and part of Chancellors-town in the Barony of Iffa, and Offa, and the lands of Quarter-cross, parcel of the town and Lands of Clare, nor unto two acres great Countrey measure in Burdens-Grange in the Barony of Middlethird, in all containing about eight hundred acres, lying and being in the County of Tipperary, but that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, to examine the right and title of him the said Lawrence Hide, of, in and to the said lands and Tenements, or to any sum of money which can or may be levied thereupon, and to make such Order and Decree for the said Lawrence Hide or his Assignes, to hold and enjoy all and singular the premises, until he or they shall be fully satisfied and paid the moneys to him due as aforesaid, together with what interest shall be due for the same as they shall think fit, any thing in this Act, or in any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Colonel Christopher D Bryen was appointed by his Majestie in his late gracious Declaration, to be restored unto his estate, as one who in an especial manner had merited his Majesties Grace and favour, and was afterwards in pursuance of his Majesties Orders, put into possession thereof, by the Sheriff of the County of Clare, in which County the said estate doth lye, notwithstanding which if the same should be strictly examined according to the Rules of the said former Act, It may be doubted whether such delivery of possession were legal, and whether the lands so delivered do not still remain Subject to the uses of the said former Act and this present Act, And whereas the said Christopher D Bryen is lately Dead without issue, and all his estate, right, title and interest descended unto and upon Morogh Earl of Inchiquin his next and immediate Brother and Heir, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith restore unto the said Morogh Earl of Inchiquin and his Heirs the present and actual possession of all all and singular the Cattles, Houses, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which the said Colonel Christopher D Bryen, or any other in trust for him or to his use, had, held or enjoyed upon the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments formerly belonging to the said Christopher D Bryen, and now in the possession of Peirce Creagh, excepted, which are hereby granted and confirmed unto the said Peirce Creagh and his Heirs, and shall likewise set out and allot unto the said Earl of Inchequin and his Heirs so many acres more of undisposed and forfeited lands, as may be equal in quantity of acres to the said lands held by the said Peirce Creagh, and from and after such restitution and allotment so made as aforesaid, the said Morogh Earl of Inchequin shall hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs all and singular the messuages, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, so as aforesaid restored and allotted, and all and every the persons transplanted into and upon any part of the premises, their Heirs and Assignes, shall have such satisfaction out of the forfeited lands undisposed of to English Protestants, as the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, shall think fit, after the several interests of his Majesties Protestant Subjects in Ireland, have been fully satisfied and settled according to this Act, anything in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Sir Thomas Sherlock Knight Deceased, was in his life time a very dutifull and Loyal Subject, and from the time of the first breaking out of the said Rebellion and War unto the last end thereof, behaved himself with great courage and diligence in his Majesties service, and suffered great hardships and extremities from the said Irish Rebels, by reason of such his fidelity and Obedience to the Crown of England, until at last being taken prisoner by them, he was forced for fear of his life, to subscribe their Oath of association, and having so gained his Liberty did immediately fly unto Dublin, and there submitted himself to the now Lord Duke, then Lord Marquess of Ormond, his Majesties Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and continued there ever after serving his Majestie, and his Authority to the uttermost of his power, The consideration whereof inclined his Majestie to mention the said Sir Thomas Sherlock, in his late gracious Declaration amongst the names of those few persons, whom his Majestie was pleased to appoint to be restored to their former estate without out any further Proof of their innocency, which said Sir Thomas Sherlock was afterward by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act adjudged a notent person, upon no other grounds or evidence than the enforced subscription of the Oath of association as aforesaid, His Majesty therefore being very unwilling to proceed with such rigour and strictness towards any of his good Subjects, or to suffer a Decree so severe to continue any longer in force, to the ruine of the said Sir Thomas Sherlock and his family, is graciously pleased, That it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith and without any previous reprisall restore unto Paul Sherlock Esq; sonne and heire of the said Sir Thomas Sherlock, and his heirs the possession of the principal and capital Messuage or seat, and also one third part of all and singular the Messuages, Mannors, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whereof the said Sir Thomas Sherlock, or any other person or persons in trust for him or to his use, were seized or possessed upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, (Impropriations, and appropriate, tithes excepted) and shall also with all convenient speed restore the whole residue of the said lands and Tenements (Impropriations and appropriate tithes excepted) the respective Adventurers or Souldiers, their heirs or Assignes now in possession thereof, or claiming the same, being first satisfied their respective two third parts, and for their severall and respective improvements which will be due to them by the rules of this Act, and from and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, the said Paul Sherlock shall hold and enjoy to him, his heirs and Assignes all and singular the lands and Tenements so restored in as full and ample manner as he or they might have done, if no such Decree had ever been had or made, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

the said two and twentieth of October, and that so much other forfeited and undisposed land be likewise set out and allotted unto the said Nicholas Bourke and his heirs, and within such County and Barony, as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour and Governours of Ireland and Council there shall direct and appoint.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith restore unto the Lord Vice-count Gormanston and his heirs, all and singular the Messuages, Mannors, lands, Tenements, Rents, Reversions, Remainders and Hereditaments, to which he is not already restored by some Decree of the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act herein confirmed, and all other the estate, Right, Title and interest whatsoever, whereof the said Lord Vice-count Gormanston, or Nicholas late Lord Vice-count Gormanston his Father, or any other person or persons to their use or in trust for them, or either of them, were seized or possessed the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, (Impropriations and appropriate tithes excepted) the heirs or Assignes of Charles late Earl of Mountrath, now having or claiming the same being first satisfied by an allotment to them and their heirs of so much forfeited lands, as may be equal in quantity and number of profitable acres to the lands so as aforesaid to be restored, and being also first satisfied and paid or otherwise secured for the Rents, issues and meane profits received and detained by the said Lord Vice-count Gormanston and his Agents, since his entry on the premises, or to be received and detained until such allotment shall be made as aforesaid, according as the same shall be ascertained by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, and at such times and in such manner as they shall appoint, and from and after such Restitution made as aforesaid, the said Lord Vice-count Gormanston shall hold and enjoy to him, his heirs and Assignes all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so restored, this Act or any other Act, Record, Writ, or Attainder or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

except the houses in Kilkenny, which they or either of them respectively, or any other person or persons in trust for them, or either of them respectively had, held or enjoyed upon the Two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, and which are not already restored to the said Richard Grace by some decree of the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act herein confirmed, the respective Adventurers or Souldiers, their Heirs or Assigns now in possession thereof, or claiming the same, being first satisfied their respective charges and proportions, and for their several and respective improvements, which will be due to them by the rules of this Act, and from and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, the said John Grace shall hold and enjoy to him and his heirs, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so to be restored, and the said Richard Grace shall hold & enjoy to him and his Heirs the lands so to be restored, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall forthwith restore unto Patrick Archer Merchant, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which he, or any other person or persons in trust for him, had, held or enjoyed upon the Two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, the respective Adventurers or Souldiers, their Heirs or Assigns now in possession thereof, or claiming the same, being first satisfied their respective shares and proportions, and for their several and respective improvements, which will be due to them by the rules of this Act; And from and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, the said Patrick Archer shall hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so to be restored, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas upon the passing of certain Letters Patents under His Majesties Great Seal of England, bearing date the eight day of April, in the Fourteenth year of His Majesties Reign, unto Richard Earl of Clanrickard and his Heirs an use was therein limited, or some other provision thereby made for the better securing unto Charles late Lord Vice-count Muskry, the sum of Ten thousand pounds, by the yearly payment of Two thousand pounds sterling per annum, for and during the term of five years next ensuing the date of the said Patent: And soasmuch as it may

to fall out by reason of sundry emergent occasions, that the payments thereby secured may not be fully compleated within the said term of five years, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Letters Patents: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the term of five years in the said Letters Patents mentioned shall be and is hereby enlarged unto the term of three years more next after the said five years ended and determined, and that if the several payments in and by the said Letters Patents intended to be secured, shall be made and determined within the time hereby enlarged, the same shall be as good and effectual in Law, as if they had been made within the said five years, and that in all other uses, limitations, matters and things, the said Letters Patents, and every Clause and Article therein, shall be as good and effectual in Law, and of like force and effect, as the same were before the making of this Act, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And to the end that no person or persons, who is or shall be testor, or intitled unto, or confirmed in any Messuages, Mannors, Lands, Tenements or other Hereditaments by virtue of any Clause in this Act contained, or by virtue of any Letters Patents, Grant, Restitution or other Dispensation or Allotment herein made, or hereafter to be made in pursuance of this Act, may by pretence of such new title avoid the payment of any just debts to which they or their respective Executors or Ancestors were or ought to have been liable, Be it therefore Explained and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every person and persons, their Heirs and Assignes having and holding or claiming to have and to hold any messuages, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby made Subject unto, and charged with all and singular the Debts and Liabilities of money now due and owing by them or any other person or persons whose Heirs, Executors or Administrators they are, and under whom they claim their several and respective allotments, as Heir, Executor or Administrator, whether the same Debts be due and owing by virtue of any Specialty or matter of Record, and that shall and every the messuages, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so held and claimed as aforesaid, shall be held and accounted as Assets in Law, and are hereby declared to be Assets for and towards the satisfaction and payment of all such Debts to which the said takers thereof are in their own right, or as Heirs, Executors or Administrators of any other person or persons made lyable by this Act, any thing in this or the said former Act, or any other Law, matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes and be it further Enacted, That the Heirs or Assignes of Charles late Earl of Mountrath, shall have, hold and enjoy all such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which were settled upon or granted unto the said late Earl, by any Letters Patents of the late Usurped Powers, whereof he was in possession the seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, except such as have been decreed or shall be by this Act, or restored unto the Irish Proprietor, for which he or they shall forthwith have the like quantity of profitable Acres set out unto him or them respectively, and that all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments and other the advantages by this or the said former Act, intended to be given, granted or confirmed unto the said late Earl of Mountrath, his Heirs or Assignes, shall stand and remain disposed and divided among and between the now Earl of Mountrath the relic and younger Children of the said late Earl, subject and lyable unto such limitations, uses, debts, portions and legacies, as are expressed and contained in a decree made by the Lord Lieutenant and Council, bearing date the                      day of October, One thousand six hundred sixty and three, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Sir Audley Mervin Knight, Speaker of the House of Commons, Sir George Lane Kt. Clerke of the house of Lords, Philip Ferneley Esq; Clerke of the House of Commons, and other the attendants on either of the said Houses, do claime certain Fees, to be due and payable to them for every Bill containing any grant or restitution of any forfeited Lands to any person or persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, their heirs or successors, touching the ascertaining whereof, and giving due remedy for the recovering of the same, some provision was made in and by a clause in the said former Act, in which clause the Speaker of the House of Lords and the Clerke of the Council of Ireland are not mentioned; Be it therefore explained and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Speaker of the house of Lords and Clerke of the Council of Ireland shall be deemed and adjudged to be comprehended in the said clause, and that the said Speaker and Clerke of the Council, and Sir Audley Mervin, Sir George Lane, Philip Ferneley, and others mentioned in the said clause, contained in the said former Act, be paid by such person and persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, who receive any grant of or Settlement in any forfeited Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act, or of the said former Act, not set out to them in satisfaction of Adventures or Arrears, or of purchases made in Connaght, or any restitution to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, the Incumbents of the severall Parochial Churches excepted, such Fees and no other as the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governour and Governours of Ireland and Council there shall think fit and appoint, and that after the same Fees so as aforesaid ascertained, like remedy shall be given for the recovery thereof, as in and by the said former Act is provided, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes and be it Enacted, That no Lease or Custodiam made or granted by the Kings Majestie unto Edward late Lord Bishop of Limerick, now Lord Bishop of Corke, Cloyne and Ross, or unto any other person or persons, of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments in the Barony or Baronies of Conello, and Pople-Bryan in the County of Limerick, or either of them, whereof William Barker Esq; by himself, his Agents or undertenants was in possession the seventh of May, One thousand six hundred sixty nine, shall any way prejudice the right, Title, Interest or Possession of the said William Barker of, in or to the same, but that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said William Barker his Heirs or Assignes, to enter into and take possession of all and singular the said lands and Tenements in the said Baronies, or either of them whereof he was so in possession, not Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, and the same to have, hold and enjoy to him the said William Barker, his Heirs and Assignes, and that the said William Barker and his Heirs shall have like privilege and advantage in retaining the possession of the Premises, and in retrenching the third part thereof, or placing such deficiencies thereupon as are satisfiable by the Rules of this Act, as any Adventurer or Souldier ought to have, and that the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall proceed to give such certificates thereof in order to the passing of Letters Patents, as may be necessary for the full Settlement of him the said William Barker, his Heirs and Assignes, in lieu and satisfaction of his purchase of Gilbert Marshall, in as full and ample manner as he the said William Barker, his Heirs or Assignes might have held and enjoyed the same, if he the said William Barker had still continued in possession, and as if no such Lease or Custodiam had ever been made or granted, Subject nevertheles to such Quitrents, Services and Payments as other Adventurers in the said County of Limerick, ought to pay, and with like benefits and advantages as other adventurers ought to have by this Act; any thing in the said Custodiam or in a certain clause for confirmation of the Patent granted to John Lord Kingston, herein mentioned, or any other matter or thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas it was provided by the said former Act that every of the Adventurers whose estates were to be confirmed, should pay such sum or sums of money as the Committee of Adventurers sitting at Grocers-Hall London, or any five or more of them should appoint, not exceeding two pence for every twenty shillings adventured, towards defraying of such publique charges as would conduce to the Settlement of that interest, And whereas the same is to be leyed upon such persons as shall make default, by distress and sale of their Goods, The generality of such persons making default, not living in this Kingdom, the said provision hath been hitherto rendred very much fruitless, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for better answering of those ends, and raising the said sums, the several persons hereafter named, viz. Sir Charles Lloyd Baronet, Sir Stephen White, William Barker Esq; Gower Esq; Ridge Esq; Lenthall Esq; Radcliffe, Edward Smith Esq; or the Major part of them, or the Survivors or Survivors of them, be and are hereby Authorized to be Treasurers of the said moneys, and shall and may by Order under their hands and Seals, levy or cause to be leyed any sum or sums of Money, that the said Committee of Adventurers, or any seven or more of them shall think fit and appoint, upon all and every the Adventurers for lands in Ireland, their lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Lessees, Tenants or Assignes, by distress and Sale of their Goods, rendering the overplus to the owners, which said Lessees, Tenants or Assignes shall be discharged of, and may retain so much of their Rents in their hands, as the said sum to be leyed shall amount unto, such sum or sums of money so to be leyed, not exceeding two pence for every twenty shillings originally paid and adventured and that shall be satisfied in lands in this Kingdom: Provided alwayes that neither this nor any thing herein contained, shall extend to charge any person or persons, with any sum of Summs of Money that hath been paid to any person or persons upon the account of the two pence in the pound in the said former Act granted, but that such person or persons who received the same, are to stand and be chargeable with, and accountable unto the said Treasurers for all the Money by him or them received, and the said Treasurers are to take care to imploy persons of integrity and trust, for lebying and collecting the said Summs under very good security for whom they will answer, and not to dispose of any Summ or Summs without order from the said Committee, or any seaven or more of them, to whom alone they are hereby made accountable.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act shall forthwith and without staying for any previous repizal, restore unto Sir Henry D Neil, his Heirs and Assignes, all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in the County of Antrim, whereof the said Henry D Neil or any other person in trust for him, or to his use, were or ought to have been seized or possess upon the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, and that after such restitution, in lieu and satisfaction thereof, the said Commissioners do likewise with all convenient speed set out and allot or cause to be set out and allotted unto John Lord Vice-count Massareen, his Heirs and Assignes, so much other forfeited lands as may be of equal value, worth and purchase to the lands so as aforesaid to be restored out of the lands in the County of Lowth, or if there shall not be found sufficient in that County, then out of other lands to be disposed of by this Act, and that such further satisfaction be given the said Lord Massareen and his Heirs, as is appointed by the said former Act, and will stand with the rules of this Act, so that the said lands may as neer as may be lye contiguous, And that like effectual Letters Patents be thereof granted to the said John Lord Vice-count Massareen, his Heirs and Assignes as any other Adventurer or Soldier by the rules of this Act ought to have, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided also and be it further Enacted, That the town and lands of Artain alias Tartain, with the appurtenances in the County of Dublin, containing by estimation two hundred twenty five acres, be they more or less, be granted, ratified and confirmed unto Sir Nicholas Armourer Knight, his Executors, Administrators and Assignes, according to the tenor and effect of your Majesties Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland, bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the fifteenth year of your Majesties Reign, any thing in this, the former or any other Act, matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the Messuages, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whereof Sir John Fitz Gerald Knight, dyed seized, and whereof Sir Fitz Edmund Gerrard Knight, the Grandchild dyed seized or possessed in the year One thousand six hundred and forty, and which were then belonging and of right appertaining to the Bishop of Cloyne and his Successors, and were by the last Will and Testament of the said Sir John Fitz Edmund Gerrard, and the Schedule and Codicil thereunto annexed dated the first of September, One thousand six hundred and forty, given and bequeathed, or mentioned to be given and bequeathed to his late Majestie King Charles the first, shall be and are hereby vested and settled in the now Bishop of Cloyne and his Successors for ever, The severall recopies and inappropriate copies therein and thereby bequeathed unto his said late Majestie onely excepted, which said recopies and inappropriate copies are hereby declared to be vested and settled in and upon such of the present and future incumbents and their Successors who have or shall have actual cure of Souls in those respective Parishes wherein such impropriations are, and such inappropriate copies do arise and renew, and in default of an actual incumbent, then in the respective persons now serving the cure and their Successors, who for that end shall be and are hereby made actual incumbents and capable to take to them and their Successors, and the presentation to the respective Churches, so as aforesaid endowed, shall be for ever, and the patronage thereof in the Kings Majestie, his Heirs and Successors, and that all other the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so given and bequeathed as aforesaid, and not formerly belonging or appertaining to the Bishoprick or See of Cloyne, shall be vested and settled in his Majestie, his Heirs and Successors: And whereas the right Reverend Father in God, Edward Lord Bishop of Corke, Cloyne and Ross, and Sir William Flower Knight, have been at great pains and charges in discovering of his Majesties title to the premises, as well precedent to the forfeiture by the late Rebellion, as by reason and upon the account of the said Rebellion, Be it therefore Enacted that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland or other Chief Governour there for the time being, do cause a Lease of so much as is hereby settled in his Majesty, to be passed under his Majesties Great Seal of Ireland, unto the said Edward Bishop of Corke, Cloyne and Ross, and Sir William Flower, their Executors and Assigns for the term of one and thirty years, rendring yearly unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors after the rate of treble such Quitrent as the Adventurers and the Souldiers do pay for the like proportions within the said Province of Munster, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding: Saving and reserving nevertheless to Edmund Fitz Gerald of Ballymalow and his Heirs, all such right and title which he the said Edmund Fitz Gerald had unto the premises or any part thereof, upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall set out and allot unto the Provost, Fellows and Schollars of the College of the holy and undivided Trinity near Dublin, the six hundred sixty six Acres two Roods and twenty six Poles English measure, in the County of Tipperary, and Barony of Elioguarty, heretofore allotted to William Sheeres for his Fathers Adventure of three hundred pounds, which in pursuance of a Decree in the High-court of Chancery in England, were since conveyed, or mentioned to be conveyed to the said Provost, Fellowes and Schollars of the College of the holy and undivided Trinity near Dublin, towards the satisfaction of a charitable bequest devised to them, by Elias Traverse Doctor of Divinity Deceased, And that like effectual Letters Patents shall be thereof granted unto the said Provost, Fellowes and Schollars, and their Successors for ever, as any Adventurers or Souldiers by the rules of this Act ought to have, to be held by them the said Provost, Fellowes and Schollars, and their Successors, without any defalcation or Deduction whatsoever, Subject nevertheless to the Quit-rents by this Act imposed, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Whereas Richard Earl of Arran hath purchased from Erasmus Smith Esq; his interest which he had as an adventurer, in the Isles of Arran, commonly called or known by the names of the Great Island, the small East Island, and the Island of Inishmaine, Be it therefore Enacted, and provided by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Isles of Arran, commonly called by the several names aforesaid, lying and and being in the half Barony of Arran, in the County of Gallway, together with all the Royalties, Mineralls, ( Royall mines excepted ) Fishings, Profits and appurtenances whatsoever thereunto belonging, or therewith enjoyed by the former Proprietors thereof, before the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, be and are hereby vested in, settled upon and confirmed unto the said Richard Earl of Arran, his Heirs and Assignes for ever, any thing in this Act or in the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding, Subject nevertheless to such Quit-rent payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as other the lands lying and being in the province of Connaght allotted to Adventurers or Souldiers are lyable to.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith and without any previous reprizal restore unto Patrick Lord Baron of Dunfany and his Heirs, the possession of the principal and capital messuage or seat, and also one third part of all and singular the Castles, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Rents, Reversions, Remainders, Right, title, interest and estate whatsoever, which by the said Patrick Lord Baron of Dunfany, or any other person to his use or in trust for him, were seized or possessed of upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, except impropriations and appropriate tithes, And shall also with all convenient Speed restore the whole residue of the said lands and Tenements, impropriations and appropriate tithes excepted, unto the said Lord Dunfany and his Heirs, the respective Adventurers or Souldiers, their Heirs or Assignes now in possession thereof, or claiming the same, being first satisfied their respective shares and proportions, and for their several and respective improvements, which will be due to them by the rules of this Act, And from and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, the said Patrick Lord Baron of Dunfany, shall hold and enjoy to him, his Heirs and Assignes all and singular the lands and Tenements so restored, any thing in this or the former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas one thousand Acres of forfeited lands in the Barony of Slane, were heretofore set out in satisfaction of an Adventure of six hundred pounds advanced by Sir William Massam Baronet Deceased, and as is alleaged was possessed accordingly until about Michaelmas in the year, One thousand six hundred fifty eight, at which time the said Sir William Massam being Dead, and the interest in the said

Adventure being come unto Elizabeth Massam the widow and relict of William Massam Esq; Son and Heir of the said Sir William, and then Detected also, Sir Robert Forth Knight, pretending some interest in the said lands, got possession thereof by an execution or executions issued upon a Judgement or Judgements in an action of Ejectment, being as is alleaged Surreptitiously obtained without any due notice or legal proceedings, the said Elizabeth by reason thereof having no possession upon the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, could claim no benefit of confirmation by the said former Act, and it is much to be doubted whether she could demand any satisfaction as a deficient Adventurer, the Lot being once set out and enjoyed, for remedy hereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith examine the truth of the Allegations aforesaid, and if they shall find the possession of the premises to have been wrongfully taken from the said Elizabeth Massam, they shall cause the said Elizabeth Massam to be put into possession thereof, And the said Elizabeth Massam shall hold the same to her and her Heirs as fully as any other Adventurer by this Act ought to do, until the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall set out and allot to her and her Heirs, so much thereof as they shall adjudge to amount to her proportion, And if the said Commissioners shall find the said Sir Robert Forths title to possess the said lands to be good and valid, then they shall set forth such satisfaction of land for the said Adventure, as shall be according to the rules and proportions limited for other Adventurers by this Act, And Letters Patents shall be thereof granted to the said Elizabeth, and the said Elizabeth shall enjoy the same to her, and her Heirs and Assignes accordingly, any thing in this or the former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Captain John Wakeham, and Lieutenant Richard Wakeham, were seized or possessed before the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, of certain lands set out to them in satisfaction of their arrears, and were thereof put out and disposed before the said Seaventh of May, by virtue of an extent, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall set out and allot to the said John Wakeham, and Richard Wakeham, their Heirs and Assignes so much forfeited and undisposed land, as may be equal in quantity of Acres unto two full third parts of the lands whereof they were so possessed, as fully and amply as if they had had been thereof possed upon the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, any thing in this or the former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall restore unto James Reynold of Loghscur in the County of Lerrim Esq; and his heirs, the possession of all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which the father of the said James Reynolds, or any other person to his use or in trust for him, were seized or possessed upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, the respective Adventurers or Souldiers, their heirs or Assignes now in possession thereof, or claiming the same, being first satisfied their respective shares and proportions, and for their federal and respective improvements which will be to them by the rules of this Act, And from and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, the said James Reynolds shall hold and enjoy to him, his heirs and Assignes all and singular the lands and Tenements so restored, any thing in this or the former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further explained and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this or the said former Act contained shall any way extend to Barr any right or title of Escheat which his Majestie hath unto the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of Con O'Rourke in the County of Lerrim lately Deceased without heirs, and which is found by Inquisition now remaining upon Record in his Majesties High-court of Chancery, But that his Majesties right and title thereunto by Escheat as aforesaid be fully saved and preserved unto his Majestie, his heirs and Successors, any seizure or sequestration of the premises or any part thereof upon the account of the said late Rebellion or Warre, or any other matter or thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall out of such forfeited lands as shall remain undisposed after all the English interests herein provided for, shall be satisfied, set out and allot unto Anne Lady Dowager of Slane, so much lands as shall be of like yearly value, as the lands she formerly held or ought to have held for her jointure, as widow and relict of the Lord Delvin her former husband, to be held and enjoyed by the said Lady Dowager of Slane, during her life, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, do forthwith restore to John Talbot of Malahyde all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the County of Dublin, which he the said John Talbot, held and enjoyed upon the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, such person or persons who purchased the same of and from Susanna Bastwick or her children or their Assignes, being first satisfied out of the forfeited lands undisposed by this Act, by an allotment of so many profitable Acres as may be equal in value, worth and purchase to the lands so to be restored, and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, the said John Talbot shall hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so restored, but subject to Quit rents, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Sir George Harbert of Dorrow in the Kings County Knight and Baronet, shall by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, be forthwith restored unto and placed in the present and actual possession of all and singular the Lands, Tenements and all other Hereditaments, right, title and interest whatsoever in the said Kingdome of Ireland, which he the said Sir George Harbert or his Uncle Sir Jasper Harbert deceased, or either of them, or any other person or persons in trust for them, or either of them, or to their or either of their use or uses, had, held or enjoyed, or of right ought to have, held or enjoyed on the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, the respective Adventurers or Souldiers, their Heirs or Assignes now in possession thereof claiming the same, being first sa-satisfied their respective shares and proportions, and for their several and respective improvements, which will be due to them by the rules of this Act, And from and after such restitution so made as aforesaid, shall hold and enjoy all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so to be restored unto him and his Heirs, by such tenures, rents and services, and no other, (tenures in Capite or by Knights service excepted) as the same were held by, on the said two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Sir Henry Tichborne Knight, shall hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which were set forth unto him in recompense and satisfaction of money and other provisions by him furnished for reliefe of the Army in Ireland, between the years One thousand six hundred forty one, & One thousand six hundred forty three, which have not been Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, And that the Commissioners for Execution of this present Act, shall out of the forfeited Lands, which shall remain undisposed by this Act to Adventurers or Souldiers, set out and allot unto the said Sir Henry Tichborne, so many Acres of profitable land, as may be equall in quantity to the lands so Decreed away, to be held and enjoyed by the said Sir Henry Tichborne and his Heirs, and that like effectuall Letters Patents shall be thereof granted, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall out of such forfeited lands as shall remain undisposed, set out and allot unto Mabel Countess Dowager of Fingall, so much lands as shall be of like yearly value as the lands which she the said Countess Dowager of Fingall formerly held or ought to have held for her jointure, to be held and enjoyed by her the said Countess Dowager of Fingall for and during the term of her life, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Samuel Avery late of London Alderman, was in his life time an Adventurer for Lands in Ireland, and did subscribe and pay in the sum of eleaven hundred pounds or thereabouts, The satisfaction of which Adventure was afterwards set out and allotted unto him the said Samuel Avery, in the Barony of Conello and County of Limerick, who not.

notwithstanding such allotment quitted the possession of his own lot, & entred upon the lot of Sir Charles Lloyd Baronet, another Adventurer satisfied in part within the same Barony of Conello, which lot continued in the possession of the said Samuel Avery, his Heirs and Assignes, until the same was lately rediozed unto the said Sir Charles Lloyd, And whereas the said Samuel Avery did also in his life time contract and agree with the late Usurpers in England, for the Farm or Receipt of certain customs or impositions upon merchandize exported or imported, then and there usually paid, And upon such his contract and undertaking became indebted and good charged and chargeable with the sum of Tenn thousand pounds, or thereabouts, as in and by the Records thereof remaining in the Court of Exchequer in England more fully appears, which said Debt and duty stands excepted out of the Act of Parliament passed in England, entitled, An Act of Free and generall pardon, Indemnity and Oblivion, and remains vested in his Majesty, and is still unsatisfied, no lands or Tenements, Goods or Chattells of the said Samuel Avery, whereupon the said Debt might be leyed, being to be found in England, and the whole Adventure of the said Samuel Avery, and the lands therefore set out in the said Barony of Conello, although no defalcation thereof be made, are too little to satisfy the said Debt so long behind and unpaid, To the end therefore that full satisfaction may be made unto his Majesty for his said Debt as farr as by the said Adventure is possible, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the Barony of Conello, set out and allotted unto the said Samuel Avery as aforesaid, not already Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, into whose hands soever the same be come by any right or title derived by, from or under the said Samuel Avery, his Heirs or Assignes, shall remain and continue vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in satisfaction and discharge of the said Debt, and if any part of the said lands have been Decreed away by the Commissioners for Execution of the said former Act, The Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith Assigne unto his Majesty by Deed under their hands and Seales, to be enrolled in Chancery, so much more as may be equal in quantity and number of Acres to the lands so decreed away, which lands so assigned shall be and are hereby vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and discharged of the uses or trusts in this or the

the said former Act expressed, any thing in this or the said former Act, or any other Act, matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the fifty four persons herein after named, That is to say, The Earl of Westmeath, the Lord Vice-count Ikerryn, The Lord Baron of Dunboyne, The Lord Baron of Trymletstown, The Lord Baron of Upper-Ossory, The Lord Bermingham Baron of Athunry, Colonel Richard Butler, Sir Richard Barnwell Baronet, Sir Redmund Everard Baronet, Sir Dermott O Shagnussey Knight, Master Edmund Fitz Gerald of Baly malo, Master Thomas Butler of Killcomell, Master Macnemarra of Crevagh, Master David Power of Kibolane, Master Donnogh O Callaghan of Clonmeen, Master Barnard Talbott of Rathdown, Conly Geoghegan of Donore, who were mentioned amongst the thirty eight persons in his Majesty's late Gracious Declaration, and were restored after reprisalls set out, and for whom no provision hath yet been made, and also the heirs of Sir Lucas Dillon Knight, the heirs of Sir Valentine Blake Baronet, Sir Robert Talbott Knight, Sir Richard Blake Knight, Doctor Gerrard Fennell, Geoffry Browne, John Browne of the Neale, John Walsh, Thomas Terrill, Edmund Dillon, Francis Coghlan of Kilcolgan in the Kings County, Robert Nugent of Carlanstown, Sir John Bourke of Derry-MacLaghney, Thomas Arthur Esq; Doctor in Physick, Gerald Fleming of Castle Fleming, and Bartholemew Stackpoole Esquires, who were also mentioned in the said former Act to be restored to their former estates as aforesaid, and for whom no provision hath yet been made, And also the Lord Baron of Brittas, Master Ture Sonn to Andrew Boy Tute of Cullanmore, in the County of Westmeath Esq; Master Walsh heir of David Walsh of Bally-Beaghan in the County of Tipperary, Esq; Sir Edmund Bourke Baronet Sonn to Sir Vlick Bourke of Giusk in the County of Roscomon Baronet Deceased, Sir Thomas Esmond Baronet, Sir Lucas Dowdall Knight Sonn of Lawrence Dowdall of Athlumney in the County of Meath Esq; Master Walsh heir of Walter Walsh of Castle Hoyle in the County of Kilkenny Esq; Edward Walsh of Ballinikill in the County of Catherlagh Esq; Master Butler Sonn of Theobald Butler Sonn of James Butler of Derry-Luscan in the County of Tipperary Esq; James Tobyn of Killaghee in the County of Tipperary Esq; Richard Butler of Ballinikill in the County of Tipperary Esq; Philip Purcell of Ballyfoyle in the County of

of Kilkenny Esq; Sir Edmund Fitz Gerald of Clanliff in the County of Limerick Baronet, Peirce Walsh of Abbey Owhney in the County of Limerick Esq; John Power of Doneile in the County of Waterford Esq; Peirce Power of Money Largy in the County of Waterford Esquire, William Brabazon, the Heir of Anthony Brabazon of Balinasloe in the County of Roscomon Esq; Daniel O'Brien of Dneagh in the County of Clare Esq; Lord Vice-count Iveagh, Sir Edward Fitz Harris of Clogh-Norefoyl in the County of Limerick Baronet, John Cantwell of Mokarky in the County of Tipperary Esq; and their Heirs and Assignes, shall by the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, be restored unto their severall and respective principall Seats, That is to say, unto their severall and respective principal Messuages, Houses or Castles, ( Kilmedan and the lands thereunto belonging excepted ) or in case they have severall Messuages, Houses or Castles to such of their severall messuages, Houses or Castles ( Kilmedan and the land thereunto belonging excepted ) as they shall respectively choose within two months after the first sitting of the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, and unto two thousand acres of land thereunto adjoining, if they or any of them, their or any of their Ancestors, or any other in trust for them, or any of them, or to their, or any of their use, were seized or possessed of so much upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, and were thereunto lawfully and rightfully intitled : And in case they or any of them, their or any of their Ancestors, or any other in trust for them, or any of them, or to their use, were not seized or possessed upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, of two thousand acres as aforesaid, then unto so much thereof as they were seized or possessed of as aforesaid, and which lyes contiguous to their respective principall Seats, and if any of the four and fifty Persons herein before named, shall be found to be in possession of any messuage and lands there-unto adjoining, which to them or any of them did rightfully belong upon the said two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, and the lands so possessed shall be found to exceed the quantity of two thousand acres, it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland and Council there for the time being, to cause so much thereof, as shall exceed the quantity of two thousand acres, to be retrenched and cut off, in such way and manner as they shall think fit, and the land so retrenched shall remain and be vested in his Majesty, to the end that the same may be further disposed to the uses of this Act; And for the better support of such of the four and fifty Persons herein before named, who shall not have two thousand acres near adjoining and lying contiguous unto his and their respective Seats, to which they are to be restored, or having two thousand acres shall not be thought to be thereby sufficiently provided for, It is further declared and Enacted, That it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour and Governours of Ireland, and Council there for the time being, upon due consideration had of the several and respective cases and merits of the persons aforesaid, to direct and appoint the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, to set out and allot or cause to be set out and allotted unto any of the persons aforesaid or their Heirs so much of the forfeited lands which shall remain undisposed after the several Protestant interests herein before provided for, shall be satisfied, as the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours & Council shall think fit.

Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to restore or intitle the said Sir Thomas Esmond Baronet, to the possession of any Possuages, Mannors, lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereof George Duke of Albemarle is now in possession by himself, or his under-tenants, or any wayes intituled thereunto, but that the same shall be held and enjoyed by the said George Duke of Albemarle, his Heirs and Assignes, any thing herein before contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided also, That if any person or persons shall within the space of six monthes next after the Royal assent to this Bill, actually given, alleage before the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, and Council there, that the said Sir Edward Fitz Harris, hath committed any Massacre, Murder, or other such like heinous Crime or cruelty upon the persons of any of his Majesties good Subjects, & shall prove the same by such witnesses or other evidence as the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governour or Governours and Council there, shall think good proof, that then and in such case it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours and Council there, by order of the Council, to declare and adjudge him the said Sir Edward Fitz Harris to be guilty of the Crime or cruelty so alleaged and proved as aforesaid; and upon such declaration and judgement, the said Sir Edward Fitz Harris and his Heirs shall shall be and are hereby made incapable of any benefit or advantage, in and by this present Act given, or of any restitution as aforesaid, but shall remain and be, to all intents and purposes, in the same plight and condition, as he or they would have been, if the said Sir Edward Fitz Harris had not been named in this present Act, Any thing herein before contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And it is further Enacted, That all and every the Adventurers, Souldiers and Commissioned Officers, who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, their Heirs and Assigns, who are to be removed to make way for the restitution of the four and fifty persons herein before named, or any of them, shall be first satisfied by some other forfeited lands to be set out and allotted to them by the Commissioners for execution of this Act, equal in value, worth and purchase to the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments from whence they are to be removed; and all and every the Protestant Purchasers in Conaght and Clare, shall be first satisfied by an allotment of land equal in value unto the lands from whence they are to be removed.

And be it further Enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That where any person or persons now in the possession of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, ought to be reprized for the same, and after reprizals first set out, to be removed from thence, to make way for the restitution of any of the fifty four persons herein before named, their Heirs or Assigns, or for the restitution of any other person or persons herein before or after mentioned, who by the Rules of this Act is made redozable after previous reprizals, that there and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the person or persons so as aforesaid appointed to be removed, to have, receive and keep the rents, issues and profits of all and singular the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whereof they are now in possession, to their own use and behoof, without any accompt to be therefore made or rendred, until the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall have set out and allotted unto the person or persons so as aforesaid appointed to be removed, such forfeited lands by way of reprizal, as they shall adjuodge to be due to them by the rules of this Act; And all and every person and persons, who after reprizals set out and allotted by the Commissioners, shall refuse to accept of such reprizals, prizalls, and shall detain and keep the possession of the lands from which they ought to be removed, shall account for and pay unto the person who ought to be restored, all the Rents and profits received from the time of setting out such reprivalls, untill the restorable person shall be put into actual possession of the same, any thing hereto in before or after contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every the Leases which have been made Bonâ Fide, of any the lands or Tenements which by virtue of any clause in this Act, are to be restored, shall be held and enjoyed by the several and respective Tenants during their respective Leases, they paying the Rents and services thereupon reserved, and performing the covenants and agreements therein contained, unto the person or persons to whom the Reversion thereof shall appertain, but if such Leases have been made in consideration of a fine paid, and by reason thereof a Lesser Rent hath been reserved, than otherwise the premises were worth to be let, then the person to be removed shall pay or cause to be paid unto the person to be restored, the said fine, and shall be satisfied for such fine so paid by such an allotment of so much other forfeited lands as after the rate of eight years purchase may be Equivalent thereunto; And it is further declared, That no Restitution made unto any of the persons herein before named, (The Restitution of Francis Lord Bermingham Baron of Arthunry excepted) shall any way extend to alter or diminish the right which the Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, can or may claim by virtue of this or the said former Act, to the benefit arising from the Redemption of Mortgages, Statutes Staple, and Judgements which do or may incumber the premises so to be restored: Nevertheless the four and fifty persons so as aforesaid to be restored, their Heirs and Assignes (The Lord Bermingham excepted) shall have full power and Authority at any time within the space of two years next after the Royall assent to this Bill given, to Redeem all and every the Mortgages, Statutes and Judgements which have been entred into by any forfeiting person or person not decreed innocent, and do incumber the premises, so as the moneys thereupon due and owing for such part of the incumbrances as are within the security set a part for the Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty and nine, be paid and satisfied unto their use, the payment whereof shall be and is hereby declared a sufficient discharge of such incumbrance, and no possession is to be delibered of the premises untill the respective forfeited Incumbrances thereupon lying be paid and satisfied as aforesaid: And all and every the Mortgages, Statutes and Judgements which have been entred into to any forfeiting person or person not declared innocent, and do incumber the premises or any part thereof herein before appointed to be restored unto the said Francis Lord Bermingham Baron of Atthunry, shall be and are hereby released, barred, discharged and extinguished, And the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, are to set out so much other forfeited land, as may be sufficient to satisfie the Officers who served before June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, for the several forfeited Incumbrances within their security and extinguished as aforesaid: And to the end that the Protestants who upon or since the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, have been in the actual possession of any Messuages or lands which by virtue of this Act shall be restored or given unto any person or persons herein before or after named, may not wholly loose the benefit and charges of their respective improvements, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Protestants so to be removed shall be and are hereby enabled to demand, and shall upon their requests have Leases made to them of all and singular the Messuages and lands in their manual occupations, for three lives, or one and twenty years, at a moderate Rent not exceeding three fourthes of the true value of the lands, in satisfaction of their improvements, except it be a capital messuage, and then the party to be restored shall either make such Lease as aforesaid, or pay unto the person to be removed, in ready money the full value of such improvements, and in case of default or refusal, to make such Lease as aforesaid upon request, or to give such satisfaction in money, shall be and are hereby enabled to reenter and to retain the said lands, untill such Lease made or satisfaction given as aforesaid: And to the end there may not be any difference touching the values of the lands so to be demised, or of the improvements to be satisfied as aforesaid, The Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governour or Governours and Council for the time being, are hereby enabled upon the Petition of the parties concerned, to appoint such Commissioners from time to time as they shall think fit, to settle the difference aforesaid, Provided alwayes and it is Enacted, That nothing herein contained shall enable any of the four and fifty persons herein before mentioned, to demand or have, or to be restored restored unto any Impropriations or Appropriate tythes, or to any Glebe Lands, parcel of any Rectory impropriate, but that the same shall remain and be to such uses, as they would have been by this and the said former Act, if the said fifty and four persons, or any of them, had not been named, Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That those who were in possession of any lands or houses upon the two and twentieth day of August, One thousand six hundred sixty and three, to which they were restored by virtue of any His Majesties Letters, if they or any of them, their or any of their Ancestors, or any other in trust for them, or any of them, were thereof seized or possessed upon the Two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, and thereunto rightfully intitled, and are not otherwise provided for by this Act, shall by the Commissioners for execution of this Act, be restored unto, and put in possession of such houses, and so much of the lands lying contiguous and thereunto adjoining, as shall not exceed the quantity of two thousand acres, in the doing whereof the Commissioners are to proceed by the same rules, orders and directions, and in like manner and form, as they ought to proceed in the settlement and restitution of any of the four and fifty persons herein before named, and not otherwise.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in the said former Act, or in this present Act, herein before or after contained, shall be understood to give, restore or confirm to any Irish Papist or Popish Reculant, or any other person seized or possessed in trust for any such Irish Papist or Popish Reculant, any Advowson or Right of Patronage or in any Ecclesiastical Benefice or Promotion, or any Right of Nomination, Presentation or Collation to, or Donation of any such Ecclesiastical Benefice or Promotion, but that all and every such Advowsons and Rights of Patronage, and the Rights of Nomination, Presentation, or Collation to, or Donation of any such Ecclesiastical Benefice or Promotion, but that all and every such Advowsons and Rights of Patronage, and the rights of Nomination, Presentation, Donation or Collation of or to any such Ecclesiastical Benefice or Promotion shall best, remain and continue, and so are hereby adjudged to best, remain and continue in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, until such Irish Papist or Popish Reculant, or the right heir of such Papist or Reculant, shall come to Church and receive the Sacrament according to the Rites of the Church of England, and from and after such conformity, shall be again rebelled in the person so conforming and his heirs, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Sir Edward Smith Knight, Chief Justice of His Majesties Court of Common Pleas, Sir Edward Dering Baronet, Sir Allen Broderick, Sir William Churchill, Knights, and Edward Cook Esq; and such others as upon the death or removal of them, or any of them, shall be appointed by His Majesty from time to time, shall be Commissioners, and that they, or any three or more of them, shall have power to put in execution all and every the matters of this present Act, and of the said former Act, which remain still in force, and are directed to be done by Commissioners, or are not particularly entrusted to some others by the said Acts, and that they and every of them shall before they act any thing in execution of the said Commission, take an Oath before the Lord Chancellour or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Ireland, or before the Lord Chief Justice of His Majesties Court of Chief Place, or the Lord Chief Justice of His Majesties Court of Common Pleas, or before the Lord Chief Baron of His Majesties Court of Exchequer for the time being, which Oath they or any of them have hereby power to administer, as there shall be occasion, in these words followings:

You shall swear, That you shall to the best of your skill and knowledge, truly and impartially execute the place and duty of a Commissioner for putting in execution an Act, intituled, An Act for the explaining of some doubts arising upon an Act, intituled, An Act for the better execution of His Majesties gracious Declaration for the settlement of His Kingdom of Ireland, and satisfaction of the several Interests of Adventurers, Souldiers, and other His Subjects there, and for making some alterations of, and additions unto the said Act, for the more speedy and effectual settlement of the said Kingdom: And of so much as is still in force, and remains to be executed, of an other Act, intituled, An Act for the better execution of His Majesties gracious Declaration for the settlement of His Kingdom of Ireland, and satisfaction of the several Interests of Adventurers, Souldiers, and other His Subjects there, so long as you shall continue in that employment, and therein you shall spare no person for favour and affection, nor any person grieve for hatred or ill will.

And

And that in all cases which shall happen before the Commissioners within the space of two years next after their first sitting, wherein the construction of this or the said former Act shall appear doubtfull to them, or that the Act it self shall be found defective in some points necessary for the carrying on of the intended final Settlement, and not clearly enough determined and provided for by this Act, the Commissioners or any three or more of them, shall and may by writing under their hands and Seals acquaint the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour and Governours of Ireland, and Council there for the time being, with their proceedings and the doubts arising thereupon, and the defects appearing in this present Act, and such order of amendment, enlargement of periods, explanation or direction as shall be thereupon made by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours and Council by Act of Council in writing for the better and more easy Execution of this Act, and for promoting the ends thereof only, shall be as binding to the Commissioners and all other persons, and effectual as if the same had been part of this present Act, so alwayes that the said Act and Acts of Council be made within the said two years, and inrolled in the High Court of Chancery.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the time and space of two years to be computed from the day of the first sitting of the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall be and is hereby allotted unto the said Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution, and for performance of the several matters and things hereby intrusted to them, And in case the same shall not then be finished, it shall and may be lawfull for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, and Council there for the time being, to enlarge the time for the ends and purposes aforesaid, to such other and further periods, as they by any Act of Council and inrolled in the Chancery of Ireland, shall think fit to declare, so as such enlargement of time exceed not the space of one year from the expiration of the two former years, and that such order as to the enlarging of periods of time, shall be as good and effectual in Law, as if it had been particularly expressed and enacted by these presents.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Sheriffs, Mayors, Bayliffs and all other Officers, and Ministers of Justice shall well and truly execute all orders and Decrees to be made by the said Commissioners, or cause the same to be executed, and shall also from time to time obey and execute all such precepts, Warrants or other commands, as by the said Commissioners to them or any of them shall be directed, And that the Commissioners shall have such like power of proceeding in the cases of contempts and misdemeanours committed in open Court, or of willfull neglect or disobedience, as any of the four Courts at Dublin do or may lawfully use.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all suites and proceedings at Law, wherein the Authority of this Act may any way availe the Tenant or Defendant, in such suite it shall and may be lawfull to and for such Tenant or Defendant to plead the generall issue, and to give this Act and the proceedings thereupon in evidence, and if upon the tryall a verdict pass, or upon Demurrer Judgement be given for the Tenant or Defendant, or the Plaintiff or Demendant be non suit, that in all and every such case the party or parties, Tenants or Defendants shall recover his or their double costs and dammages.

And be it further Enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by his Majestie for the Execution of this present Act, shall and may receive for themselves and for the Sub-Commissioners, which they shall choose to attend and assist them therein, the Fees hereafter mentioned, and no other; That is to say, two pence for every profitable English acre which by any sentence, Judgement or Decree hereafter to be made by the said Commissioners, shall be granted, assigned, let out, restored or confirmed to any Adventurer, Souldier, old Proprietor or other Irish Papist, or to any Patentee, or Grantee, or any other person or persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatsoever, in pursuance of any part of this present Act, or of the said former Act, or of any proviso or grant therein made, or by the same or these presents ratified or confirmed, and such other Fees, salaries and rewards for and in recompense of their paines & endeavours in the Execution of such other partes of this and the said former Act which are intrusted to them, as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour and Governours of this Kingdom for the time being, and the Council shall think fit and appoint.

Be it hereby further provided & Enacted by this present Parliament, & by Authority of the same, that no prejudice or dammage whatsoever shall arise to or befall John Paine Esq; for or by reason or in respect of his being necessitated to accept of One hundred pounds or thereabouts in the time of the

the late Usurpers for the present subsistence of himself & Family then residing in Dublin, but that as to his full arrears due before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, for service in Ireland, the said John Paine, his Heirs and Assigns, shall be admitted to have, aske, demand and receive as full and ample satisfaction for the same, out of the security by this Act, set apart for satisfying the arrears of the Commissioned Officers before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, to all intents and purposes, as if he were to that end named, provided for and saved in his Majesties Declaration of the thirtieth of November, One thousand six hundred and sixty, and as any Commissioned Officer or Officers whatsoever who served in Ireland, before the year One thousand six hundred forty nine, and hath hitherto received no part of satisfaction for such his service, shall, may or ought to receive, any clause, Article, matter or thing whatsoever in this present Act, or any other Act mentioned or contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted, That all Arrears of pay grown due before the fifth day of June, in the year, One thousand six hundred forty nine, for which Sir Thomas Gifford Baronet deceased, was to have received satisfaction in case he had now been living, shall be satisfied unto Dame Martha Gifford, the Relict and sole Administratrix of the said Sir Thomas Gifford, her Heirs and Assigns, in such & the same manner as the same should or ought to have been satisfied to the said Sir Thomas Gifford, Any thing in the aforesaid Act, or this present Act, contained, or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas in and by the said former Act, the Bannock, Castle, Town and Lands of St. Woolstownes, alias Allens Court, were intended to be settled upon Hugh Earl of Mount-Alexander and his Heirs, with benefit of reprisal in case of restitution, as Adventurers by the said former Act ought to have had, as in and by the said former Act more at large appears, since which time the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, have by their Decree adjudged James Allen to be innocent, and restored the said Lands to the said James Allen and his Heirs, against which Decree an appeal was made to His Majesty, by a Petition exhibited by William Montgomery Esq; on the behalf of the now Earl of Mount-Alexander, an Infant Sonn & Heir of Hugh late Earl of Mount Alexander, on hearing of which case, and on the defence made by Colonel Richard Talbot, to whom part of the lands restored by the said Decree, were for good and valuable considerations, and by sufficient assurances in Law, legally conveyed by the said James Allen, His Majestie thought not fit to alter the said Decree, or weaken any of the said assurances, His Majestie is therefore graciously pleased that it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall set out and allot, or cause to be set out and allotted unto the now Earl of Mount-Alexander, his Heirs and Assignes, so much other undisposed forfeited lands, as may be equal in quantity of acres unto two full third parts of the lands so evicted and recovered by Decree as aforesaid, and that Letters Patents shall be thereof passed in like manner, and shall be of like effect as any other Letters Patents granted by virtue of this Act, are or ought to be.

And whereas in and by certain Letters Patents passed under the Great Seal of Ireland, and bearing date the Seaventh day of March, in the twelfth year of the Reign of His Majesties Royal Father, the Territories and precinct of Feartry in the County of Wicklow, and certain other Mannors, lands and Tenements in the said Letters Patents contained, were thereby given and granted unto Sir John Coke knight and his Heirs, his late Majesties principal Secretary of State, And whereas Thomas Coke late of Grapes-Inn in the County of Middlesex, His Majesties Solicitor Generall, sonn of the said Sir John Cooke Deceased, was in his life time lawfully seized of, or otherwise intituled unto the said Territory and precinct of Feartry, and other the lands and Tenements in the said Letters Patents contained, the Inheritance whereof after the Death of the said Thomas Coke Deceased, did descend and come or of right ought to have descended and came unto Coke an infant onely Sonn and Heir of the said Thomas Coke Deceased, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no sequestration or allotment of any of the lands or Tenements in the said Letters Patents contained, to any Adventurer or Souldier, shall any way Barr or weaken the right or title of him the said Coke in or the said lands or Tenements but that he the said Coke shall and may hold & enjoy the same to him and his Heirs, according to the tenor and effect of the said Letters Patents, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas in this and the said former Act, great care is is taken of the relict and heirs of Sir Simon Harcourt Knight Deceased, upon whom his Majesties Royall Father did by Letters under his Privie Signet appoint that lands of the value of four hundred pounds per annum, to be taken out of the forfeited estate of Luke Nettervill, should be settled, part of which estate together with certain houses in Dublin, were set out accordingly, and the relict and heirs of Sir Simon Harcourt thereof possessed at the time of his Majesties late Gracious Declaration, and so still are, which lands and houses together are, as is alleaged, still worth of the value of four hundred pounds per annum, intended to be settled as aforesaid, It is therefore Explained and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for Sir Philip Harcourt Knight, son and heir of Sir Simon Harcourt Knight, to hold and enjoy to him and his heirs, the houses in the City of Dublin, so as aforesaid set out and possessed, so as the houses and lands together, do not exceed the value of four hundred pounds per annum, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Thomas Cunningham and Captain Lewis Dick in the year, One thousand six hundred forty two, pretended to have performed acceptable services against the then Rebels in Ireland, by hindering provision coming to them by Sea, and by relieving the English Garrisons which were in distress, wherein they so far gained belief, as that they obtained from the Treasurer for the Irish Adventurers and acknowledgement, that they paid in Seven thousand pounds, as money adventured, and for which they likewise had a certificate from the Committee of Adventurers sitting at Grocers-Hall in London; And howbeit the said Thomas Cunningham, or Captain Lewis Dick never did any service on the coast of Ireland, according to the said undertaking, nor paid in any money as other Adventurers did, yet by colour of the said certificate, there were set out for the said Seven thousand pounds, the number of fifteen thousand five hundred fifty and five acres of Land in the County of Tipperary and Limerick, whereof they the said Thomas Cunningham and Captain Lewis Dick, or their Assigns, were possessed the seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine: Now least by the general rule of the present settlement, the said number of acres, or two third parts thereof, so unduly obtained as aforesaid, should be secured to the said Thomas Cunningham and Captain Lewis Dick, or their Assigns, His Majestie is graciously pleased that it be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said fifteen thousand five hundred fifty five acres, so set out as aforesaid for and on pretence of the said Seven thousand pounds, shall be, remain and continue, and are hereby vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever: Provided nevertheless, That if the said Thomas Cunningham and Captain Lewis Dick, their Heirs or Assigns, shall within two months after the Royal Assent shall be actually given to this present Bill, make it appear by full and clear proof, before the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours and Council of Ireland, that the said Adventure money of Seven thousand pounds was really and bona fide issued and paid in pursuant to the several Acts made by his late Sacred Majesty, for reducing the Rebels of Ireland, then they shall have the like benefit and advantage by the said Adventure, and out of the said fifteen thousand five hundred fifty five acres, as other Adventurers are to have by virtue of this present Act.

Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours of this Kingdom for the time being, shall and may assess any sum not exceeding three pence per acre, in and out of every acre of profitable land of Plantation measure, which is by the late Court of Claims, or shall be pursuant to this or the former Act, decreed or confirmed, or set out or delivered unto any person or persons of the Popish Religion in this Kingdom, and the same to cause to be leysed by Distress or otherwise, and to be paid unto the receivers herein after mentioned, to the intent that Five thousand pounds be paid to Milo Power Esq; his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, and that the residue may afterwards be issued out unto such of the Roman Catholics of this Kingdom, who as Agents, or otherwise since his Majesties most happy restitution, shall by the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governour or Governours be judged meriting the same, and that in such proportions as the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours shall think fit and direct.

Whereas Colonel Cary Dillon hath been dispossessed of Two thousand and six hundred and four acres of land, whereof he was possessed the seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty and nine, as being set out unto him for service in Ireland, and which were confirmed unto him by the said former Act, amounting to Three hundred and fifty pounds per annum: And whereas the late Lords Justices had had by their two Orders bearing date the eighteenth and nineteenth of July, One thousand six hundred sixty and two, assigned certain lands in the County of Galway, unto the said Colonel Cary Dillon, for his Reprizal of the whole, and also for satisfying of him Three hundred and sixty pounds sterling, which was one years rent of what he had lost, grown due unto him from the time he had been dispossessed, but the said Colonel Dillon received no benefit thereby, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners appointed to put in execution this Act, shall forthwith set out and allot unto the said Colonel Cary Dillon, his Heirs and Assignes for ever, One thousand seven hundred thirty five acres of profitable forfeited lands, of twenty one foot to the perch, being two third parts in quantity of what he hath already lost as a Souldier, and that the same do in present yield two full third parts of Three hundred and sixty pounds per annum, being the value of what he hath lost as aforesaid, with as much convenience of building and other advantages thereon as they can, in regard of the considerableness of the places and buildings from whence he is removed, which shall be granted unto him by like Letters Patents, as any other Souldier by this Act are to have; And if the said Commissioners shall think it necessary, that a Commission be issued for the inquiry into the value of any Lands, Castles, Tenements or other Hereditaments, in order to the setting out of the said Reprize, the Chancellour or Keeper of the Great Seal for the time being, are hereby required to issue the same, Any thing in this Act, or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas upon a solemn hearing before His Majestie at His Council Board in England, upon a Petition exhibited by several Adventurers and Souldiers against Randall Lord Marquels of Antrim, and against the Judgement and Decree given by the major part of the late Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, whereby the said Marquels was adjudged innocent, His Majestie after much time spent in the examination of the case, declared that he saw no cause why the said Marquels should be adjudged innocent, much less that the Commissioners not at all considering the proofs which they heard against the said Marquels, should lay the whole weight of their judgement upon His Majesties Certificate, the said Certificate being onely to declare, that the Marquels was imploied into Ireland, to procure what Forces he could from thence, to be transported into into Scotland, for his late Majesties service under the late Marquels of Montrose, To the end that the conversation of the said Marquels of Antrim in the Rebells quarters, which was necessary for that service, might not according to the letter of the former Act render him criminal, if that had been the onely, as it was the least objection against him, And therefore his Majestie resolved that the said Marquels of Antrim should undergoe a new tryall, to prevent which the said Marquels of Antrim by an humble Petition to his Majestie did acknowledge himself guilty, and humbly besought his Majestie, That he might be supported by his mercy, as being not able to support himself by his own innocence, Therefore his Majestie is pleased that it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Decree and all and every clause therein contained shall be and so is hereby declared to be null and void to all intents and purposes as if the same had never been had or made: Nevertheless his Majestie Reflecting upon the many services heretofore performed by the said Marquels towards his Royall Father of Blessed Memory, and some eminent services done by the said Marquels for his Majestie himself, the said Marquels having besides assisting him with Arms and amunition when he was in the West, furnished him with Shippes to make his escape into foreign parts, when his Armies were defeated in the West, and considering that his Majesties mercy is by this Act extended to some who have as much Demerited, Is graciously pleased that it may be further Enacted, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith and without staying for any previous reprizall set out, restore and allot unto the said Marquels of Antrim, or cause to be set out, restored and allotted unto the said Marquels of Antrim, all and singular the Honors, Mannors, Castles, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and all other the estate, right, title and interest, whereof the said Randall Lord Marquels of Antrim, or any other person in trust for him or to his use, was seized or possessed on the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one (the lands in the Barony of Glanarme herein after mentioned to be restored to Alexander Macdonell, and also all impropriations and appropriat tithes excepted) And that the said Marquels of Antrim shall hold and enjoy all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so restored unto him the said Marquels of Antrim, except before excepted,

and the Heirs males of his Body begotten, any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, Subject nevertheless to such Debts and other Incumbrances as the same were or ought to have been Subject unto, upon the said two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, (and to such Leases and estates thereof made for satisfaction of Creditors, as are provided for in and by the said former Act) and to the payment of such further Quit-rents as any other lands within the same County or Province are Subject unto; And the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, are hereby required with all convenient Speed to set out and allot unto all and every the Adventurers and Souldiers, their Heirs and Assignes, who shall be dispossessed by the restitution of the said Marquess, so much other forfeited land as may be sufficient to reprice and satisfy the persons so to be removed, for their several and respective two full third parts which will be due to them by the rules of this Act: And for the better enabling the said Marquess of Antrim to pay his Debts, when he shall be restored, by sale of land or otherwise, which cannot well be done unless the Reversion or remainder in Fee expectant upon the said estate Caple be taken out of the Crown, It is therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the lands and Tenements so, as aforesaid, appointed to be restored, And all and every the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders thereof shall be and are hereby vested and settled in Alexander MacDonnell Brother of the said Marquess, and his Heirs, as a remainder in Fee expectant upon the Death of the said Marquess without issue male.

Provided alwayes and it is hereby Enacted, that no fine, recovery or other Act or thing whatsoever to be done or suffered by the said Marquess, (other than Leases for one and forty years or three lives in possession and not in reversion, whereupon the highest improbed Rent which the same were let for in the year One thousand six hundred thirty and five, shall be reserved) touching or concerning any the Messuages, lands, Tenements or Hereditaments situate lying within the Barony of Donlue in the County of Antrim, shall any way extend to Barr, discontinue, defeat or incumber the remainder thereof intended by this Act to be settled upon the said Alexander, but that the said messuages, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the Barony of Donlue in the County of Antrim, shall after the Death of the said Marquess without issue male of his Body, remain and be in the said Alexander Mac Donnel and his Heirs, Any such Fine, Recovery, or other Act or thing done or suffered to the contrary notwithstanding: Nevertheless it is hereby declared, That as to all other the Lands and Tenements so, as aforesaid, to be restored, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Marquess by Fine, Recovery or any other way he shall think fit, to bar, discontinue, defeat or incumber the remainder thereof, so limited and settled as aforesaid.

Provided always, and it is Enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall any way extend to restore the said Marquess of Antrim to the possession of any Lands which he the said Marquess or his father did heretofore grant or convey in Fee Farm to any forfeiting person or persons not declared innocent, or to the possession of any lands whereof he the said Marquess or his father did make any Lease for lives or years to any forfeiting person or person not declared innocent, during the lawful continuance of such Lease, but that the Lands so granted in Fee Farm, or Demised as aforesaid, shall be put into the possession of such person and persons, for and towards the satisfaction of their two third parts, as would have been intitled to the same, if the said Decree had not been made, nor the said Marquess hereby restored, Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding: saving to the said Marquess and his heirs, the Rents and Services due and to be due for the premises.

Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall any way extend to bar or hinder Rose Lady Marquess of Antrim of her Right and Title of Dower of, in or to any the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so as aforesaid to be restored, but that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lady Marquess, after the death of the said Lord Marquess her husband, to sue for and recover her Dower of the said Lands and Tenements, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Alexander Mac Donnel, or any other in trust for him, was seized or possessed upon the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, Improvements and appropriate rythes excepted, subject to the debts and Incumbrances of him the said Alexander Mac Donnel, and such other debts as were thereupon charged by the Father of the said Alexander, and lyable to a proportionable part of the Rent-charge granted to Alice Countess of Antrim, and to such Quit-Rents as by this Act are payable for lands in the same Province, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And to prevent all Riots or Disturbances which may happen in taking or keeping possession of the premises, before the final settlement thereof, It is further Declared, That so much of the premises hereby intended to be restored to the said Marquess, whereof the said Marquess by himself or his Under-tenants was in possession upon the first of July, One thousand six hundred sixty and five, shall remain and continue in his and their possession, until restitution be thereof made by the Commissioners as aforesaid; And that the Adventurers and Souldiers, their Heirs and Assigns, may retain so much of the premises hereby intended to be restored to the said Marquess, and the said Alexander Mac Donnel, whereof they were in in possession the said first of July, One thousand six hundred sixty five, until restitution be thereof made by the said Commissioners, as aforesaid; And that Alexander mac Donnel may enter upon all the premises hereby intended to be restored to him, which are not in possession of Adventurers or Souldiers, their Heirs or Assigns, and the same to retain and keep in his possession, until restitution thereof be made by the Commissioners as aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Mannors of Edenduffcarick, and all other the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the Baronies of Toom and Antrim, which were given and bequeathed to Rose Lady Marquess of Antrim, by the last Will and Testament of Sir Henry O Neile her deceased Father, shall be held and enjoyed by the said Lady Marquess and her Heirs, Any Prosecution had against the said Lord Marquess her Husband, or any other matter or thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whereas by a Decree of the late Court of Claims, Patrick Co'ec'ough was restored to an Estate in the County of Wexford, in Remainder after the death of Dudley his father, father, part of which was by a clause in the said former Act vested in Robert Clayton & John Morris in trust for Sir John Cutler and others in the said Act mentioned, & had before that time been purchased from Souldiers or other reppizable persons in order to the erecting of Iron workes which have since accordingly been erected, and are of publique benefit to this Nation, & the increase of His Majesties revenue, & if the said Decrees should remain in full force, the said advantages might be lost, for the preservation thereof It is therefore Enacted & be it enacted by this Parliament, that the said John Morris & Robert Clayton shall & may have, hold & enjoy such part of the lands contained in the said Patrick Colcloughs Decree, as they were formerly seized of against the said Patrick and Dudley and their Heirs, and against the said Decree made as aforesaid, And it is further Enacted that in lieu and compensation thereof, the said Patrick Colclough shall have the full benefit of the reppizall due to the said John Morris and Robert Clayton upon the said Decree, And that untill the said reppizalls shall be set out, that the said lands hereby settled on the said John Morris & Robert Clayton, shall be chargeable, and are hereby charged with the annual Rent of One hundred pounds payable yearly on the first dayes of May and November, and made payable to the distress of the said Patrick upon non payment thereof at the said dayes of payment, And that as soon as the said reppizalls shall be set out as aforesaid, the said yearly Rent shall cease and absolutely determine, And to the end that the said Iron workes may be kept up, It is likewise Enacted that if the said former or ancient proprietor or his Heir of any the lands whereof the said John Morris and Robert Clayton are now seized in the said County of Wexford, shall be or is by this Act restored to his estate, then and in such case the said John Morris and Robert Clayton and their Heirs, shall notwithstanding have hold and enjoy such part of the said former Proprietors estate as they now stand seized of, And the said Proprietor for so much is elsewhere to be reppized, any thing in this present Act, or any other Act of Parliament contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Whereas His Majestie by severall Letters Patents under His Great Seal of Ireland, whereof one patent was dated the sixteenth February, One thousand six hundred and sixty in the thirteenth year of His Majesties Raign, the other dated the tenth day of July, One thousand six hundred sixty and three in the fifteenth year of His Majesties Raign, did amongst other things give, grant and confirm, or mentioned or intended to give, grant and confirm unto Sir George Lane Knight, and his heirs, all the Castles, Mannors, Houses, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and other interest whatsoever, which Philip Hore late of Kilsalchan attainted of High Treason was seized or possessed of at the time of his said attainder, since which time two severall Decrees have been made in the late Court of Claimes in this kingdom, to the prejudice of the said Grants, one at the suite of the Sonns and Daughters of the said Philip Hore attainted, for portions, and the other at the suite of the Sonns of Philip Hore the younger Sonns to the said Philip attainted, for severall remainders, which Decrees were upon a petition exhibited to his Majestie by the said Sir George Lane questioned, and on hearing of the cause, it was ordered that the said Sir George Lane should be at liberty to impugne the said Decrees by any matter in fact or Law; that he could object against them, whereupon the said Philip Hore the younger who made defence in the said cause before his Majestie, and the said Sir George Lane did mutually agree for avoiding of all future differences touching that matter, that all the said estate and interest should be divided, and a share thereof settled on the said Sir George Lane and his heirs, for quitting his whole pretense and right to that estate, and the remain thereof settled on the said Philip Hore the younger and his heirs for all his pretenses, and the pretenses likewise of his Brothers, Sisters and children to that estate, which agreement the said parties did by their joint Petition humbly desire to be established by severall privy Councillors in this Act, whereupon his Majesties was graciously pleased that it should be Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, And it is hereby Enacted, that the said severall Decrees be and are hereby made null and void, as if there had never been any such, And that the said Sir George Lane shall be and is hereby restored unto, settled, confirmed and established in the present and actual seizin and possession of the mannor, Castle, Town and lands of Kilsalchan with a wind-mill and six messuages containing by estimation three hundred acres of land, be it more or less, within the County of Dublin, with a Court Leet and Court Baron to be held within the said Mannor of Kilsalchan, the meadow called the Lords mead in the Feilds of Stradbally, a messuage & ten acres of land in Stradbally aforesaid in the Feilds thereof next adjoining to the Lords mead aforesaid, and all other the said Philip Hores lands in Stradbally aforesaid,

His Majestie having taken to his Princely consideration the many faithfull and acceptable services of Sir George Hamilton Knight, performed aswell to his late Majestie of Glorious Memory, as to himself in the Wars of Ireland, and that in severall qualities, as Captain of Horse, Colonel and Captain of Foot, Governour of the Castle of Nenach, and other capacities for which there were arrears to great value accrued to the said Sir George Hamilton before and after the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, which, though not stated, are by agreement and consent between him and other the Commissioned Officers and Trustees, serving in Ireland before that time, reduced to five thousand pounds sterling, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sir George Hamilton shall in full satisfaction of all personal arrears due unto him for his service in Ireland, in the several employments he had there before and after the said fifth day of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, be satisfied the sum of five thousand pounds sterling out of the security set a part and designed by this and the said former Act for satisfaction of the arrears of such Commissioned Officers as served His Majesty or his said Royal Father in the Wars of Ireland, at any time before or after the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, in such manner as by the said agreement is directed, this Act, or any other Act or matter to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided Always and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which were seized, sequestered or set apart upon account of the late Rebellion or War, have been given and granted by any particular clause or provision in the said former Act mentioned, or by any Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, or under the Great Seal of Ireland, to any person or persons whose estates therein were confirmed by the said former Act, or are confirmed by this present Act, and whereof a third part hath not been already evicted by some Decrees herein confirmed, ( the lands granted to his Royal Highness James Duke of York, George Duke of Albemarle, Arthur Earl of Anglesey, Roger Earl of Orrery, Charles late Earl of Mountrath, Richard Lord Baron of Colocny, Charles late Earl of Falmouth, Theobald Earl of Carlingford, Henry Lord Arlington, John Lord Kingston, Chidley Coot and Thomas Coet Esquires, the relict and heirs of Sir Simon Harcourt, and the relict and Children of Colonel George Cock, Sir William Pen, Sir Theophilus Jones, Sir George Aylscough, the Orphans of Colonel Owen O Connell, Sir George Rawdon Baronet, Sir George Lane, Edward Vernon Esq; Erasmus Smith Esq; and the lands conveyed or mentioned to be conveyed by John Parker to certain Trustees for pious uses, which Trustees are hereby made responsible to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour and Governours and Council there for the time being, touching the execution and performance of the said Charity, and the lands granted to any person or persons in satisfaction of arrears due for service done in Ireland, or in satisfaction of any debt owing to them for provisions for the Army or Navy in Ireland, and the lands which by the said former Act are restored to former Proprietors, onely excepted) That there and in such cases, the said Proviso's, Clauses, Grants and Letters Patents shall be understood, and so are hereby declared to be good and valid for no more than two full third parts of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments therein mentioned, and thereby granted, and as to one third part of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments therein contained, shall be and so are hereby declared to be null and void, Any thing in the said Proviso's, Clauses, Letters Patents, or in the said former Act, or in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Nevertheless such Grantees, and all those who claim under them, shall have like liberty of Retrenchment, and in like manner and form as Adventurers and Souldiers are to have by the rules of this Act, and the third part so as aforesaid to be retrenched, shall remain and be vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be disposed and applyed to such uses as other forfeited lands by this Act ought to be, Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.
Lieut.

Provided also, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of all the Lands which have been decreed to any Irish Papist, Popish Recusant, or Roman Catholick, by virtue of any Decrees not grounded upon some particular Proviso in the said former Act, and made by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, after the second day of July in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty three, and herein confirmed, one years rent, according to the values the same were let at in the year, One thousand six hundred sixty nine, over and above all other the rents and payments by this Act imposed or made leypable, shall be raised, and leyped, and paid unto the Receivers herein after mentioned, by two even and equal payments, the first payment thereof to begin upon the first day of November, which shall be in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty and seven, and the second payment thereof to be upon the first day of November, which shall be in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty and eight, under the penalty following, That is to say,

every person lyable to the payment of any part of the said Pears rent, and making default, and failing to pay the same by the space of twenty days next after any the days and times wherein the same ought to be paid, shall be chargeable, and is hereby charged with double the sum which ought to have been paid as aforesaid, to be levyed by Process out of His Majesties Court of Exchequer, in like manner as any other the rents herein before imposed or appointed to be levyed; And the said Receivers herein after mentioned, are to pay the moneys by them received from time to time unto Arthur Earl of Anglesey, Vice-Treasurer of Ireland, or unto the Vice-Treasurer of Ireland for the time being, And the said Arthur Earl of Anglesey, or the Vice-Treasurer of Ireland for the time being, is hereby appointed to issue out and pay all and singular the monies which by virtue of this clause shall be received and paid in, or otherwise levyed as aforesaid, unto such Irish Papists, Popish Recusants and Roman Catholicks, as served under His Majesties Ensigns abroad, and are particularly mentioned in the late Declaration, and were seized of or intitled unto any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments upon the three and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, to which they are not yet restored, and in such parts and proportions as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland for the time being shall direct and appoint.

And whereas in the said former Act it is provided, That the sum & sums of money which have been forfeited by any Adventurer or Adventurers, by reason he or they did not satisfie or pay in their full proportions or sums of money respectively subscribed by them, according to the tenor of the Acts of Parliament of the seventeenth & eighteenth of King Charles the first, be & are hereby vested and settled in His Majesty, His Heirs & Successors, as in & by the said Act more fully appeareth, which forfeited subscriptions, adventures or sums of money are commonly called by the name of lapsed money, And whereas His Majesty for the better increasing of the stock of undisposed forfeited lands, and to the end that more of the ancient and former Proprietors may come to be restored, is graciously pleased to relinquish his satisfaction of the said lapsed money by or out of any forfeited lands to be therefore set out, and to accept of the sum of Thirty thousand pounds sterling, to be paid unto His Majesty in lieu and recompence thereof, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That His Majesties right and title title in and to any forfeited lands, in recompense of and satisfaction for the said lapsed moneys shall be and is hereby released and discharged; and further, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, and other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland, and Council there for the time being, to assess and impole upon all and every the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which by virtue of this Act shall be restored or confirmed to any former Proprietors of the Popish Religion, or granted to any the Roman Catholics of Ireland, such further and other sums as they shall think fit, for the raising and levying of Thirty thousand pounds sterling, in the most equal and indifferent way that may be, to be paid unto the Receiver herein after mentioned, by two even und equal payments, the first payment thereof to begin upon the first day of May, which shall be in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty and six, and the second day of payment to be upon the first day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty and six, and in case any person or persons lyable to the payment of any part of the said Thirty thousand pounds so, as aforesaid, to be assessed and imposed, shall make default of payment, by the space of one and twenty days next after any the days and times wherein the same ought to be paid, then the person so making default shall be chargeable, and is hereby charged with double the sum which ought to have been paid as aforesaid; and the Vice-Treasurer of Ireland for the time being, shall issue out and pay, or cause to be issued out and paid unto Richard Stratford of London Gentleman, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, the sum of Three thousand pounds sterling, and the residue thereof being Twenty seven thousand pounds, and all other the forfeitures and penalties which shall be incurred for non payment of the said Thirty thousand pounds, unto such person and persons, and to and for such uses as the said lapsed moneys, or the lands to be set out in satisfaction of the same, were or ought to have been granted, in pursuance of His Majesties severall and respective Letters under His Royal Signet, bearing date upon the tenth, or eleventh, or the twelfth day of February, in the Fourteenth year of His Majesties Reign, and in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty and two, or by any other Letters under His Majesties Royal signet, or by any Letters Patents to Roger Earl of Orrery, or others, Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the customs, duties and impositions of what nature or kind soever which are or shall be due for any goods, wares or merchandize imported into or exported out of the ports and havens of Straggsford and Ardlass, or either of them, or any the members thereof, or Creekes thereunto belonging, heretofore the inheritance of Wentworth late Earl of Kildare, and by him sold unto his Majestie, shall be and are hereby vested in the Kings Majestie, and shall be held and enjoyed by his Majestie, his Heirs and Successors, any defect in the conveyance thereof to his Majestie, or other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Capital messuage, mills, manors, towns and lands of Chappel-Izzard, alias Izzod, with all the rights, members and appurtenances thereof, heretofore conveyed or mentioned to be conveyed or contracted for, by or in behalf of the Kings Majestie, and agreed to be conveyed by Sir Maurice Eustace Knight, late Lord Chancellor of Ireland, unto the Kings Majestie, and for which part of the purchase money hath been paid by the Kings Majestie unto the said Sir Maurice Eustace in his life time, shall upon payment of the residue of the purchase money unto the lawfull Executors of him the said Sir Maurice Eustace, be and is hereby vested in the Kings Majestie, his Heirs and Successors, and shall be held and enjoyed by his Majestie, his Heirs and Successors against the said Sir Maurice Eustace and his heirs, and all and every other person and persons claiming by from or under him, them or any of them, any defect in the conveyance or assurance of the premises, any thing in the said former Act or this present Act, and any other matter or thing whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall set out and allot, or cause to be set out and allotted unto Major John Neil so much of the undisposed and forfeited lands in the Barony of Barrymore in the County of Corke, as may be sufficient to reprice him the said John Neile for the houses in Waterford, whereof his Father was seized and possessed the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty and one, any thing in the said former Act or this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this present Act, shall

restore unto Sir Luke Bath Baronet, and his Heirs, all the Castles, Houses, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Rents, Reversions or Remainders, Right, Title, Interest and Estate whatsoever, which be the said Sir Luke Bath, or his deceased Father James Bath, or any other in trust for them, or either of them, or to their or either of their use, was seized or possessed on the two and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, (except the houses and lands within the City of Dublin and Liberties thereof, and also except all Impropriations and Appropriate tythes) which said Mannors, Lands, Houses and Hereditaments so, as aforesaid, to be restored, shall after such restitution be held by the said Sir Luke Bath, and his Heirs and Assignes, and shall be subject to such Quit-rents, Services, and other payments, as the same are made payable unto by this Act, and would have been charged with, in case the same had continued in the possession of any the Adventurers or Souldiers, or of their or any of their Heirs or Assigns; And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith set out and allot unto the said Sir Luke Bath and his Heirs, so much forfeited lands in lieu of the said houses and lands in Dublin, formerly belonging to him the said Sir Luke Bath or his Father, and to which he is not to be restored, as may be sufficient to reprice him the said Sir Luke Bath and his Heirs, for the houses and lands aforesaid; And the said Commissioners are also to set out and allot unto His Royal Highness James Duke of York and his Heirs, so much other forfeited lands as may be equal in value, worth and purchase, for what he hath in Custodiam of the Estate of Sir Luke Bath, and that the Adventurers and Souldiers, and the Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred and forty nine, and all other who are posses of, or intituled unto any of the estate of the said Sir Luke Bath, according to this Act, shall be likewise reprized in two full third parts of the value of their respective interests, before the said Sir Luke Bath be restored to such part of his estate from whence they are to be removed, Any thing in this Act, or the former Act, or any other Law, Statute, Ordinance, Act, Attainder, Record, Sequestration, Allotment, or any other cause, matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas His Majesty in and by certain Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland; did give and grant unto Sir Henry Talbot Knight, certain lands in Connaght, in Exchange of and for certain other lands of his the said Sir Henry Talbot, adjoining to the Castle of Dublin, and convenient for His Majesties service, It is therefore hereby provided and Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Sir Henry Talbott, to have hold and enjoy to him and his heirs, all and singular the lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Connaught, in and by the said Letters Patents granted according to the tenor and effect of the same Letters Patents, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith set out and allot unto all and every the Adventurers, Souldiers and Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, their heirs and Assignes who now are seized or possessed of any Castles, Houses, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Rents, interests and estates whatsoever in this Kingdom, which Nicholas Plunkett of Balrath in the County of Meath Esq; now Sir Nicholas Plunkett Knight, rightfully had and enjoyed upon the two and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, so much other forfeited lands as may be equal in value, worth and purchase to two full third parts of the lands whereof they are so possessed, if they shall be willing to accept of such reprieve, and to be removed from the same, And that all and every the messuages, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments for which they or any of them shall accept of such reprieve, and from which they or any of them shall be removed as aforesaid, and the other third part of the premises, and all other messuages, lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Rents, Interests, trusts and estates whatsoever, which at the time aforesaid did belong to the said Nicholas Plunkett, shall be by the said Commissioners set out and allotted, and granted unto James Hamilton Esq; one of the Grooms of His Majesties Bedchamber & his heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assignes respectively, And in case any person or persons seized or possessed of the premises or any part thereof, shall not be willing to be reprieved for or removed from the same as aforesaid, the Commissioners for Execution of this Act, shall forthwith set out and allot unto the said James Hamilton and his heirs, so much forfeited lands in some other convenient place as may be equal in value, worth & purchase to the said lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or to so much thereof as the said Adventurers and Souldiers or other persons aforesaid, shall be unwilling to be removed from, and herein they are required to proceed with all convenient speed, any thing in the said former or this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And

And whereas in and by the said former Act and the Declaration therein recited, it was provided that it should and might be lawful to and for His Majesty to restore any innocent Papists who were dispossessed of their Houses in Corporations, to their several and respective Houses within the said Corporations, His Majesty is graciously pleased that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted, That the said clause and the power thereby reserved to His Majesty, shall be and is hereby repealed, released and discharged.

Provided alwaies and it is hereby Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for Richard Stephens the younger to hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, all and singular the messuages and lands, Tenements and other the Hereditaments situate, lying and being in and about the Town and Corporation of Kells in the County of Eastmeath, whereof he the said Richard Stephens the younger by himself or his under-tenants was seized or possessed upon the Seaventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, and which lye within the securities set apart for the satisfaction of the Commissioned Officers who served before the fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, he the said Richard Stephens placing thereupon so many Debentures for arrears due for service done before the said fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, for which no satisfaction hath yet been given, and which are satisfiable by the rules of this or the said former Act, as do amount unto the full summe of three hundred pounds, any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Sir Theophilus Jones Knight, was heretofore settled in and planted upon a Messuage and certain Lands in and about Lucan, and now by virtue of some Decree made by the Commissioners for execution of the said former Act, and herein confirmed, is onely to enjoy the said Messuages and Lands during the life of Patrick Sarshfield, who was declared nocent, after whose death the said lands are declared to come unto William son of the said Patrick, an infant, and the heirs males of his body, by reason whereof the said Sir Theophilus Jones is likely to sustain great prejudice, if due consideration be not had of his improvements, Be it declared and Enacted, That the Commissioners for execution of this Act, shall forthwith set out and allot unto the said Sir Theophilus Jones and his heirs, so much forfeited land as may be sufficient in value, worth and purchase, fully to reppize the said Sir Theophilus Jones for the Messuage, Lands and Improvements which

which have been so evicted and decreed away from him, Any clause, matter or thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for Pierce Creagh, to hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs, all and singular the Possessions, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the Province of Connaught, and County of Clare, or either of them, whereof he the said Pierce Creagh, is now in possession by himself or his Under-tenants, and into which the said Pierce Creagh was transplanted by the late Usurpers, Any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And because the Adventurers and Soldiers are by this Act exempted from payment of such Fees to the Officers attending both Houses of Parliament and others as in and by the said former Act might have been demanded or pretended to, as due, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour or Governours of Ireland and Council there, to assess and impose upon all and every the Adventurers and Soldiers, who by the said former Act were liable, or might be pretended to be liable to the payment of such Fees, such further and other sums of money not exceeding five thousand pounds, as they shall think fit, and to cause the same to be levied in such manner, as any other the sums herein before imposed, are leviable, and to be paid to the Receivers aforesaid, to the end the same may be issued out unto and distributed amongst such Officers in such manner and according to such proportions as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governour and Council, after the advice of both Houses of Parliament thereupon had, shall direct and appoint.

Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Colonel William Leg, one of the Grooms of His Majesties Bed-Chamber, shall in lieu of what hath been retrenched of his Provision in the former Act, have, hold and enjoy to him and his Heirs for ever, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments by His Majesties Letters Patents to him granted and passed under the Great Seal of Ireland, pursuant to and according to the tenor and effect of His Majesties Letters under His Privy Signet and Sign Manual, bearing date at Whitehal the Nineteenth day of January, One thousand six hundred sixty and three, without any Retrenchment or Defalcation.

Defalcation whatsoever, Any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted, That James Fitz Gerald of Laragh in the County of Westmeath, and his Heirs, shall have the like restitution, privileges, advantages and benefits in all respects, as any of the fifty four persons provided for by this Act, Any thing therein contained or otherwise to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty being fully satisfied of the constant loyalty and Innocence of Robert Arthur deceased, late of Dublin Alderman, and of John Arthur his son and heir, who were both Inhabitants of Dublin, is graciously pleased, That it be Enacted, & be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said John Arthur shall be by the said Commissioners restored unto, settled and established in the quiet possession, and shall thenceforth have, hold, possess and enjoy to him and his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, all and singular the Mannors, Houses, Castles, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Reversions, Remainders, Leases, Rights, Titles, Interests and Estates whatsoever in the Kingdom of Ireland, which the said Robert Arthur, or any other person or persons in trust for, him or to his use, had, held or enjoyed on the twenty second of October, One thousand six hundred forty one, or at any time since, Except what thereof is in the hands of Adventurers or Souldiers, or is in the City of Dublin, for which the said John is to be forthwith repossessed elsewhere, to the full value thereof, as neer and contiguous to the said City, as conveniently may be, and the said John Arthur is likewise restored unto, and is hereby enabled to demand, recover and receive to his own use, all and singular the debts and sums of money which at any time heretofore were due and owing to him the said Robert Arthur, and are still unpaid, This present, or any other Act, Clause, matter or thing therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas Randall Barquels of Antrim, did on or about the One and twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred thirty seven, demise and grant the Barony of Cary, the Lordship of Ballycastle, and the Island of Rathcline, and all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments within the said Barony, Island and Lordship, unto Alexander Macdonnell, John Moore, Archbald Steward, and John Trayleman, for the term of ninety nine years from Michaelmas, One thousand six hundred
